MAN FINED $14 WILD WEST SHOW

He Was Charged With Carrying a Dangerous Weapon

Tony Pasqua, a middle aged man who came from the southern part of Italy, appeared in the dock in police court this morning in negligence, after being charged with drunkenness and carrying a dangerous weapon.

He admitted that he had the knife in his possession but denied that he was drunk.

According to the story told in court, Tony made a tour of inspection of several saloons last night and after taking samples from several places went to his home in Hudson street, but the heat in the house was so intense that he retired to the middle of the street where he became very noisy and disturbed the slumbers of the residents of that vicinity who retired before 11 o'clock.

Patrolman Garry was attracted to the scene by the sound of Tony's voice and though he tried to have the obstreperous person go into the house and retire for the night, Tony informed the officer that he was in a free country and privileged to do as he pleased. The patrolman, however, did not agree with Pasqua and placed the latter under arrest.

When booked at the police station it was found that Tony was armed with a very dangerous sharp edged dirk and when this weapon was brought to light the complaint of carrying a dangerous weapon was added to that of drunkenness.

In court this morning the prisoner said that he did not intend to use the knife on any person, that he carried it in order to cut bread. He denied that he was drunk.

The court, however, found him guilty on both complaints and ordered him to pay a fine of $14 for carrying the knife and $1 for getting drunk.

Back to the Old Homestead

Viola Cronin, who was arrested for drunkenness last week and sent to the city farm in order that she might be examined as to her sanity and who subsequently escaped from the farm and paraded through the South common Saturday night in male attire, was in court this morning.

When placed under arrest last week her condition was such that the court decided that a little vacation would do her a great deal of good. She was sent to the farm and Saturday night she managed to confiscate a pair of overalls and a cap, and taking French leave started cityward.

The noise on the midway on the South common attracted her attention and she hid herself in that direction. She had been at large but a short time when one of the patrolmen on duty recognized her and sent her to the police station. She was then returned to the farm and yesterday examined by Dr. Benner and Dr. Smith. The salient fact of the case could not be committed to an asylum for the insane. She belongs in New Hampshire and when she promised that she would return to her home the Scotland with 173 tons of coal. The pumps failed to keep up with the inflow and the vessel began to settle. The two sailors and the cabin boy, comprising the entire crew, put off in the ship's boat and stood by Capt. Morrison who stuck to his craft to the last. When the schooner's stern plunged downward the captain jumped overboard and the boat picked him up. The little craft had a hard time of it in the heavy sea trying to maintain a course for Rockaway beach off which the life savers finally picked up the quartet this morning.

Captain G. G. Morrison of the schooner said that his vessel sank and very early to learn that his five outlaws was the cause of worry among his friends.

BACK IN TOWN DR. GEO. NORTON

Little Johnnie Curry Lowell Boy Gets Important Position

Dr. George E. Norton of Cambridge, son of Deputy Fire Chief Norton, of Lowell, has been chosen by the Cambridge board of health to have charge of the diphtheria hospital in that city, in place of Dr. David C. Dow, whose term expired yesterday.

Dr. Dow was in charge for several years. He was removed during the administration of Mayor McNamee and Dr. Felix McGlynn was appointed in his place. Dr. Dow was reinstated when the board returned to power and has held the position ever since.

The announcement of his failure to secure a reappointment this year came as a surprise. None of the members of the board of health would discuss the matter when asked regarding it. Dr. Norton is one of the best-known physicians in Cambridgeport. He is a graduate of the university of Vermont.

court placed her in the custody of the probation officer and he will see that she reaches her New Hampshire home in safety.

He Was Not Drunk?

John C. Driscoll contends that four glasses of ale will not make a man drunk, and when arraigned in court this morning on a complaint charging him with being drunk he denied the allegation. Patrolman John Swanwick who arrested Driscoll, said that he found the man in Gorham street last night and that he was very drunk.

John started to argue his case, but without avail. He admitted that he had spent some time at the state farm in Bridgewater and in answer to questions put by Deputy Downey said that he had been returned to the farm last September, returned again on January 18 and that he was released from the institution but a few weeks ago. The defendant appealed but later withdrew his appeal and this afternoon was returned to Bridgewater.

Neglected Wife

Zenon Richard was charged with failing to provide proper support for his wife. The latter testified that Zenon was very lax about coming up with the "long green" and relative to his neglecting his wife he said that he was sick and tired of supporting his wife's relatives. Judge Hadley turned the case over to Probation Officer Slat, the father and the latter succeeded in having the couple reach an amicable settlement.

Case Continued

The case of Jan Perit, charged with assault and battery on Jan Brach on July 2, was continued till Friday morning by agreement of counsel, Messrs. Hennessy and O'Connor.

Drunken Offenders

Frank McLaughlin, charged with being drunk, was fined $6 and given one month in which to pay the fine. John Boyle and Michael Sullivan were fined $6 each and two first offenders were taxed $2 each.

Used a Washboard

Tony Furson and John Nowick got into a mixup in their boarding house a week ago yesterday and just for that Tony had John arrested and the latter appeared in court this morning and entered a plea of not guilty to a complaint charging him with assault and battery.

While the two men were eating dinner on the day of the assault, it is alleged that John called Tony some vile names and Tony pushed his words as a washboard and struck Furson over the face with it. The court found Nowick guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $6.

J. Joseph Hennessy appeared for the government, and D. J. Donahue for the defense.

101 Ranch Gives a Fine Street Parade

JOSEPH C. MILLER, PRESIDENT OF THE 101 RANCH.

"101 Ranch" Gives a Fine Street Parade

Miller Bros' great Wild West and Indian Show, 101 Ranch, a mammoth aggregation of frontiersmen, women and animals, direct from the real 101 Ranch of the three Miller Bros., in Oklahoma, arrived in town early this morning for two big performances and a street parade.

The 101 Ranch show is distinctively a Wild West show and with the exception of a few Cossacks everybody and everything connected with it has been taken from Oklahoma and it has an added value along its spectacular feature, in that it depicts life on the plains that is historically correct.

The big show landed in about three o'clock this morning. It was the original intention of the promoters to show on the Lakeview avenue grounds on account of some difficulty in securing the Fair grounds. It was discovered that the Lakeview avenue grounds were too small for a show of this magnitude and hence at the last moment it was decided to set up the arena on the Fair grounds.

Along about three o'clock this morning two long trains of 20 big, bright red cars, each with the 101 Ranch, Wild West Show on their sides, rolled into town, and hundreds of beautiful horses and crowds of cowboys, cowgirls, Mexicans, Indians, Cossacks, lariat throwers, squaws, ponies and a hundred and one other types of humanity emerged.

Once on the grounds, it took this wonderful organization less than ten minutes to saddle the 650 riding horses and hitch up the draught stock to the big wagons, and consequently the entire show was on its show grounds and its tents were in course of erection by 7 o'clock. As early as eight o'clock the balloon and skyman men, those inevitable features of the circus and Wild West show, were down town catching the early arrivals.

The crowds began to assemble early and shortly before ten o'clock all the downtown streets were packed with people.

Shortly after ten o'clock with the blare of trumpets and the playing of a rapid transit band announced the coming of the great street parade. The parade was led by Mr. Joseph C. Miller, president of the 101 Ranch, riding his famous coal black stallion, the $10,000 beauty, Chester, universally admitted to be the handsomest horse in the world.

The parade was about a mile in length and every performer of the spectacular feats of daring and skill which make up the performance was in line, while four bands and a steam calliope furnished music.

The company advertises that it carries 3000 people and of that number nearly all appeared in the parade which was unusually long though it moved along without delay. Yes, there was the old Deadwood coach and who was in it but an old friend, Pete McNally, America's champion swimmer and press agent. Pete has put on some flash since his last appearance here with the Barnum show but is as genial and as lively as ever. A feature of the parade was the large number of women in line, all in the picturesque costume of the borderland and all riding bronchos "just like a man." The Indians were numerous and ferocious looking while the horses, mostly tough little bronchos, were all in excellent condition.

Upon arrival at the grounds after the parade a fine out door show was given for an hour. The big shows are at 2 and 8 and take place in an open arena with only the "blue canopy of heaven" for a roof, thus assuring the public of comfort while in attendance.

A BROKEN NOSE PRESIDENT TAFT

Man Went to Police Station to Complain

James Holland, a middle aged man who had accumulated a good supply of wet goods, walked into the police station last night in order to make a complaint against an unknown man who he alleged assaulted him. That Holland had either been assaulted or had fallen heavily was evident, for his nose was fractured in two places and the blood was flowing freely from the nasal organ.

He was booked for drunkenness and later City Physician Smith was called to attend him. This morning the man was released on condition that he go to the state infirmary at Tewksbury for further treatment.

PERSONALS

Dr. John C. Gatsopoulos sailed yesterday on the Ivernia for London, Paris and Berlin.

BEVERLY, July 6.—With not a single entry in his engagement book for the next ten days, President Taft began a real vacation period today. The executive officers have turned down all requests for audiences with the chief executive and the only callers allowed on Burgess Point up to July 16 will be social friends of the Taft family.

The president will go over the more important mail for an hour each afternoon. The remainder of the day will be his to do as he pleases. The president's summer schedule has about narrowed itself down to golf in the morning and either a long automobile ride or a short sail on the Sylph in the afternoon.

The sailing parties on the Sylph always include a number of friends and tea is served in the canopied quarter deck.

SPECIAL INDULGENCES ARE OFFERED BY THE LOWELL MERCHANTS FOR THURSDAY TRADING. SEE THE BARGAINS ADVERTISED IN TODAY'S SUN.

RENT OF LOGS

For lots let on the South common July 4 the city will reap the snug little sum of $1694, which is an increase over last year.

The park commission met last night and approved the usual monthly bill. Capt. Whittell did not make any formal report as to July 4 receipts on the common but he said they would amount to $1694. Hearings were given on petitions for the removal of trees.

NIGHT RIDER WON

SALISBURY, Eng., July 4.—The first hour's stakes of 20 sovereigns each with 300 sovereigns added for two years old, distance, five furlongs straight, was run here today and won by Charles Carroll's Night Rider. Rhosmar was second and Master Thrush third. There were six starters.

RESCUED A WOMAN

Officer Sheridan Found Woman on Point of Suffocation

The presence of mind, the quick and effective work of Patrolman Gilbert Sheridan last night resulted in his saving the life of Julia Regan, an elderly woman, who but for him would have been suffocated at the fire which broke out in a house in South street.

The fire was in a building at 130 South street, occupied by F. E. Donnelly and family. The blaze had its origin in a sleeping room on the second floor and, owing to the fact that there was no one in the room, the blaze was not discovered until the smoke started to make its way through the house to the rooms on the lower floor. One of the members of the household rushed upstairs and found that the bed in the room was ablaze. Several of the occupants of the house ran into the street, and Patrolman Sheridan, who was close by, realizing that something was wrong, rushed to the house and seeing the smoke pouring from the windows sent a man to pull in an alarm from box 24 at the corner of Middlesex and South streets.

Patrolman Sheridan then entered the house for the purpose of assisting the other occupants to escape. Someone informed the officer that a woman who occupied the room directly above the one in which the fire started had not been accounted for and he immediately made for the top floor and there found Julia Regan apparently unable to find her way out because of the smoke. The officer picked her up and carried her to a house nearby.

The fire was quickly extinguished.

DEFENCES FOR HONOLULU
HONOLULU, July 6.—Secretary of War Dickinson, speaking at a banquet tendered him by the commercial bodies of the city here, said that the government entertained ambitious plans for the extension of the defenses of Honolulu and contemplated a considerable increase of the force at the military post here, which would be made a permanent garrison. Accompanied by several officers, Sec. Dickinson inspected the military posts on the island of Oahu yesterday and expressed satisfaction with their condition.

Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs, who came from Washington with Sec. Dickinson, said in an interview that he was going to the Philippines to investigate fully the charges which have been made in connection with the disposal of friar lands by the government of the islands.

NEGROES COMMENDED

WASHINGTON, July 6.—For saving

a white shipmate from drowning, two young negro mess attendants on the receiving ship Franklin at the Norfolk navy yard have received the commendation of Rear Admiral Nicholson, acting secretary of the navy.

Alexander Bias of Annapolis and T. L. Walker of Philadelphia rescued J. C. Lowery, who, while swimming near the ship, became exhausted and called for help. The two negroes plunged in with their clothing on and towed the drowning man to a boat.

that Carr Huse, a prominent 1881 young man, had accidentally shot himself in Miles City, Mont. and is dead. He was about 25 years old. A sister, Charlotte Huse, resides in Ill.

Mr. Huse was a well-known baseball player and had been a member of New England league teams. He was graduated from a Boston business college a few years ago. He had been in the west for some time.

ARGENTINE BOY

LEFT SCHOOL TO SEEK A SHIP FOR HOME

NEW YORK, July 6.—A dark skinned boy of about 15 stopped a policeman in Catharine street last night and asked where he could find a ship for the Argentine Republic. Then he became reticent about himself and the policeman suggested a walk to the Madison street station. The boy went under protest.

On the desk lay a copy of a telegram sent on Monday from Randolph, N. Y., describing an Argentine student who had disappeared from Chamberlain's Military Institute last Friday. Major Campbell, the principal, had wired the police to keep the boy if he turned up. "Aren't you Roberto Justo from Buenos Ayres?" asked the lieutenant.

"That's my name," answered the boy. "How did you know?" They showed him the telegram and he told them that he had grown homesick at the school and wanted to see his family. He changed his uniform for ordinary clothes and slipped away. The first train that came along took him to some town in Massachusetts. He couldn't recall the name. By that time his money was running low, so he struck up an acquaintance with a freight conductor, who let him ride in the caboose. He liked the sensation of travel and didn't take account of distances or places until he came into Jersey City on Monday morning.

That day he spent looking for a ship to the Argentine Republic, but he could not seem to find one and he was afraid to ask questions. He had money enough to stay at a hotel Monday night and he still had $1. He was sent to the Gerry society for safe keeping and the principal was notified. The young man did not like the idea of going to an institution when he had money in his pockets.

SON THOUGHT DEAD

GAVE HIS PARENTS A GREAT SURPRISE

OMAHA, July 6.—While the parents of James Shea of Omaha, who was reported killed at Cornell, N. Y., on Saturday, were awaiting the arrival of his body Shea himself walked into the house, alive and well.

On the same train which brought Shea home came the body of the man who had been identified at Cornell as Shea. The body of the unknown unless identified promptly will be given burial by the Shea family.

Shea was in Cornell on a vacation Saturday an undertaker in that city telegraphed Shea's parents that the young man had been killed. The Sheas telegraphed funds for the transportation of his body. The family are at a loss to account for the mistake.

Don't forget to put your name and address on each menu you send and remember that each dish you name must be figured at the actual market cost of food.

Learn what a splendid range you can compete for, by stepping into a BARSTOW STOVE Dealer's and asking to see it.

BARSTOW RANGES possess every improvement worthy of use in a range and many special time and labor-saving features found in no other ranges.

We will award a combination range with gas oven and gas shelf for use with or without coal fire.

It has two heat indicators, sectional covers, towel dryer, oven food rake, simmering cover; nickel parts detach quickly when polishing.

Like all BARSTOW RANGES, it will cook a 50c. or $50 dinner with two-thirds the fuel required by other makes.

Minister From Bolivia Weds His Family's Nurse

NEW YORK, July 6.—A romance in which a member of the diplomatic corps at Washington is revealed as the hero at the age of sixty, was disclosed yesterday when it became known that Senor Ygnacio Calderon, minister to the United States from Bolivia, was married last Saturday at Mamaroneck to Miss Beatrice Monica Ainley.

The marriage of the distinguished South American is made doubly interesting on account of the fact that his bride was for some years employed in the Calderon family as a trained nurse. The diplomat's first wife died only last November. His daughter is Madame Jorge Zalles and is recognized as one of the most beautiful of the foreign legations set.

The marriage license was issued on June 29, last Friday, by Town Clerk Charles Stevens at Port Chester. The following day the ceremony was performed by Father Isidore Meister, of Holy Trinity Catholic church, in Mamaroneck. Mary A. Ainley and Elizabeth Martin were the only witnesses. These records were examined yesterday by American reporters.

Daughter Greatly Surprised

So profound was the secrecy imposed upon all connected with the marriage details that not even Mrs. Zalles, the daughter in Washington, was willing to believe the reports when seen there last night. She said:

"The story can hardly be true, because our mother is scarcely dead six months. Miss Ainley is a quiet, unassuming woman, who has been highly regarded by us. She is not at all young."

As further evidence that she knew nothing of her father's plans, Mrs. Zalles added:

"If you get any further news about it, I shall be glad to be informed." Senor Calderon was found at the home of his bride, No. 36 Stuart street, Mamaroneck. He declined to discuss his romance until informed that a record of the license had been examined by the reporter. Then, he attempted to explain that the license had simply been obtained for future use.

He seemed greatly embarrassed and would not admit that the ceremony had been performed until informed that he would have to make use of the license before July 10 or it would become void. Then, with a Spanish shrug of the shoulders, he said:

Tells of Marriage

"Very well, then, you may say that I have been married. I do not care to go into details, as I had hoped to avoid all publicity. I have not even informed members of my immediate family. I have known the lady whom I have married for several years, having first met her in Washington. She is not wealthy, but is a most estimable one. My reasons for secrecy are due to the fact that I did not acquaint the members of my immediate family with my plans, nor have I yet informed them of my marriage."

The Ainley home is a pretty cottage at the Mamaroneck address given. Senor Calderon declined to permit an interview with his wife, although it was she who received the reporter at the door, then hurriedly disappeared. Her father is said to have been engaged in the cigar business in New Rochelle.

Sixty Years Old

At Port Chester, Town Clerk Stevens said:

"I was called on the phone from Mamaroneck last Friday afternoon by Father Meister, who said Senor Calderon and Miss Ainley, both of whom he knew, desired to obtain a marriage license, but wanted as little publicity as possible. It was arranged that the couple should come over by trolley after 6 o'clock, which they did, and after answering satisfactorily all the questions asked, were given the license."

"Senor Calderon gave his occupation as that of a professor, his place of birth as Peru, South America, and his present residence Washington. He certified that he was sixty years of age. Miss Ainley said she was forty-two, her place of birth England, and her residence Mamaroneck, New York."

A record of the marriage ceremony was found in the Holy Trinity church, as given.

GIRL CASHIER

TO BECOME BRIDE OF A MILLIONAIRE

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 6.—For the third time, Judge E. P. Hill, millionaire and former counsel of the Southern Pacific Railroad company, will enter matrimony, his bride being Miss Atolia Allen, until a few days ago one of the cashiers of the St. Anthony hotel here.

The romance had its inception in the hotel, Judge Hill being the first guest when it opened a year and half ago. Miss Allen is witty and is gifted with a striking vocabulary. She made a rapid conquest of the elderly judge, who only recently obtained a divorce from his second wife. His first wife is dead.

Not until Miss Allen left San Antonio a week or so ago was there an intimation of the coming marriage. Miss Allen and her chaperone, Mrs. H. D. Matthews, have apartments at the King Edward hotel in New York, and it is understood Judge Hill will also be registered there. Their honeymoon will be at the Hotel Knickerbocker, followed by a trip through Europe.

Judge Hill possesses immense land holdings in Texas besides having a large force of available cash. In granting his second wife a divorce he also gave her a certified check for $200,000. Miss Allen came here from Chicago. She was employed in the Auditorium hotel there. She is a native of New York.

MARILLA M. RICKER, CANDIDATE FOR GOV. OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

MISS MARILLA M. RICKER

CONCORD, N. H., July 6.—Marilla M. Ricker of Dover is planning to be the next governor of her home state. She filed a formal application with the secretary of state, accompanied by a check for $100, which is necessary to enter her name as a candidate under the new state primary law, to be tried for the first time this fall. The check was forwarded through Mrs. Ricker's local attorney and is to be followed at once by a declaration of platform. Mrs. Ricker has just returned from San Jose, Cal., where she spent the winter and spring. She was the first woman to seek a diplomatic post. She sent her application with strong endorsements to President McKinley for the post of minister to Colombia. She was the first woman lawyer to be admitted to the bars of the District of Columbia and of New Hampshire and was associate counsel with the late Colonel Ingersoll in the star route trials.

A RUNNING FIGHT

Between Police and Safe Crackers in New York

NEW YORK, July 6.—After a running fight between safe crackers and police in Harlem today in which about thirty shots were exchanged, the police, facing a rain of bullets, ran one fugitive up an elevated railroad stairway and captured him after a desperate hand-to-hand encounter. The second man bolted into a tenement house and disappeared.

The burglars were found by Zerando Di Angles, proprietor of a first Avenue cafe, drilling holes in a safe in which Di Angles for the last month has kept from $2000 to $7000 belonging to Italian societies. As they dashed out of the place they opened fire. Di Angles though the bullets whistled in close to him was not injured, and yelled for the police. Three officers responded and the chase through the streets with a running exchange of shots began and continued for several blocks, arousing the entire neighborhood.

Policeman Albinger finally cornered a man who gave his name as Frank Pisci on the "L" stairway. The man seized the officer by the throat and almost choked him into unconsciousness before his brother officers reached his side and subdued the man. He denied being a professional burglar and said he did not know the name of the man who escaped.

A kit of burglar's tools of the finest quality was found beside the store safe, the contents of which had not been disturbed.

LEADER BARNES WILL FIGHT TAFT AND COLONEL ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, July 6.—William Barnes, Jr., republican leader of Albany county, held a conference yesterday with State Chairman Woodruff. Mr. Barnes sails for Europe today. After the conference he said:

"There's just one thing I care to say. These republicans who fought against direct nominations to preserve a stable form of popular government will continue that fight. We are against direct nominations and their offspring the initiative and referendum, the recall and any other schemes for destroying representative government. We are against them to the end."

"Does this mean that there will be a fight against Taft and Roosevelt for the control of the state convention on that issue?" was asked.

"There's no fight on person or personalities in this," answered Mr. Barnes.

AEROPLANE FLIGHT

NEW YORK, July 6.—Clear weather and listless breezes this morning promised excellent weather conditions for Clifford B. Harmon's twenty-six mile aeroplane flight from Garden City, L. I., across Long Island sound to Greenwich, Conn., landing on an island in front of the country place of his father-in-law, Commodore F. C. Benedict. Countons have been fitted on his biplane and inner tubes of automobile tires will be fitted on the tail of his machine to keep him aloft in case he has to land on the water.

He expects to go into the air at Garden City and follow the shore line up to Roslyn, where he will strike directly across the sound towards his destination.

NO CORPORATION FUNDS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 6.—The finance committee of the republican state committee at its first campaign meeting has decided not to accept contributions to the republican campaign fund from corporations.

"We realize," said State Chairman Lee, "that the question of funds is a serious one. We do not expect to raise a large fund. In fact, we do not believe it will take a large amount of money to run the campaign. The state committee this year started even, and it hopes by economy to break even at the end."

GOV. DICKERSON

Will Not Stop Boxing Bouts

RENO, Nev., July 6.—Governor Dickerson has given out the following statement respecting the Jeffries-Johnson fight, at which he was a spectator:

"I do not at all regret that the fight was pulled off in Nevada. It was a clean fight and Tex Rickard's assurances to me personally were made perfectly good."

"I am in favor always of any sport just as long as the game is played clean and square as this was. There is absolutely no warrant in my judgment for the protests that have been made against it. The fight in Reno demonstrated fully that there was nothing about it but what was proper for any state to permit."

"The spirit of fair play had a strong hold on the thousands of people who witnessed it, of whom I was one, and that fact was made evident as the crowd was overwhelmingly for Jeffries, but when the black man demonstrated his complete superiority in every way and won the battle of thinking, seeing and acting simultaneously, as the result of great mentality, speed and vitality no demonstration of reproach or insult was offered in any manner."

"The character of the men composing that crowd was not made up largely of the rowdy or thug element as many would lead one to believe is always the case at such events, but of business and prominent men. Of my own personal knowledge, the holding of this event in Nevada was beneficial rather than injurious, notwithstanding the natural advantages of this state, with its undeveloped wealth familiar to many who otherwise would not have heard of the state. I am well pleased with the intelligent manner in which the tremendous crowd was handled and treated by the people of Reno, and I have heard only expressions of good will for the city on all sides."

"I will further state that as the law licenses glove contests I will not attempt to interfere with such events in any manner in the future."

WOMAN KILLED

When an Auto Turned Turtle

GREAT BARRINGTON, July 6.—Mrs. Benjamin F. Stahl, wife of Dr. Benjamin F. Stahl, a prominent Philadelphia physician, was instantly killed when an automobile operated by her husband turned turtle at the foot of a steep hill in Hillsdale, N. H., eight miles from Great Barrington, yesterday. Dr. Stahl was badly but not fatally injured and J. Watson Dalmay of Washington, D. C., a nephew of Mrs. Stahl, who was also in the car at the time, escaped with only a few bruises.

The party was on the way to Rangely lakes, Maine, where they were to pass the summer, and were making the trip by automobile. They had just reached the top of a steep hill in Hillsdale and Dr. Stahl, who was driving, stopped to change the gears before making the descent. When he started up again the brakes refused to work and the machine started down the hill uncontrolled. It had gone about half way when it struck a rough place in the road, and a moment later was upside down by the roadside. Mrs. Stahl landed on her head and was instantly killed. The others being thrown some distance away and landed in the soft dirt.

The body of the dead woman was brought here yesterday and today will be taken to Philadelphia. Later it will be buried in Washington. Mrs. Stahl was 42 years of age, and was the daughter of the late Maj. F. Melbourne Watson of Catskill, N. Y., and a grand-daughter of the late Judge Watson of the supreme court of New York.

WANTS DIVORCE

POLITICIAN SEEKS SEPARATION FROM HIS WIFE

NEW YORK, July 6.—Norton Chase, who was state senator from Albany county and democratic candidate for attorney general in 1895, and is now a partner of D. Cady Herrick, has brought suit for divorce from his wife, who was Mabel L. James, of Williamstown, Mass. They were married in 1887, but have been living apart for several years. Mr. Chase accused his wife of misconduct at the apartment on April 27 last and she has replied with countercharges.

Mrs. Chase asked Supreme Court Justice Page today to grant $50 a week alimony and $500 counsel fee. The court reserved decision.

KILLED BY TRAIN

Boy Was Counting Freight Cars Bound for Lowell

WOBURN, July 6.—Patrick Connolly, 10-year-old son of Coleman Connolly, of 36 Walnut street, was struck by an express train about 500 feet north of the Mishawum station on the B. & M. railroad at 4 yesterday afternoon and instantly killed.

The boy with his brothers, Martin 16, and John 13, and a cousin, Joseph Connolly of Broad street, aged 15, had been herring in the woods north of the station and were returning home. They emerged from the woods bordering the tracks, and in order to reach Mishawum road, which bridges the tracks near the station, were walking in single file in the gutter beside the railroad.

On the farther line of rails a freight train mot and passed them, bound toward Lowell. Martin says they were counting the freight cars as they trudged along with their burden of berries. While they were so engaged an express passenger train for Boston came up behind them. The engine of the passenger train was of the new

"grasshopper" type, with widely projecting arms on its base frame. One of these arms struck Patrick in the back of the head, causing a compound fracture of the skull and breaking his neck. He was thrown into the arms of a local undertaker.

The train, A. W. Head conductor, and Charles Bascomb engineer, was stopped as quickly as possible and its crew at once notified the Woburn authorities. Chief of Police C. F. McDermott drove immediately to the scene of the accident in company with Dr. H. G. Blake, medical examiner, the latter authorizing the removal of the body in charge of a local undertaker.

The boy's father is employed in the city water works and was drawing his weekly wage at the city treasurer's office when he was told of the accident. He carried the sad news to his wife.

Patrick, who was one of a large family of children, was enrolled as a pupil at the Union street school and had just been promoted from the third grade.

SUPREME COURT ONE OF PITTSBURG'S CHAMPIONS

Rules Against City of Boston

BOSTON, July 6.—The full bench of the supreme court yesterday overruled the defendant's exceptions and a verdict of $600 for the plaintiff stands in the suit of Maria Keating vs. city of Boston. She was hurt by falling into a coal hole in Melrose street. The cover tipped up when she stepped on it. Her arm was broken.

The city excepted to a refusal of the superior court to direct a verdict in its favor. The court says: "The city had notice that the coal hole was in the sidewalk. That made it its duty to use due diligence to protect the traveling public from that hole, and the question is whether it has used due diligence if the only protection against the hole is a cover which will tip up if stepped upon unless fastened on, or to state it in another way, the question is whether, in the exercise of due diligence, the city can allow such a cover to remain, relying on the occupant of the abutting house to fasten it."

"We can have no doubt that in the case of covers of manholes in the street which cannot be fastened from within a finding would be warranted that a cover which tipped up when trodden upon was a danger which a city would not allow if it used reasonable diligence."

"The question is not what view we take upon the question which arose in this case, but what view a jury could take upon it. We are of opinion that a jury is warranted in finding that a city which covers which when trodden upon will tip up unless fastened is so likely to be unfurnished that a city which uses reasonable diligence after it had, or in the exercise of proper care, might have had notice of this condition, would not allow it to be there at all."

SEN. WILSON

DISCUSSES THE STATEMENT OF COL. ROOSEVELT

CENTRALIA, Wash., July 6.—Former United States Senator John L. Wilson, who is a candidate for the United States senatorship from Washington, referring to the announcement by Col. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay last night, that he would support Miles Polindexter, the insurgent congressman from Washington, for United States senator, said:

"There is so much error of fact contained in the despatch from Oyster Bay concerning the Roosevelt-Polindexter interview, that it is hard for me to form a statement."

"Col. Roosevelt appears either to have been misled or is not familiar with political conditions in this state."

"In the first place, Senator Piles is not a candidate to succeed himself."

"In the second place, Judge Ballinger is not taking any part in the senatorial contest whatever. Ballinger is not the head of the republican party in this state nor the head of any wing of any party."

"Of the six candidates for United States senator, Judge Thomas Burke, Judge John F. Humphreys, J. M. Ashton and myself are personal friends of Judge Ballinger, but Mr. Ballinger is not politically friendly to any one of us over any other one of us."

SPEAKER CANNON

WASH., July 6.—"Who gave out that news about Polindexter?" That is what Joseph S. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, asked a newspaper interviewer last night upon his return to Washington. Informed that the intimation that Representative Polindexter of Washington would have the sympathy of the former president in his candidacy for senator, from that state, Cannon had come from both Mr. Polindexter and Col. Roosevelt. Mr. Cannon declined to comment further upon the situation until he knew more about it.

INJURED ARE RECOVERING

LAOCIA, N. H., July 6.—Every one of the persons injured yesterday by the boiler explosion which demolished Jenkins' laundry was reported today to be well on the road to recovery and it was considered certain that the fatality list would be limited to the single death so far reported.

The opinion generally expressed today was that the boiler which exploded must have been defective. To determine this point and also to assist in fixing the responsibility for the disaster, expert boiler inspectors will come here within a day or two to examine the fragments of the demolished boiler.

It is not known whether the laundry will be continued by Mr. Jenkins. It is said today that at least three months must elapse before the ground can be cleared and a new laundry building erected.

COLUMBUS DAY

DECISION THAT THE SALOONS MUST CLOSE

BOSTON, July 6.—The licensing board yesterday declared that they regard Columbus day the same as any other holiday, and that their interpretation of the law is that it means that the saloons are not to open on Columbus day.

The saloons, therefore, will not be allowed to open on the new holiday, which comes on Oct. 12.

TUFT'S PROPERTY ATTACHED

ROCKPORT, July 6.—The examination of the securities of the Rockport National bank was resumed yesterday. The two expert accountants from the Shawmut National bank being in charge of the work. President Loring Grimes and a majority of the directors with acting Cashier Albert W. Russell assisting.

Nothing was developed to indicate any further serious deficiency, although progress was necessarily slow. It will be several days at least before the examination, which will be thorough and searching, will be finished.

Ex-Cashier George W. Tuft's property was attached by the bank yesterday in an action of contract for $20,000, the document being sworn to before Charles H. Parsons, clerk of the eastern district court at Gloucester. Mrs. Tuft, wife of the ex-cashier, is heartbroken over the affair and her condition is serious.

New Pitcher Shut Out Worcester

WORCESTER, July 6.—Lowell defeated Worcester here yesterday, 2 to 0, the visitors getting both their runs on errors. Manager Burritt of the home team was put out of the game in the sixth inning for disputing a decision. Huston, Lowell's catcher, was hit by a fast ball sent in by Yount, in the fourth inning, and went out of the game being replaced by Sullivan. The score:

DIAMOND NOTES

At Worcester today.

Yount looks good.

Al Whitledge is due to arrive here today. With Tyler, Wolfgang, Yount and Whitledge we ought to go along some.

Lowell and New Bedford will play a double-header here tomorrow. First game at 2. Tyler and Wolfgang.

They're having all kinds of trouble in Haverhill, and the fans are deserting the game. There is talk of transferring the team to Manchester. Perhaps a change of management in Haverhill might make a difference.

Harry Huston is having hard luck, surely. In the fourth inning yesterday he was struck on the collarbone by a pitched ball and was painfully injured.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

What will probably be one of the greatest baseball battles of the season will be played on the North common this coming Saturday when the strong Wanderers and O. M. I. Cadets of the Lowell and Suburban league clash for their first league game. The first game which was scheduled between these two teams was postponed on account of rain, and at that time they were both tied for first place in the league standing. These two teams are still the leaders of the league, the Wanderers being first and the Cadets one game behind. A victory means a great deal for each team, for by winning, the Cadets will be tied for first place, while if the Wanderers take the game it will give them a good hold on first place. The largest crowd that has been seen at an amateur game will probably be on hand, and there is sure to be some excitement, as well as some fast baseball.

The U. S. Runtling baseball team would like to arrange a game for Saturday, July 9, also for July 16. G. M. Roberts, 31 Potter street.

BASEBALL CHALLENGE

Sporting Editor, Lowell Sun.
Dear Sir: In your paper of the 2nd inst. it was with surprise mingled with sorrow that I read the pitiful petition (under the guise of a protest) of the so-called (by themselves only) five leading teams in the "Die Game League."

The Sanctuary Choir team is one and has always been one of the leading ball clubs in the city, and to show that it was not gotten together for the sole purpose of getting what looks to the "great game magnates" of the L. & S. like a fortune ($50 the city purse), I hereby challenge any team in the L. & S. for $100 a side, the game to be played wherever any of the teams which care to accept this challenge care to play. (One more point: I'll see that both teams will get a square deal. By that I mean Mr. John Condon, the man with the eye of an eagle, will be the decision maker. In regard to the Fourth of July committee, my visit by July 20 with a flourish of royal splendor. He has engaged the most expensive suite of rooms in one of New York's most exclusive hotels, where he will house his escort, Rao III, with his good automobiles and after inspecting a score or more has decided to purchase one of each made. He is quoted by a Yankee automobile salesman as saying he could not make up his mind which was the best, and as all salesmen insisted their respective cars "were the best" he will buy one of each, test them out in India and do the future ordering after he has tried to climb a hill on the high gear.

DRACUT ROADS

About to be Put In Good Shape

Contractor Heland of Dracut is about to start on a job of road work backed by the town of Dracut and the county commissioners that will make countless thousands happy, for his job consists of macadamizing Lakeview avenue from Collinsville to the city line, near the residence of the Fels family. Anyone who has taken the car for Lakeview within the past two years will realize and immediately appreciate what it means to have that stretch of road completed. It has been a "right" for some time and Contractor Heland promises to improve it to such an extent that the public will not know it.

Work has started upon the improvement of Mammoth road from Collinsville to the city line and from all accounts we may get good roads to our neighboring town.

Quite a boom has been started for School Committeeman Bernard Maguire of Collinsville for selectman next year, but Mr. Maguire is still withholding his consent to the proposition.

Mr. Ernest Nelson is spending his vacation with his brother, Prof. Thos. Nelson, director of the Textile department of the A. and M. college, West Raleigh, N. C.

Mr. Joseph White of Lincoln street leaves for England today on the S. S. Ivernia, to be gone three months, visiting all points of interest.

Mrs. W. P. Lawler and her four children of 75 NeSmith street left last evening for Winchester, Virginia, where they will spend the remainder of the summer. Dr. Lawler will join them in August.

In the report of the Conservatory of Music last Wednesday night there was a slight mistake. There was only one graduate, and she was Miss Nora Sweeney.

The Misses Anna and Margaret Walsh of North Chelmsford are visiting friends in Providence, R. I.

Mrs. James Fraser and daughter Mary of New City will spend the summer at Bar Harbor, Me., after visiting at the home of Mr. James Moore of Dartmouth street, North Chelmsford.

The Misses Gladys and Charlotte Prince and Master Warren Prince and Master Jos. Armistead of No. Chelmsford will spend Old Home week at Portsmouth, N. H.

Mr. J. Harold Hackett of Amherst street, North Chelmsford, spent the Fourth of July at the Weds.

Miss Lilla Childs, a popular saleslady in the New York cloak and suit store, spent the Fourth of July at Nantasket beach.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rigby of North Chelmsford and Mrs. Howard Prince and Master Warren Prince and Master Jos. Armistead of No. Chelmsford will spend the week at Camp Comfort, Forge Village, Mass.

Martin Rowell, of the protective company, and his family are comfortably located at Nabasset pond.

NEW RAILROAD RATES

ALBANY, N. Y., July 6.—The increased computation rates on the New York Central and the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroads will not be withdrawn by the companies. The public service commission was so informed yesterday by representatives of the companies in reply to the commission's request for the suspension of the new rates.

The commission was told that the request for the suspension of rates had been brought to the attention of the executive officers, and while they would have been willing to comply if it had been made at a reasonable time, they believed that, inasmuch as the new rates are now in effect, no advantage would accrue by granting the request.

The commission decided that the contention of the companies as to the proper publication and filing of the new tariffs was not sustained and that the railroads had substantially complied with the law in this respect. There were other considerations. Chairman Stevens said, relating to other tickets which would receive further consideration.

INJURIES FATAL

MAN FOUND WITH LEGS NEARLY SEVERED

GREENFIELD, July 6.—John J. Benson, Jr., aged 30, assistant night yard master, boarded extra freight 1200 last evening at 7.05, and 25 minutes later he was found unconscious on the side of the track near the rock cut east of the yard with both legs nearly severed.

He died while on his way to the hospital. How the accident happened is not known. His wife, mother and father reside at 367 Hope street, Providence.

THE PARK BOARD

Receives Letter From Mayor About Trees on Common

Mayor Meehan has sent the following communication to the park commissioners:

Gentlemen: In view of the deplorable accident on the South common on Saturday, caused, as you are aware, by the sudden fall of a limb from an elm tree, and in view of the fact that during the ball game on the North common Monday, another large elm bough fell to the ground, but happily without injuring anybody, I would therefore respectfully call your attention to the urgent necessity of prompt precautionary measures to prevent the possibility of any such accidents in the future. I admit that it is difficult to explain the cause of the sudden snapping of any large limb of a tree in calm weather, but healthy and unscarred trees do not fall apart in this manner. The presumption is, that these limbs, have been damaged either by lightning or in some other way so that they were unable to bear their own weight. Let it be remembered that when the outer surface of an overhanging bough is cut through, especially on the upper side, that bough is not in condition to stand the stress of high wind or storm. Hence I would request that you cause to be made a general inspection of all the trees on our public parks and streets in order to see that every branch damaged or in the slightest degree likely to break off shall be taken down. I earnestly request that you will give this matter your immediate attention. Yours very respectfully, John F. Meehan, Mayor.

POLICE OFFICERS MANY SUPPLIES

Chances for Local Concerns to Bid

BOSTON, July 6.—Patrolman Thomas McTigue and Reserveman Patrick Capstick of division 4 were yesterday dismissed from the police force as a result of charges arising out of an alleged assault committed in the cell-room at station 4 on a Somerville teamster who was arrested for intoxication, some time ago.

Two charges were heard against each policeman by a trial board consisting of Captains Hanley, Peabody and Hartman. The men pleaded not guilty and their cases were heard together. As a result of the decision of the trial board both officers are dismissed from the force on the charges alleging untruthfulness.

FATALLY BURNED

MISS PEARSON OF BROCKTON IS DEAD

BROCKTON, July 6.—Miss Lottie Pearson, who was fearfully burned by the explosion of an alcohol-furnace at the residence of Deputy Sheriff Earl P. Blake yesterday, died last evening at the Brockton hospital, never regaining consciousness after she rushed from the house with her clothing in flames.

Miss Pearson was alone in the house at the time and it is believed she attempted to fill the furnace with alcohol while it was lighted. Her burns were so severe that hope for her recovery was abandoned from the first.

Miss Pearson was 26 years old and had been employed as a domestic at the Blake home for six years. She has a sister, Miss Anna Pearson, and a brother, Oscar Pearson, of this city, and a sister and brother in California.

LAWN PARTY

IN AID OF ST. MARY'S CHURCH BEING PLANNED

A big lawn fete in aid of St. Mary's church is being planned for Aug. 29th at Collinsville, which promises to be one of the biggest events of its kind in the history of the town.

It is the intention of the promoters to invite Congressman Ames, Mayor Meehan and several other noted men to address the gathering after the fashion of the good old southern barbeques and there will be a big program of sports into the bargain.

Instant Relief for Sore Feet

Sore Feet, Tender Feet and Swollen Feet Cured Every Time. TIZ Makes Sore Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them

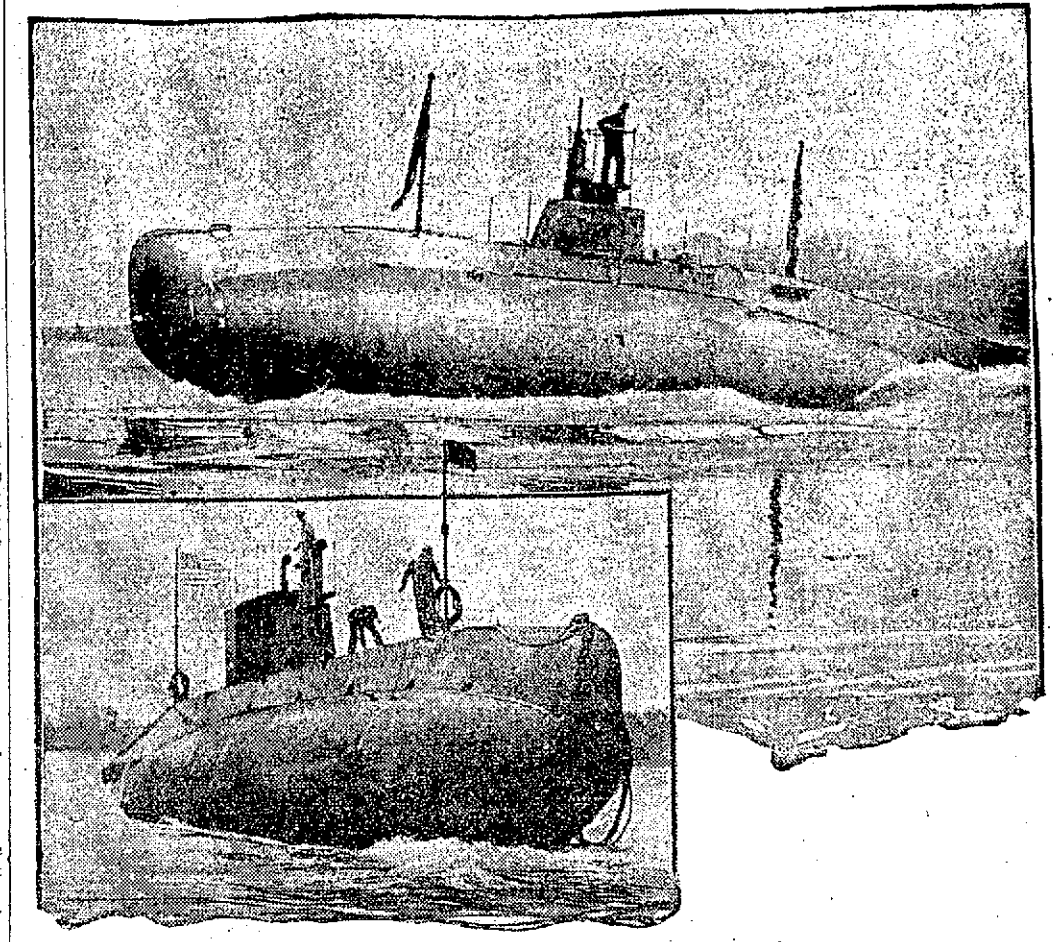

Policemen all over the world use TIZ. Policemen stand on their feet all day and know that sore, tender, swollen feet really mean death. They use TIZ because TIZ cures their feet right up. It keeps feet in perfect condition. Read what one policeman has to say: "I was surprised and delighted with TIZ for tender feet. I hardly know how to thank you enough for it. It's superior to powders or plasters. I can keep my feet in perfect condition. Believe in my earnest gratitude for TIZ. I am a policeman and keep on my feet all day."—Emory Hurrell, Austin, Texas.

You never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold. TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on a soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glazes the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again, or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your aching, burning and swollen feet. You'll feel like a new person. TIZ is for sale at all drug stores at 25c per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Lathrop Drug & Co., Chicago, Ill.

SUBMARINE BOAT SALMON OFF ON LONGEST TRIP EVER ATTEMPTED

QUINCY, Mass., July 6.—Naval authorities are waiting with keen interest the result of the trip of the submarine boat Salmon from this city to the Bermuda Islands and return. The Salmon will attempt the longest trip ever made by this class of fighting craft, and in some circles it has been suggested that the trip is a dangerous one. During the past year submarines have met with a number of fatal accidents, with the result that some critics are inclined to say the naval officials are wrong in ordering the Salmon off on such a long trip. The navy officials plan to hasten the Salmon to the Bermuda, leaving Quincy by Saturday, July 9, and back in the shortest possible time, declaring that such a test will be of great value in building other submarines. A number, it is said here, are to be built by the government during the next two years.

FIGHT PICTURES

Endeavorers Want to Stop Them

BOSTON, July 6.—If the plans and hopes of William Shaw, the general secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, do not go awry, the great American public who have been waiting for the opportunity to see the Jeffries-Johnson fight through the mediumship of the moving picture shows will lose. Secretary Shaw has instituted a campaign that is destined to reach to every corner of the globe, and its watchword is "Bar the Moving Pictures of the Fight."

This is the telegram he has sent out to a great many of the prominent people of this country, as well as to the individual people of other countries: "Race riots and murder already follow the announcement of Johnson's victory. Moving pictures of prize fight will create more violence. Will you join in appeal to authorities, cities and towns, to prohibit pictures as law provides? Help save our young people from these demoralizing shows. Wire answer."

"The time has come," says Secretary Shaw, "for the Christian and moral forces of the country to rise up and demand the suppression of these moving pictures. The city and town authorities have the power to forbid the exhibition of immoral and indecent pictures under penalty of revoking the license. No additional laws are needed. All that is required is an aroused public sentiment that will demand immediate action on the part of the authorities before the floodgates are opened."

Secretary Shaw believes that as the prize fight itself is barred by practically every state in the union, the fight pictures should be outlawed as well, and the campaign he is making and which he is pushing as rapidly as possible, has this object in view. In the communication he is sending out he tells about the work along these lines that is being done in Michigan and Wisconsin, and the sentiment that has already been aroused in other states. He urges that a meeting of the pastors be called immediately and that a committee be appointed to wait upon proper authorities and demand that the fight pictures be prohibited.

"Arouse public sentiment," he says, "in every legitimate way and get it to express itself. Let's give the prize fight the knockout blow by destroying the money-making feature of it."

Baltimore reports said last night every effort will be made to prevent the display of films. Cincinnati will refuse permits, Washington police heads favor or barring them, while Mayor Gaynor of New York, on the other hand, says they may be shown.

In Johannesburg, South Africa, the bioscope halls have refused offers to exhibit, in the fear of race feeling.

TO STOP FIGHT PICTURES

AUGUSTA, Ga., July 6.—Among the first proposition Governor Campbell will submit to the Texas legislature when it convenes in special session July 15 will be a law prohibiting the exhibition of moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight in Reno. The governor fears such exhibitions would

WILL BAR PICTURES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 6.—There is an ordinance in Los Angeles prohibiting the exhibition of moving pictures which in the opinion of the authorities are subversive of morals or harmful to the young. City Prosecutor Eddy last night said he would invoke the law, if necessary, to prevent the reproduction of the Reno battle on the screens of the moving picture houses in Los Angeles.

Mayor Alexander declined to answer a direct question as to whether he would take action, but added that since the actual fight had been barred from the state, the pictures would certainly meet the same fate.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 6.—President Malt G. Reynolds of the St. Louis police board announced last night that he would take action today to prevent the exhibition of the Johnson and Jeffries moving pictures in St. Louis. The officers of the Patriotic Independence Day association of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children have entered a formal protest against the display of the picture with the board.

LEADERS ARE PLEASED

BOSTON, July 6.—The officials of the Christian Endeavor society were much pleased today over the result of their movement started here yesterday against the exhibition of the moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight. Urgent telegrams have been sent to all the branch societies throughout the world to continue the agitation against the pictures.

Mayor Fitzgerald of this city, who has the granting of all licenses for exhibitions of this nature, said today that Boston ought to take the lead in banishing the pictures of such contests, and that he did not think that the pictures of the fight would be exhibited in this city.

NO FIGHT PICTURES

ATLANTA, Ga., July 6.—The Jeffries-Johnson prize fight pictures will be barred from Atlanta. This announcement was made last night by Mayor Maddox. An ordinance prohibiting the presentation of moving pictures of prize fights will be introduced in city council and is expected to have little opposition.

WILL TAKE NO CHANCES

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 6.—Mayor E. S. Meals today issued an order prohibiting the showing of the Reno prize fight pictures in this city. The mayor said that Harrisburg has many colored people and he did not intend to take any chances of disturbances.

WILL NOT SHOW PICTURES

PORT WORTH, Tex., July 6.—In response to the request of Mayor Davis is the city commission has passed an ordinance prohibiting the exhibition of pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries fight in this city.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Netley Ross circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., had its regular meeting last night. Plans were perfected for the supper which will be given at a future date. President Sister Washburn extended an invitation to all the members to attend a social to be held at her home on July 13. During July and August the circle will hold but one meeting.

MAYOR MEEHAN

Replies to Committee on Appropriations

Asked if he had anything to say relative to the report of the appropriations committee read at the meeting of the board of aldermen last night, Mayor Meehan said: "The committee talks about me disputing the accuracy of the original figures submitted by the committee. It is little wonder that I would dispute the accuracy of them when I knew they were wrong and the city auditor's figures prepared for the board of aldermen and submitted at last night's meeting proves that the original figures were wrong. The committee's figures were wrong all around."

"What was asked for in the first place was a comparison of the expenses of the charity department for January, February, March and April of 1908, '09 and '10 and instead of the committee on appropriations getting the figures of the entire department for its comparison it took only the figures showing the total hospital expense. The committee didn't use the out-door-relief figures because the figures didn't suit the committee's purpose. Figures showing the total expense of the department for the months and years in question were asked for but the committee took it upon itself to give only the total hospital expense."

So far as the saving this year is concerned the credit is due my administration and the present board of charities, and I want to say that at a meeting of the board of charities held last night, bills of last year amounting to about $700 came up for approval. Why were those bills held back until this time?

The following are the original figures submitted by the committee on appropriations and they are the figures that I said were not correct and they are not correct. The figures show the expense of the hospital for the first four months of the years in question: 1908, $30,592.26; 1909, $17,493.72; 1910, $13,803.55. The figures submitted by the city auditor are as follows:

Total hospital expense, 1908, $20,383.59; 1909, $17,493.72; 1910, $13,803.55.

The grand total of hospital and out-door-relief expenses and the figures that should have been submitted in the first place are as follows:

Grand total, 1908, $30,521.18; 1909, $26,318.81; 1910, $22,565.61.

MUSICIAN SHOT

HE WAS HIT BY BULLET FIRED BY BRIDE

CATSKILL, N. Y., July 6.—Mrs. R. E. Ford, a bride of two days, nearly killed David Davis, a musician at The Antlers, on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ford came to Laurel House on last Friday to spend their honeymoon in the mountains. The bride was anxious to learn how to shoot a revolver. She and her husband were practicing in the woods near the hotel on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Ford had a mark on a small tree at which she shot. She missed and the shot was not correct and she fell that frightened them both. Mr. Ford made a search and a short distance from the tree on which the target was placed he found Davis unconscious bleeding from a wound in his hip.

Ford carried Davis to the road and secured a physician, who thinks the wound will not be fatal. Davis will probably be a cripple. The bride and bridegroom left for New York at once.

STREET FLIRTERS

LADY POLICEMAN WILL LOOK AFTER THEM

BALTIMORE, Md., July 6.—The Woman Suffrage club of Baltimore intends to put an end to all street flirtations, to keep many of the young people who swarm the streets at night at home, and to prevent any behavior that is not decorous and mannerly by older men and women.

A committee from the club will call upon the state's attorney today and ask his advice and cooperation.

The state's attorney will be appealed to particularly to discover if it is possible to appoint women assistants to the police officers at the suburban resorts and on the downtown streets, whose duty will be to look after street morals.

When the suffragists appealed to the police board recently to secure the appointment of women policemen at the resorts that board declared such action not within its power, as the resorts were outside of the city limits. Now State's Attorney Owens will be asked for aid, and if he declares that the appointments are impossible the women will wait until the next legislative session, when a bill will be framed providing for the appointment of the women assistants to the police.

Meanwhile many of the suffragists have appointed themselves unofficial police men and will look out for the conduct of the people on the streets. Mrs. Emma Maddox Funk, the president of the club, says:

"We are not planning this campaign because we feel that the police men are lax in their duty, but we think that there is much to be done for morally that the police have not time to bother about. If we succeed in getting women assistants to the police to do duty on the downtown streets and at the resorts then we will feel that we have accomplished something worth while."

SHOT AT THIEF

BUT JANITOR'S BULLET FAILED TO REACH HIM

NEW YORK, July 6.—A burglar got into the apartment occupied by the family of Julius Elias, on the ground floor of 488 St. Nicholas avenue, and took $2000 worth of diamonds yesterday morning. That is the value put on them by Mrs. Elias, who also lost a mint fur set valued by her at $175.

It was just before 2 o'clock that En-law, a teacher of singing and instrumental music, heard a noise out in the dining room, which opens on the yard in back of the house. He went out there and when he found the window open he and the Elias searched until they learned what the thieves had taken.

The janitor was notified and he went out in the back yard, and fired five shots at a man he said he saw getting over the fence. He didn't hit him and the police who took up the search found no trace of the thief or the jewels last night.

PER CAPITA

MONEY CIRCULATION OF YEAR DECREASED

WASHINGTON, July 6.—A decrease in circulation per capita of 49 cents on July 1 as compared with a year ago is shown by the latest treasury statement on that subject. On July 1, 1909, the amount which each man, woman and child in the United States would have had was $35.01; but Friday it was $34.62.

The population increased in greater proportion than did the money in circulation during the year.

POLICE BOARD

GRANTED TRANSFER OF LICENSE FOR WILD WEST

The regular meeting of the board of police was not held last night, it being postponed until this morning at 10 o'clock. There was little routine business to transact, however, though the executive session was a rather lengthy one.

The principal business done in the open meeting was the granting of a transfer of license to the Miller Brothers 101 Ranch Wild West show from the Lakeview avenue grounds to the Fair grounds.

Several minor licenses were granted.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN

Says He is Not Candidate for Any Office

LINCOLN, Neb., July 6.—"I am not a candidate for any office. I desire nothing at the hands of my coworkers. They have already rewarded me, and I am indebted to them for whatever influence I may have."

In these words, in a long statement given out last night, W. J. Bryan practically declares himself a free lance in the coming campaign in Nebraska and gives advance notice that he will advocate such principles as he sees fit and that the foremost of these principles will be to divorce the democratic party from the liquor interests and the plan to be followed in Nebraska is through the medium of county option.

Mr. Bryan does not spare the recognized leaders of the party in the state who have taken a stand against him in his advocacy of county option, but his language is not bitter. He deprecates the refusal of Gov. Chalmers to call an extra session of the legislature to adopt the initiative and referendum whereby Mr. Bryan says the issue of county option might have been referred to the people.

The governor, he contends, was not justified in ignoring the petition for an extra session, which contained the names of a majority of the members on joint ballot, but he adds significantly that if the governor and his advisers are right they must bear the responsibility if disaster comes. Throughout he is outspoken and bitter in his arraignment of the liquor interests, which he accuses of all the sins in the political calendar.

Referring to his own plans and his regret that he must in effect cut loose from other party men, Mr. Bryan says: "It may possibly be to the party's advantage to escape the discussion of national issues and to make a fight on the liquor question. It may be that the party is stronger on this issue than on national issues. If so, those who are responsible for making the liquor question the premier question in the campaign should be credited with the advantage which they bring to the party."

"I shall not deserve any of the glory myself, if glory comes out of the situation, because I have tried to prevent it," Governor Chalmers, Congressmen Hitchcock and Mayor Dahmar will be permitted to divide the honors between them.

"As democrats differ in regard to the course to be pursued there ought to be free and full discussion among democrats, and I hope that differences of opinion as to liquor legislation will not be permitted to disturb the personal friendships which have grown up in our party during our harmonious cooperation."

KILLED HERSELF

MRS. SPALDING ENDED HER LIFE BY INHALING GAS

MALDEN, July 6.—Mrs. Jessie P. Spalding, past president of the Woman's Relief corps of Malden, and wife of Col. W. T. Spalding of 40 Eastern avenue, committed suicide at her home yesterday noon by inhaling illuminating gas. Mrs. Spalding had been despondent of late on account of ill-health. She recently went to Providence for the purpose of recuperating and had just returned.

She was seen in her yard about 11 o'clock, and it is thought she entered the basement of her home, where she was found, and turned on the gas. Mr. Spalding was in the habit of taking his wife out to dinner and called for her for the purpose of taking her out, but was surprised to find the door locked. He failed to elicit any response by his continued knocking at the door and finally becoming alarmed knocked the door down.

He found his wife lying on the couch and her body was still warm, but she died before medical aid could be summoned. Mrs. Spalding was married about 15 years ago and was born in Malden. She was 45 years of age and well known in the city. She had no children.

CHINAMEN FINED

THEY WERE CAUGHT AT TARGET PRACTICE

QUINCY, July 6.—According to the metropolitan police there was some target shooting in the Blue hills reservation Monday. The officers brought in seven offenders, six Chinamen and a white man. The Chinamen were fined $15 apiece, and the white man, who gave his name as Paul Robles, was fined $5 for having firearms in his possession. The firearms of all the defendants, together with a large quantity of revolver ammunition of 32 and 38 caliber, were forfeited by the court.

The police said the Chinamen were firing at targets when they were arrested. The officers were of the opinion that the Chinamen were preparing for a new target range. Prior to the last big shooting in Boston's Chinatown a large number of Chinamen were found in this city, and some of them were afterward recognized among the defendants who were tried for murder in Boston.

The men fined yesterday gave their names as Dan Sing, Hong Sing, Wing Hong, John Doo, Charlie Sing and Dix Sing.

COAST TO COAST

AUSTRALIAN GOLFERS TO TOUR AMERICA

NEW YORK, July 6.—International golf of a nature hitherto unknown in this country is practically a certainty for next season. This time the invading forces will represent Australia and will be headed by Dr. F. G. Brathwaite, the American vice consul, who will act in the capacity of manager. In addition to the golfers there will be at least two tennis players in the party.

There has already been considerable correspondence between the two countries and a warm welcome for the visitors is assured. The United States golf association was communicated with and Robert C. Watson, the secretary, has written to Dr. Brathwaite suggesting that the Americans compete against an American team the week immediately preceding the American amateur championship tournament of 1911. That this proposal will meet with favor there can be no doubt, for Dr. Brathwaite has written to know when and where next year's blue-ribbon event will be held.

The plan thus far mapped out is to visit this country early next summer and tour America from coast to coast, taking part in team matches and tournaments, but arranging the schedule so as to take in both the amateur and open championships.

The personnel of the Australian team as made up at present consists of eight golfers and two tennis players, but it is possible that this number may be increased.

CITY FARM BILL

COMMITTEE WANTS CHARITY BOARD TO PAY IT

The committee on appropriations met last night previous to the meeting of the board of aldermen. The report was prepared which was later submitted to the board, relative to the figures asked for by the aldermen on the expenditures of the charity department, and the bill of the city for $435.02, money owed for the support of the feeble minded. It was voted to recommend that the charity department pay the bill out of this year's appropriation.

The communication from the water board, declining to call for bids for a new pump, unless an appropriation was made, was read and ordered on file.

The order for the appropriation of $1500 for a new land stand on the South common was laid on the table, and the order for $2000 to finish the ball ground on Fort Hill park was acted upon similarly. It was voted to view the South common, Fort Hill park and the Livingston park land next Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

After the meeting of the board of aldermen the committee again met. Councilmen Jewett and Flanagan were appointed a special sub-committee to confer with the officers of the Merrimack Manufacturing company, relative to the use of the land on Lakeview avenue for park purposes. This sub-committee will report back to the committee at a meeting to be held next Tuesday evening.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 6.—Western Minnesota and eastern South Dakota were visited last night by severe wind and electrical storms, which may have caused loss of life and great damage to cities and farming communities. The storm seems to have followed a well defined path west from Benson and Madison, Minn.

TO STOP FIREWORKS SALE
CHICAGO, July 6.—Absolute prohibition of the sale and use of fireworks in Chicago was recommended to the city government last night by Fire Marshal Horan. He said: "I am convinced that the only sane celebration is the celebration without fireworks of any kind."

MORE OFFICERS

WERE ADDED TO LYNN POLICE FORCE

LYNN, July 6.—Four extra police officers, whose salary is to be to guard the financial district, especially on days when the thousands of employees receive their weekly wages, were appointed by Mayor James E. Hinch last night.

Reserve Officers Wm. A. Ruth, John T. Bennett, Frank W. Stevens and Wm. K. Wallace were named by Mayor Hinch and the aldermen immediately confirmed the appointments.

The aldermen at the same meeting at which the mayor's appointments were made passed an order authorizing the purchase of an automobile patrol wagon. Both acts are the direct outcome of the bandit raid of ten days ago.

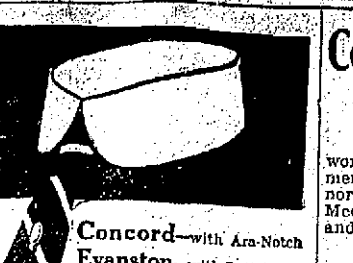

The police committee of the board of aldermen was instructed to prepare a set of resolutions commending the members of the force for their work.

IS THE CHARGE AGAINST BOSTON CLERK

BOSTON, July 6.—Nicholas D. Scully, a clerk in the Fenway postal station, Back Bay, was arrested yesterday noon, charged with stealing letters containing money. Before P. S. Commissioner Hayes in the federal building he pleaded not guilty and was held for a hearing next Tuesday.

Scully was appointed to the postal service in 1909. He is 35 years old, married, and has two little children, residing at 292 Columbia road, Dorchester. He was, it is alleged, taken in the net of booting a dummy letter containing money that had been marked by Postoffice Inspector Perkins. Upon being searched, it is claimed, the marked certificates were found upon

After being arraigned, Scully was taken by Inspector Perkins and Deputy H. S. Marshall Young to his home in Dorchester, where it is declared he carried a marked piece of money taken from a letter several days ago.

Scully asked the officers not to inform his family of the arrest, and they complied with his request. When Scully left the house in company with the officer, he suggested to his wife that she take the children over to her father's home at South Boston for the evening. Scully was committed to the Charles street jail.

COMMITTEE ON LICENSES

The committee on licenses met at 7:30 o'clock last night. Considerable routine stuff was disposed of. Chairman Connors and Aldermen Ryan and Qua were present.

Five petitions for the storage of gasoline, on which hearings had previously been ordered, were laid on the table. E. A. Wilson & Co. petitioned to store gasoline in Thomas street, and the committee voted to recommend the petition.

George R. Dana petitioned to store gasoline at the corner of East Merrimack and Blackpole streets, and the petition was recommended.

Robert E. Harris petitioned to store gasoline at 51-51 Appleton street and 30 Arch street, and the petition was recommended.

The Thompson Hardware company and others petitioned for the removal of the lunch cart of Martin Mack, at the corner of Merrimack and Shattuck streets. The matter was laid on the table until the next meeting.

TOOK BIG CHANCE

To Save the Standard Oil Plant

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 6.—While firemen poured powerful streams of water upon him, W. A. Weaver, superintendent of the Atlantic Refining plant, (Standard Oil company) dashed through flames and smoke today and shut a valve which prevented fire spreading from a burning still of benzene to great tanks of oil nearby. In the vicinity over 30,000 barrels of petroleum in various stages of refinement were stored.

Two thousands people, called from their beds by the peril, cheered the superintendent as he came scurched from the burning still.

CLEVER WOMEN

Always Keep Their Hair Fascinating and Free from Dandruff

Some women are born beautiful; some grow up to be beautiful, and some are clever enough to make themselves beautiful.

But all agree that no matter how perfect the features, how rosy the cheeks, how sparkling the eyes, no woman can attain the perfection of beauty unless she has an abundance of lustrous hair—of her own.

And thanks to Parisian Sage, which can now be obtained all over America, every woman can have natural hair in abundance; hair as lustrous as the finest silk.

Parisian Sage is without the least vestige of a doubt the most remarkable hair grower, invigorator and beautifier ever compounded.

It is so far ahead of all commercial hair preparations that it is a guarantee of success. It is so far ahead of all commercial hair preparations that it is a guarantee of success. It is so far ahead of all commercial hair preparations that it is a guarantee of success.

STEAMER ON FIRE

Grand Republic, a Sister Ship of Ill Fated General Slocum

NEW YORK, July 6.—The steamboat Grand Republic, which runs to Rockport, is on fire off the quarantine station in the Narrows. She is headed toward the Crescent Athletic club in South Brooklyn. The Grand Republic is a sister ship of the ill-fated General Slocum.

The Grand Republic was returning with a load of excursionists from Rockaway beach and was heading up through the Narrows when it was discovered that she was on fire. Her captain immediately threw the wheel to port and headed the burning steamer toward the Crescent Athletic club in Brooklyn. A number of tugs, seeing the plight of the vessel, hurried at once to her assistance and aided her in reaching the dock. Another excursion boat, the Cygnus, hurried at once to the assistance of the Grand Republic. It is not believed that more than 200 people were on board returning from Rockaway. Word was received from the Crescent Athletic club at 2:30 that there were probably no lives lost and that everybody had got to the dock in safety. The burning steamer had scarcely discharged her public deck passengers when she was seen to be on fire.

CHARGED WITH KIDNAPPING

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 6.—Mrs. Margaret J. Wilson of St. Paul, Minn., was brought into the Sixth district court today on a fugitive from justice warrant charging her with the kidnapping of her six-year-old son from his father in that city. She pleaded not guilty and gave bail in $1500 bonds for her appearance in court on July 20. In the meantime the governor will be asked to sign extradition papers to bring her back to Minnesota. She has been in this city for three months.

THE BRIBERY SCANDAL

CHICAGO, July 6.—A fresh sensation in connection with the legislative bribery scandal arose today when State Attorney Wayman announced that an indictment had been voted charging John A. Malloy, a grocer, with attempting to corrupt Oscar T. Morford, a juror, in the recent trial of Lee O'Neil Browne, which resulted in a disagreement. By agreement of counsel today the retrial of Browne was set for July 20.

12 NEW MEMBERS

Gathered In by Board of Trade Today

The membership committee of the board of trade held its weekly meeting at the Park hotel today with 14 members present. Out of the 25, Chairman William E. Cogger and Secretary Murphy did the clerical work. An excellent menu was provided by Landlord Foye, a member of the organization.

The following new members were reported: Henry A. Jusselyn, Dr. E. Farrington, Robert H. Elliott, M. L. Caron, Maurice A. Valliant, Joseph Albert, L. W. Hawkes, A. F. Mansur, Harry W. J. Howe, Sam. McCord, Jas. H. Carmichael, Rev. A. St. John Chamberlain. Each member is provided every week with a list of business men who are not members to interview relative to getting in. At today's meeting each member either produced the assessment from the man on his list or else gave their reasons for not joining. Secretary Murphy recently completed the arduous task of providing lists of all the business men of Lowell, great and small, who are not members of the board of trade, thus lightening the burden of the membership committee. It was voted to hold weekly meetings on Wednesday at the Park hotel.

THE MISSING BOY

John Sullivan Is Yet Unheard From by Friends

Little John Sullivan, last seen a week ago Saturday, is still missing. He was playing ball with other boys and has not since been seen. He resided on Broadway. His father does not know whether the boy went bathing in the canal and got drowned or whether he was led to go off with older boys. He wore black knee pants, short hair, light in color, wore waist striped blue dropped out of sight without leaving the slightest indication of what has happened him. If he were going away anywhere he would manage to put on his head clothing but he didn't. The fate of little John Sullivan promises to be as mysterious as that of Arthur Dent, who left his mother's knee in all the mirth of playful boyhood and was never seen or heard of again. Did the sudden waters of the canal take him in and carry him to the river whence his body might be taken downward to the ocean or lodged in sand or mud on the bottom? Or did some Gypsy queen meet the little Dent boy and take him off to be reared in the ever shifting camps? Who knows? As difficult is it to tell what happened to little John Sullivan, but his friends have not yet given up hope of finding him. The picture herewith is from a photo taken two years ago.

FIVE INJURED

WHEN SCAFFOLD BROKE ON A BUILDING

NEW YORK, July 6.—Five men were hurt yesterday when a scaffold broke on the building that is being erected on the site of the old Hotel Metropole at Broadway and 42nd street. Two men, a balance were killed and all the policemen in the neighborhood had their hands full trying to urge forward the crowd that almost choked Broadway. Peter Helgren, of 559 50th street, Brooklyn; James Mulry of 428 West 52d street and Edward McKay of 49 East 15th street were at work on the second floor. They were on a scaffold in the interior of the building. Two of the boards in the scaffold broke and the men fell with the planks. Helgren was stopped by a girder at the first floor. The others fell four stories to the street. Helgren went to the scene with several scalp wounds and bruises. McKay's left ankle and several ribs were broken and he was taken to the New York hospital. Mulry escaped with bruises and went home.

In the subcellar James Kennedy of 1077 First avenue and Richard Van Gahn of 109 East 137th street were at work when the scaffold fell. They were both struck by planks. Kennedy's left arm and leg were broken and he was taken to Bellevue hospital and Van Gahn went to the New York hospital, badly bruised about the left shoulder.

FELL FROM CAR

PALL RIVER, July 6.—Joseph Bennett, a conductor for the Old Colony Street Railway company, fell from the running board of his car on Pleasant street this morning and sustained a fracture of the skull, dying almost instantly. He had been on the road for years and is survived by a wife and family.

THE DOUBLE DUTY

WASHINGTON, July 6.—That no attempt is being made in Nicaragua to levy the double duties called for in the recent decree of General Irias is indicated in a dispatch received by the state department today from American Consul Moffatt at Managua. Merchandise sent from Bluefields in Prinzapolka and Rio Grande, said Mr. Moffatt, had been delivered to consignees at those points without demand for payment of duty, and export shipments leaving the same ports had not been levied for duty by the Madrid officials. The United States has taken a firm position against permitting any double duty on United States goods.

MADE SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT

DOHERITZ, July 6.—The army aeroplane made a successful maiden cross country flight this afternoon. Steered by Dr. Duane it flew over a mile and a half in an air line from Muehlenberg to Miesgoberitz, where it performed evolutions above the parade ground at an altitude of 100 feet. Thence it returned and landed at exactly the starting place.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the N. Y. State Press Association

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 6.—The increased price and diminished supply of news print paper was the principal subject of discussion before the representatives of the associated dailies of New York state, who met here today in connection with the annual meeting of the New York State Press Association which opens its annual convention here tomorrow. The discussion was led by John Norris of New York city, of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association. Mr. Norris said in part:

"The price of news print paper, covering an outlay of sixty million dollars, is influenced by a gentleman's agreement, which is trying to force an agreed price. In no other industry do the makers refuse to sell their product, knowing the buyer's name and the destination of paper before they will sell it. For twenty months there has been no obvious effort to restrict output. Within three years we have had three print paper famines. In twenty months the print paper makers of the country have kept the stock of paper on hand for all the newspapers of the country to an average supply of less than eight days. The mill owners admit that they have produced only 92 per cent of their capacity. The penalty that publishers are temporarily paying for this restriction of output and artificial stimulation of prices may be stated approximately at five dollars per ton, but the print papermakers are inviting disaster by the inducements they are making for that sort carries its own penalty and ultimately works to the advantage of the consumer. An illustration of the extremes to which the coddling of the paper trade has been carried may be found in the case of the International Paper Co., which brought together 12 years ago a group of mills, operating 101 paper machines, of which only 49 were then in good condition. Some months ago, before the paper strike occurred, it produced only 92 tons per day. At present it is producing an average of 18 tons per day per machine. Contrast that showing with the recent production in Newfoundland by American brains on American machines of 59 tons of paper per day per machine."

"In New York state we are cutting timber five times as fast as it is being reproduced. If we continue we shall not have a sawing stick left in the state in 20 years."

DR. GEO. NORTON

Lowell Boy Gets Important Position

Dr. George E. Norton of Cambridge, son of Deputy Fire Chief Norton, of Lowell, has been chosen by the Cambridge board of health to have charge of the diphtheria hospital in that city, in place of Dr. David C. Dow, whose term expired yesterday. Dr. Dow was in charge for several years. He was removed during the administration of Mayor McNamee and Dr. Felix McGilvray was appointed in his place. Dr. Dow was reinstated when the nonpartisan returned to power and has held the position ever since. The announcement of his failure to secure a reappointment this year came as a surprise. None of the members of the board of health would discuss the matter when asked regarding it. Dr. Norton is one of the best-known physicians in Cambridgeport. He is a graduate of the university of Vermont.

POST OFFICE ENTERED

CASTLETON, Vt., July 6.—The Castleton post office was broken into by burglars during the night and about $200 in cash and stamps was stolen from the safe. Persons living in the vicinity of the office heard the sound of an explosion shortly before dawn but nothing was thought of it and it was not until the office was opened later that the break was discovered. Before entering the post office the burglars had broken into a blacksmith's shop and stolen an outfit of tools.

ONE MAN DEAD

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 6.—A special from Watertown, S. D., says: One dead and a score more or less injured. The main tent and menagerie tent of a big circus in ruins, and two horses killed is the result of a cyclone storm here last night. The dead man was a circus employee and the injured are said to be performers.

BODY IS IDENTIFIED

EAST GREENWICH, R. I., July 6.—The body of the man who was run down and killed by an automobile in Greenwood late last night was identified today as that of Robert Buchanan of Dedham, Mass. The identification was made by two friends who came here from Boston. Buchanan had been a follower of the race tracks and was coming from the races at Hills Grove when the automobile, owned and operated by George F. Heywood of Providence, struck him.

SEC'Y BALLINGER LYMAN SCHOOL

Says Poindexter Is a Socialist. Women Say Hearing is Not Fair

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Secretary Ballinger of the interior department returned to Washington from Beverly today. Referring to the report from Oyster Bay, that former President Roosevelt had espoused the cause of Representative Miles Poindexter as a candidate for the senate, to succeed Senator Piles of Washington, the secretary said:

"If the published report is true, Mr. Roosevelt has been badly led astray by the deception of the people who claim to be his friends." He added that he had taken no active part in the politics of Washington for a long time and did not intend to become a party in that state or of any wing of it. "I do not consider Mr. Poindexter a republican," he continued, "but a rank socialist, or, rather, if he is not one, he will be one soon."

The secretary declined to discuss the reorganization of the interior department as it related to Director Frederick H. Nowell, whose fate has long been a matter of conjecture, except to say that he considered Mr. Nowell's relection to the service as its head a misfortune.

Mr. Ballinger expects to leave Washington within a few days for a west coast trip, during which he will visit several Indian reservations and probably some of the reclamation projects. In the meantime he will spend most of his time here in putting into effect the reorganization plan of the interior service agreed upon at his conference with the president.

MAN WAS BROWNED

GEORGETOWN, R. I., July 4.—The body of Leonie Disraeli, 17 years old, a mill hand, was found this morning in Remond Pond. He was last seen bathing in the pond last night. When his body was found today there was a cut on his head and it is believed that in diving his head struck a stone on the bottom, rendering him unconscious and causing his death by drowning.

DEFENCES FOR HONOLULU

HONOLULU, July 6.—Secretary of War Dickinson, speaking at a banquet tendered him by the commercial bodies of the city here, said that the government entertained ambitious plans for the extension of the defenses of Honolulu and contemplated a considerable increase of the force at the military post here, which would be made a permanent garrison. Accompanied by several officers, Sec. Dickinson inspected the military posts on the island of Oahu yesterday and expressed satisfaction with their condition.

NEGROES COMMENDED

WASHINGTON, July 6.—For saving

a white shipmate from drowning, two young negro mess attendants on the receiving ship Franklin at the Norfolk Navy yard have received the commendation of Rear Admiral Nicholson, acting secretary of the navy. Alexander Blas of Annapolis and T. L. Walker of Philadelphia rescued J. C. Lowery, who, while swimming near the ship, became exhausted and called for help. The two negroes plunged in with their clothing on and towed the drowning man to a boat.

that Carr Huse, a prominent Hill young man, had accidentally shot himself in Miles City, Mont. and is dead. He was about 25 years old. A sister, Charlotte Huse, resides in Hill.

Mr. Huse was a well-known baseball player and had been a member of New England league teams. He was graduated from a Boston business college a few years ago. He had been in the west for some time.

ARGENTINE BOY

LEFT SCHOOL TO SEEK A SHIP FOR HOME

NEW YORK, July 6.—A dark skinned boy of about 15 stopped a policeman in Catharine street last night and asked where he could find a ship for the Argentine Republic. Then he became reticent about himself and the policeman suggested a walk to the Madison street station. The boy went under protest.

On the desk lay a copy of a telegram sent on Monday from Randolph, N. Y., describing an Argentine student who had disappeared from Chamberlain's Military Institute last Friday. Major Campbell, the principal, had wired the police to keep the boy if he turned up.

"Aren't you Roberto Justo from Buenos Ayres?" asked the lieutenant. "That's my name," answered the boy. "How did you know?"

They showed him the telegram and he told them that he had grown homesick at the school and wanted to see his family. He changed his uniform for ordinary clothes and slipped away. The first train that came along took him to come town in Massachusetts. He couldn't recall the name. By that time his money was running low, so he struck up an acquaintance with a freight conductor, who let him ride in the caboose. He liked the sensation of travel and didn't take account of distances or places until he came into Jersey City on Monday morning.

That day he spent looking for a ship to the Argentine Republic, but he could not seem to find one and he was afraid to ask questions. He had money enough to stay at a hotel Monday night and he still had $1. He was sent to the Garey society for safe keeping and the principal was notified. The young man did not like the idea of going to an institution where he had money in his pockets.

SON THOUGHT DEAD

GAVE HIS PARENTS A GREAT SURPRISE

OMAHA, July 6.—While the parents of James Shen of Omaha, who was reported killed at Cornell, N. Y., on Saturday, were awaiting the arrival of his body, Shen himself walked into the house, alive and well.

On the same train which brought Shen home came the body of the man who had been identified at Cornell as Shen. The body of the unknown unless identified properly will be given burial by the Shen family.

Shen was in Cornell on a vacation. Saturday an undertaker in that city telegraphed Shen's parents that the young man had been killed. The Shens telegraphed funds for the transportation of his body. The family are at a loss to account for the mistake.

KOREAN NATIONAL ASSOCIATION SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—At a meeting in this city last night of the Korean National association, resolutions denouncing the annexation of Korea by Japan were ratified and money was raised to send a cabled protest to the emperors of Japan and Korea.

The cable to the emperor of Japan declares that annexation "means the degradation of our people and will be followed by hatred and vengeance."

This contest closes June 15, 1910. There are no coupons to save or cut out. Just write one menu or several—on one side of any kind of paper, hand to any BARSTOW STOVE dealer or mail to "Range Contest Department," BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY, Providence, R. I. This contest will be decided strictly on its merits by the following committee which has consented to judge for us:

Mr. M. H. Reidy, Business Manager of The Lowell "Sun"; Mr. John P. Curley, of the John Street Public Market; and Mr. D. L. Page of the D. L. Page Co.

Don't forget to put your name and address on each menu you send and remember that each dish you name must be figured at the actual market cost of food.

Learn what a splendid range you can compete for, by stepping into a BARSTOW STOVE Dealer's and asking to see it.

BARSTOW RANGES possess every improvement worthy of use in a range and many special time and labor-saving features found in no other ranges.

We will award a combination range with gas oven and gas shelf for use with or without coal fire.

It has two heat indicators, sectional covers, towel dryer, oven food rake, simmering cover, nickel parts detach quickly when polishing.

Like all BARSTOW RANGES, it will cook a 50c. or $50 dinner with two-thirds the fuel required by other makes.

KILLED BY TRAIN

Boy Was Counting Freight Cars Bound for Lowell

WOBURN, July 6.—Patrick Connolly, 10-year-old son of Coleman Connolly of 38 Walnut street, was struck by an express train about 500 feet north of the Mishawum station on the B. & M. railroad at 4 yesterday afternoon and instantly killed.

The boy with his brothers, Martin 16, and John 13, and a cousin, Joseph Connolly of Broad street, aged 15, had been hurrying in the woods north of the station and were returning home. They emerged from the woods bordering the tracks, and, in order to reach Mishawum road, which bridges the tracks near the station, were walking in single file in the gutter beside the railroad.

On the farther line of rails a freight train met and passed them, bound toward Lowell. Martin says they were counting the freight cars as they trudged along with their burden of berries. While they were on engaged in this task, the engine of the passenger train for Boston came up behind them. The engine of the passenger train was of the new

"grasshopper" type, with widely projecting arms on its base frame. One of these arms struck Patrick in the back of the head, causing a compound fracture of the skull and breaking his neck. He was thrown into the arms of his brother John.

The train, A. W. Head conductor, and Charles Bascomb engineer, was stopped as quickly as possible and its crew at once notified the Woburn authorities. Chief of Police C. F. McDermott drove immediately to the scene of the accident in company with Dr. H. G. Blake, medical examiner, the latter authorizing the removal of the body in charge of a local undertaker.

The boy's father is employed in the city water works and was drawing his weekly wage at the city treasurer's office when he was told of the accident. He carried the sad news to his wife.

Patrick, who was one of a large family of children, was enrolled as a pupil at the Union street school and had just been promoted from the third grade.

BRIBERY CHARGED

Lawrence Cases May Occupy the Entire Week

SALEM, July 6.—The trial of Mayor William P. White and others on a charge of conspiracy to bribe certain aldermen of the city of Lawrence last year on matters of confirmation and of a subsequent attempt on the part of the mayor to remove James A. Hamilton as chief of the fire department, was resumed yesterday and at the adjournment the government was still cutting in its case.

The trial bids fair to occupy at least all of this week. The principal witnesses of the day were Ernest Dube, one of the defendants, who was called by the government, the district attorney announcing that having called him as a witness he should not ask for a sentence against him in the event of his conviction. Dube repeated his testimony given in the case against Samuel Kress, given a week ago, to the effect that Kress had given him $1000 to keep for Alderman Legendere until the day after the meeting of the board and that subsequently he had returned it to Kress.

State officer Flynn testified to being called into the case by the district attorney January 10 and having made an investigation, interviewing each of the defendants except Thomas Keegan, and reporting his progress to the district attorney. He said he warned each that what they said might be used against them in court, and declared that he played no favorites, but sought information of any person in Lawrence who had violated the law.

KEITH B. MORRIS GIRL WAS SHOT

Says He Wanted to Live Because She Failed to Keep Engagement

HAVERHILL, July 6.—Keith B. Morris, self confessed forger and penitent, was committed to jail at Lawrence yesterday afternoon. Unless he is able to raise bail of $1000 he will be obliged to remain a prisoner at the jail until he is taken into the superior court for trial in September.

Morris was arraigned before Judge Fuller in the district court yesterday morning, charged with four counts of forging and uttering. He pleaded guilty to each one and as the evidence was at hand in the form of checks and police information, most of which was based on Morris' own statements, the court ordered him recognized for the grand jury.

Morris says he doesn't know a relative or friend in the world to whom he can turn for assistance. He attributes his downfall entirely to his desires to keep pace with young men in Boston.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

KANSAS CITY, July 6.—Miss Ruby Hirsch, aged 22, was shot and fatally injured by Edward Baker, a contractor, 47 years old at her home last night because she failed to keep a luncheon engagement with him.

Baker fled but was arrested today six miles south of this city.

RECEPTION TO JOHNSON
CHICAGO, July 6.—"Little Africa" is preparing to receive the black champion, Jack Johnson, when he arrives here Thursday.

Thousands of negroes are expected to join in the reception party. The eighth infantry band and a squad of the negro national guardsmen and the negro Elks band will give an official tone to the reception.

A special touring car will be on hand for Jack and his party, and 26 automobiles will carry personal friends in a parade from the station to Johnson's home, where his mother will have ready a chicken feast.

SUPREME COURT ONE OF PITTSBURG'S CHAMPIONS

Rules Against City of Boston WHO IS BATTLING THE BALL HARD

BOSTON, July 6.—The full bench of the supreme court yesterday overruled the defendant's exceptions and a verdict of $600 for the plaintiff stands in the suit of Maria Keating vs. city of Boston. She was hurt by falling into a coal hole in Melrose street. The cover tipped up when she stepped on it. Her arm was broken.

The city excepted to a refusal of the superior court to direct a verdict in its favor. The court says: "The city had notice that the coal hole was in the sidewalk. That made it its duty to use due diligence to protect the traveling public from that hole, and the question is whether it has used due diligence. It is the only protection against the hole is a cover which will tip up if stepped upon unless fastened or, to state it in another way, the question is whether, in the exercise of due diligence, the city can allow such a cover to remain, relying on the occupant of the abutting house to fasten it."

"We can have no doubt that in the case of covers of manholes in the street which cannot be fastened from within a finding would be warranted that a cover which tipped up when trodden upon was a danger which a city would not allow if it used reasonable diligence."

"The question is not what view we take upon the question which arose in this case, but what view a jury could take upon it. We are of opinion that a jury is warranted in finding that a coal hole cover which when trodden upon will tip up unless fastened is so likely to be unfurnished that a city which uses reasonable diligence after it had, or in the exercise of proper care, might have had notice of this condition, would not allow it to be there at all."

SEN. WILSON

DISCUSSES THE STATEMENT OF COL. ROOSEVELT

CENTRALIA, Wash., July 6.—Former United States Senator John L. Wilson, who is a candidate for the United States senatorship from Washington, referring to the announcement by Col. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay last night, that he would support Miles Polindexter, the insurgent congressman from Washington, for United States senator, said:

"There is so much error of fact contained in the despatch from Oyster Bay concerning the Roosevelt-Polindexter interview, that it is hard for me to form a statement."

"Col. Roosevelt appears either to have been misled or is not familiar with political conditions in this state."

"In the first place, Senator Piles is not a candidate to succeed himself."

"In the second place, Judge Ballinger is not taking any part in the senatorial contest whatever. Ballinger is not the head of the republican party in this state nor the head of any wing of any party."

"Of the six candidates for United States senator, Judge Thomas Burke, Judge John F. Humphreys, J. M. Ashton and myself are personal friends of Judge Ballinger, but Mr. Ballinger is not politically friendly to any one of us over any other one of us."

SPEAKER CANNON

WASH., July 6.—"Who gave out that news about Polindexter?" That is what Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, asked a newspaper interviewer last night upon his return to Washington. Informed that the intimation that Representative Polindexter of Washington would have the sympathy of the former president in his candidacy for senator from that state had come from both Mr. Polindexter and Col. Roosevelt, Mr. Cannon declined to comment further upon the situation until he knew more about it.

INJURED ARE RECOVERING

LACONIA, N. H., July 6.—Every one of the persons injured yesterday by the boiler explosion which demolished Jenkins' laundry was reported today to be well on the road to recovery and it was considered certain that the fatality list would be limited to the single death so far reported.

The opinion generally expressed today was that the boiler which exploded must have been defective. To determine this point and also to assist in fixing the responsibility for the disaster, expert boiler inspectors will come here within a day or two to examine the fragments of the demolished boiler.

It is not known whether the laundry will be continued by Mr. Jenkins. It is said today that at least three months must elapse before the ground can be cleared and a new laundry building erected.

HAMILTON HYATT

PITTSBURG, July 6.—Hamilton Hyatt, first baseman of the Pittsburgh world's champions, has been playing good baseball despite the team's slump in the National league race. The initial sack has long been the weak spot of the Pirate infield, but Hyatt has done more to fill the gap than any of the numerous candidates tried out in the last five years. His batting has served to win games when the veteran sluggers like Wagner, Leach and Clarke have failed to produce the wallops that mean victories.

COLUMBUS DAY

DECISION THAT THE SALOONS MUST CLOSE

BOSTON, July 6.—The licensing board yesterday declared that they regard Columbus day the same as any other holiday, and that their interpretation of the law is that it means that the saloons are not to open on Columbus day.

The saloons, therefore, will not be allowed to open on the new holiday, which comes on Oct. 12.

TUFT'S PROPERTY, ATTACHED

ROCKPORT, July 6.—The examination of the securities of the Rockport National bank was resumed yesterday, the two expert accountants from the Shawmut National bank being in charge of the work. President Loring Grimes and a majority of the directors with acting Cashier Albert W. Tarr assisted verifying collateral, etc.

Nothing was developed to indicate any further serious deficiency, although progress was necessarily slow. It will be several days at least before the examination, which will be thorough and searching, will be finished.

Ex-Cashier George W. Tuft's property was attached by the bank yesterday in an action of contract for $20,000, the document being sworn to before Carleton H. Parsons, clerk of the eastern district court at Gloucester. Mrs. Tuft, wife of the ex-cashier, is heartbroken over the affair and her condition is serious.

YOUNT ON SLAB

New Pitcher Shut Out Worcester

WORCESTER, July 6.—Lowell defeated Worcester here yesterday, 2 to 0, the visitors getting both their runs on errors. Manager Burkett of the home team was put out of the game in the sixth inning for disputing a decision. Huston, Lowell's catcher, was hit by a fast ball sent in by Yount in the fourth inning and went out of the game being replaced by Sullivan. The score:

DIAMOND NOTES

At Worcester today.
Yount looks good.

Al Whitridge is due to arrive here today. With Tyler, Wolfgang, Yount and Whitridge we ought to go along some.

Lowell and New Bedford will play a double-header here tomorrow. First game at 2. Tyler and Wolfgang.

They're having all kinds of trouble in Haverhill, and the fans are deserting the game. There is talk of transferring the team to Manchester. Perhaps a change of management in Haverhill might make a difference.

Harry Huston is having hard luck, surely. In the fourth inning yesterday he was struck on the collarbone by a pitched ball and was painfully injured.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

What will probably be one of the greatest baseball battles of the season will be played on the North common this coming Saturday when the strong Wanderers and O. M. I. Cadets of the Lowell and Suburban league clash for their first league game. The first game which was scheduled between these two teams was postponed on account of rain, and at that time they were both tied for first place in the league standing. These two teams are still the leaders of the league, the Wanderers being first and the Cadets one game behind. A victory means a great deal for each team, for by winning, the Cadets will be tied for first place, while if the Wanderers take the game it will give them a good hold on first place. The largest crowd that has been seen at an amateur game will probably be on hand, and there is sure to be some excitement, as well as some fast baseball.

The U. S. Bunting baseball team would like to arrange a game for Saturday, July 9, also for July 16. G. M. Roberts, 31 Potter street.

BASEBALL CHALLENGE

Sporting Editor, Lowell Sun.
Dear Sir: I am a member of the 2nd inst. It was with surprise mingled with sorrow that I read the pitiful petition (under the guise of a protest) of the so-called (by themselves only) two leading teams in the "Die Game league."

The Sanctuary Choir team is one and has always been one of the strongest ball clubs in the city, and to show that it was not gotten together for the sole purpose of making what looks to the "great game managers" of the L. & S. like a fortune (300 the city purse), I hereby challenge any team in the L. & S. to a game on Saturday, the game to be played wherever any of the teams which care to accept this challenge care to play. One more point: I'll also see that both teams will get a square deal. By that I mean Mr. John Condon, the man with the eye of an eagle, will be the decision maker. In regard to the Fourth of July committee, my brother manager, Mr. Shea, has voiced my sentiments to the letter, so I will therefore let that pass unnoticed.

The first team I would like to hear from is the soldiers (O. M. I. Cadets), because from all reports they acted the gamest after that they lost the chance of trying to win the fortune on the glorious Fourth.
Thanking you for the space in your valuable paper, I remain,
Yours most respectfully,
John J. Queenan,
Mgr. Sanctuary Choir.

DRACUT ROADS

About to be Put in Good Shape

Contractor Heland of Dracut is about to start on a job of road work backed by the town of Dracut and the county commissioners that will making countless thousands happy, for his job, consists of macadamizing Lakeview avenue from Collinsville to the city line, near the residence of the Fels family. Anyone who has taken the car for Lakeview within the past two years will realize and immediately appreciate what it means to have that stretch of road completed. It has been a "fight" for some time and Contractor Heland promises to improve it to such an extent that the public will not know it.

Work has started upon the improvement of Mammoth road from Collinsville to the city line and from all accounts we may get good roads to our neighboring town.

Quite a boom has been started for School Committeeman Bernard Maguire of Collinsville for selectman next year, but Mr. Maguire is still withholding his consent to the proposition.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McGarry and son of New York city spent the Fourth of July at the home of Mrs. McGarry's sister, Mrs. Patrick Gookin of Meadowcroft street.

Mr. Ernest Nelson is spending his vacation with his brother, Prof. Thos. Nelson, director of the Textile department of the A. and M. college, West Raleigh, N. C.

Mrs. Joseph Willis of 10 Lincoln street leaves for England today on the S. S. Ivernia, to be gone three months visiting all points of interest.

Mrs. W. P. Lawler and her four children of 73 Nesmith street left last evening for Winchester, Virginia, where they will spend the remainder of the summer. Dr. Lawler will join them in August.

In the report of the Conservatory of Music last Wednesday night there was a slight mistake. There was only one graduate, and she was Miss Nora Sweeney.

The Misses Anna and Margaret Walsh of North Chelmsford are visiting friends in Providence, R. I.

Mrs. James Fraser and daughter Mary of New York city will spend the summer at Bar Harbor, Me., after visiting at the home of Mr. James Moore of Hartmouth street, North Chelmsford.

The Misses Gladys and Charlotte Prince and Master Warren Prince and Master Jos. Armitage of N. Chelmsford will spend Old Home week at Portsmouth, N. H.

Mr. J. Harold Hackett of Amherst street, North Chelmsford, spent the Fourth of July at The Welrs.

Miss Lilla Childs, a popular saleslady in the New York cloak and suit store, spent the Fourth of July at Nahant, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ripley of North Chelmsford and Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Sherrington of Manchester, England, who are Mr. Ripley's sisters, will spend the week at Camp Comfort, Forge Village, Mass.

Martin Rowell, of the protective company, and his family are comfortably located at Nabness pond.

NEW RAILROAD RATES

ALBANY, N. Y., July 6.—The increased commutation rates of the New York Central and the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroads will not be withdrawn by the companies. The public service commission was so informed yesterday by representatives of the companies in reply to the commission's request for the suspension of the new rates.

The commission was told that the request for the suspension of rates had been brought to the attention of the executive officers, and while they would have been willing to comply if it had been made at a reasonable time, they believed that, inasmuch as the new rates are now in effect, no advantage would accrue by granting the request.

The commission decided that the contention of the companies as to the proper publication and filing of the new tariffs was not sustained, and that the railroads had substantially complied with the law in this respect. There were other considerations. Chairman Stevens said, relating to other tickets which would receive further consideration.

MAN FOUND WITH LEGS NEARLY SEVERED

GREENFIELD, July 6.—John J. Benson, Jr., aged 30, assistant night yard master, boarded extra freight 1200 last evening at 7.05, and 25 minutes later he was found unconscious on the side of the track near the rock cut east of the yard with both legs nearly severed.

He died while on his way to the hospital. How the accident happened is not known. His wife, mother and father reside at 357 Hope street, Providence.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

THE FOURTH FATALITIES

The number of fatalities from the Fourth this year was only about half the number last year. That is a good showing for one year's effort. Another year the number can be halved again and so on until the accidents become normal. The chief difficulty in the future will be to induce the parents to see that their children avoid dangerous experiments with fire-crackers. Some young men let their exuberance carry them too far and as a result they meet with serious accidents. It will require a few years to stop all this foolishness.

FOR PUBLIC BATHS

Public baths! We have talked public baths so long that we got tired and have given up the idea as almost hopeless, at least for the present. Let us, however, return again to the subject, to refresh the public mind with the necessity as a health measure and as an inducement to right living.

How many people in Lowell enjoy a bath tub at their homes? Not more than one-half. How, then, about the people who have no facilities for bathing at their homes and who cannot afford to go to the beach even in the summer? How many baths do they get during the course of the year? Let it be remembered also that the people who have no facilities for public baths are those who have to work hardest in factory and workshop and who, judging from their occupations, would need baths most.

It would be a very easy matter to construct a swimming pool along one of the canals or on the river bank. All that would be needed would be the excavation to a proper depth and facing the sides with concrete and covering the bottom with sand or gravel. Then a stream of water could be turned on from river or canal or better still from the city supply. The advantage of such a swimming pool for a single summer would be worth all it would cost, in the fact that it would give the young people an opportunity to learn to swim and would prevent them risking their lives by bathing in canals without being able to swim.

There will come a time, we presume, when our city will have public baths like other cities. The park department has made the experiment of putting shower baths in the basement of one of the schools. That system, if tried, might accommodate a considerable number of people, assuming that the school basements were thrown open in the warm weather to the general public.

THE UNITED SHOE MACHINERY MONOPOLY

The Boot and Shoe Industry is dull at the present time and some people ask why. It is not unusual to have dull spells in the shoe business. In this respect it is not different from other lines of business with which we are acquainted. But already it is mooted that the tariff on shoes is too low. When the tariff was removed from hides the duty on shoes was reduced from 25 to 15 per cent.

The New England shoe men are to hold a convention in Salem next week when matters of general interest to the industry will be discussed.

There is another cause assigned for the depression of the industry and that is the monopoly held by the United Shoe Machinery company. There is something in the nature of a revolt likely to break out against this monopoly which has the business by the throat. It refuses to sell its machines outright, simply leasing them and thus exacting tribute. Furthermore, in order to maintain its patents in foreign nations, the machines must be operated or in some cases manufactured in the country granting the patent. The United Shoe Machinery company is now teaching foreign nations how to use its machines in competition with the United States. For this reason it should be compelled to sell its machines to the shoe manufacturers. Congress should pass a law making this leasing privilege illegal and compelling the company to sell its machines as low to this as to foreign nations.

Speaking of these matters, a Washington correspondent, writing in the Boston Transcript, says:—

"The boot and shoe industry never in its history has needed protection until recently. It is in danger to the United States, and except in articles like French fancy wear, which is protected by its own price, the American manufacturer has led the world in quality, volume and cheapness. But within the past decade the industry has had to bear such burdens as have been laid upon it by the United Shoe Machinery company. This great concern, a consolidation of machinery manufacturers who were for years engaged in expensive litigation with each other, doubtless has conferred many benefits upon the industry, but it also has bound it hand and foot with a system of leases which have compelled manufacturers to use its machines and no other, on penalty of being deprived of all machines owned by the company. How grievous a burden this has been Massachusetts manufacturers know, for they went to their legislature to be relieved of it. The legislature responded, but so far the company has succeeded in evading the prohibition intended by the general court.

"As all shoe manufacturers were treated alike, the conditions might not have been so bad, except for the consumer, until the company attempted to extend its business abroad. It first ran up against Germany, which required that the machines must be operated in Germany in order to give validity to the patents. France and Great Britain followed, and soon the trust's shoe machinery was being operated all over Europe in competition with American. It is true that the American shoe worker is unexcelled as an individual craftsman, but scientific shoe machinery has minimized the personal element in shoe making, and Germans, Frenchmen and British workmen are excellent mechanics. In other words, the magnificent battery of American shoe machines is now being turned against the United States, and competition has thus sprung up where it never existed before. It was to these conditions that Mr. Cannon referred in his suggestion that the duty on boots and shoes is too low."

But for being bound under contract the shoe men would undoubtedly rise in revolt against this monopoly.

SEN. CUMMINS OF IOWA
SUFFERING FROM HEART TROUBLE

SENATOR CUMMINS

DES MOINES, Ia., July 6.—Because of heart trouble, augmented by labors of the recent session of the senate, Senator A. B. Cummins has canceled his Chautauqua dates. He also has been ordered to give up golf and cigars. Senator Cummins denies that his heart is seriously affected. "I was advised by physicians at Baltimore to take a rest and have canceled some of my dates," he said.

THRILLING FEAT

Saved the Lives of Two Persons

BOSTON, July 6.—Mrs. Sarah Posner of 41 Billerica street won an enduring place in the memory of her neighbors in the West End yesterday by saving the lives of Mrs. Sarah Rosenberg and her infant daughter from fire.

senberg and her infant daughter from fire.

The children in the Rosenberg family, whose home is at 41 Billerica street, got some matches and set paper afire. The blaze spread to clothing in a closet and the frightened youngsters huddled in the corner of the room and cried loudly, but none of them tried to extinguish the flames.

The fire crackled and the smoke drifted into the room occupied by Mrs. Rosenberg, who gave birth to a child last Saturday. She tried to get out of the room but her strength was unequal to the task.

Mrs. Posner happened to look out and saw the smoke. A plank stretched from the window in her kitchen to a window in the Rosenberg home, and the heroic woman, without a thought of the danger, crawled across the narrow board, which bent under her weight, to the assistance of Mrs. Rosenberg and her child.

She took the sick woman in her arms and recrossed the plank, which creaked and swayed under the burden, and the neighbors who watched were literally afraid to speak. But the feat was accomplished and she returned and rescued the infant.

The children escaped by the front stairway, but Mrs. Posner was afraid to carry Mrs. Rosenberg and the infant down those stairs as she did not know how far the fire had spread.

Mrs. Rosenberg suffered from the shock and was attended by a physician, but her rescuer was unaffected by the thrilling act. An alarm was given from box 702 and the fire was extinguished with slight loss.

KILLS DAUGHTER

Father Shot Girl by Accident

MORRISTOWN, N. J., July 6.—Joseph Tabibjian, caretaker and general superintendent at Persian Court, the summer home here of H. H. Topakyan, the Turkish consul general, accidentally shot and killed his six year old daughter, Mabel, yesterday afternoon. He took a loaded shotgun to drive intruders from a field on the estate, and the child followed, unnoticed, behind. When the trigger of the weapon caught a twig the little girl's head was almost blown off.

To the Woman Who Has Waited for the Markdowns; or The Woman Who Plans a Second Purchase Because of
The Low Prices

DEAR MADAM:

It is our privilege to advise you that we are engaged today in marking down prices on Women's and Misses' Suits, Coats, Separate Skirts, Dresses and Children's Junior Suits and Coats for the purpose of inaugurating an Annual Clearance Sale—forcing out laggards and surplus merchandise, effectively reducing stock—cheerfully suffer our losses and count cash instead of garments at our Summer Inventory Sale, soon to occur.

We purpose to start our Summer Mark-down Sale in the Women's Suit Department, Friday Morning, July 8th, and on that day descriptions and prices will be printed in the newspapers. As you already know, the store for Quality and Style enjoys a well-earned reputation of handling only garments of correct and exclusive style—finely tailored and perfect fitting. Sold in the beginning of the season at fair prices, with satisfaction guaranteed, now to be reduced in price from 30 to 50 per cent., offers you an opportunity worthy of investigation.

We expect to complete the marking down of garments at closing time Thursday noon, and will show samples in our window ready for sale Friday morning.

Read our advertisement in Friday papers—Come into the store and see the values. This is positively the Final Mark-down Sale of the Season.

Store closes Thursday at 12.30. Don't forget it. Do your shopping in the morning.

SILVER WEDDING

Observed by Mr. and Mrs. Prescott

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen M. Prescott, of 29 Campos avenue, off Wilder street, observed the silver anniversary of their wedding yesterday by entertaining scores of friends, many of whom were from out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Prescott were assisted in receiving in the drawing room by Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Smith.

The reception was held during the early part of the evening after which an entertainment program, consisting of musical and literary numbers, was carried out. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott were the recipients of many beautiful and appropriate gifts. Mr. Prescott was born in China, Maine, and came to Lowell in 1882. For 24 years he has been a trusted employee of the Daniel Gage Ice Co. Before her marriage, Mrs. Prescott was Miss Addie White of Bucksport, Maine, where she taught school before coming to Lowell. The couple were united in marriage in 1885 by Rev. Mr. W. S. Ayers, then pastor of the Worthen Street Baptist church.

MAYOR GAYNOR

SAYS THAT POLITICIANS ARE GRAFTING

NEW YORK, July 6.—Mayor Gaynor sent to the board of aldermen late yesterday afternoon a message charging that politicians were extorting money from persons seeking aldermanic permits for licensing news stands, fruit stands and bootblack stands. The message was fortified by two reports made by investigators.

"I want to be understood as even not intimating that the members of your honorable body are implicated in this general extortion," wrote the mayor. "But the fact is that the members of your board and the mayor's bureau of licenses, which really means the mayor himself, are being delivered, as the phrase is, in the granting of these licenses for sums ranging from $5 to $500 in each case.

"Persons applying for these licenses cannot get them until they join a political club and pay that club a specific amount of money, or until they pay some political captain a proscribed sum of money. It is too infamous a thing to be permitted to continue, and I ask the privilege of uniting with the honorable members of your board in putting an end to it."

COURT OF APPEAL
SAYS THAT THE HEINZE SENTENCE STANDS

NEW YORK, July 6.—The United States circuit court of appeals, in a decision handed down yesterday afternoon, affirmed the sentence of 10 days' imprisonment passed by Judge Ray on Arthur P. Heinze after his conviction in June, 1909, on an indictment charging him with obstructing the administration of justice by instigating the removal and mutilation of the books of the United Copper company.

The indictment also charged Heinze with inducing Tracy Buckingham, a witness wanted by the federal grand jury in a proceeding against Fritz August Heinze to evade the service of a subpoena. Because of the mutilation of the books of the United Copper company U. S. Dist. Atty. Wise said he was unable to complete the government's case against Fritz August Heinze, who was acquitted on charges of violating the national banking laws. He and Arthur P. Heinze are brothers.

It will be several days before the mandate of the higher court affirming Judge Ray's judgment will be filed with the trial court. Until that is done Heinze will remain at liberty.

MINSTREL'S WIDOW

PASSED AWAY AFTER AN OPERATION

NEW YORK, July 6.—Eliza, the widow of Col. Jack Haverly, in his day the chief of all the minstrel men, died in a private sanatorium at 223 West One Hundred and Twenty-third street. Eight weeks ago Mrs. Haverly underwent an operation from which she never recovered. She is survived by Ida Haverly, a stepdaughter. She was 60 years old.

On Forty-second street off Broadway there is a store with a little sign displayed in the window which reads "Jack Haverly—Cold Cream" and there for the six years since her husband's death Mrs. Haverly has fought for an existence with a smiling persistence that made her welcome in any dressing room in the city. The actor folk revered her husband. Of course, and they had two husbands for the widow, one in this city and one in Chicago, but neither of them was successful financially.

At one time Col. Jack owned 14 theatres and 23 road companies, but when the colonel died mother and daughter found that they had to make their own living.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN

Says He is Not Candidate for Any Office

LINCOLN, Neb., July 6.—"I am not a candidate for any office. I desire nothing at the hands of my coworkers. They have already rewarded me, and I am indebted to them for whatever influence I may have."

In these words, in a long statement given out last night, W. J. Bryan practically declares himself a free lance in the coming campaign in Nebraska, and gives advance notice that he will advocate such principles as he sees fit, and that the foremost of those principles will be to divorce the democratic party from the liquor interests and the plan to be followed in Nebraska is through the medium of county option.

Mr. Bryan does not spare the recognized leaders of the party in the state who have taken a stand against him in his advocacy of county option, but his language is not bitter. He deprecates the refusal of Gov. Challenberger to call an extra session of the legislature to adopt the initiative and referendum whereby Mr. Bryan says the issue of county option might have been referred to the people.

The governor, he contends, was not justified in ignoring the petition for an extra session which contained the names of a majority of the members on joint ballot, but he adds significantly that if the governor and his advisers are right they must bear the responsibility if disaster comes. Throughout he is outspoken and bitter in his arraignment of the liquor interests, which he accuses of all the sins in the political calendar.

Referring to his own plans and his regret that he must in effect cut loose from other party men, Mr. Bryan says: "It may possibly be to the party's advantage to escape the discussion of national issues and to make a fight on the liquor question. It may be that the party is stronger on this issue than on national issues. If so, those who are responsible for making the liquor question the prominent question in the campaign should be credited with the advantage which they bring to the party."

"I shall not deserve any of the glory myself, if glory comes out of the situation, because I have tried to prevent it. Governor Challenberger, Congressmen Hitchcock and Mayor Duhman will be entitled to divide the honors between them."

"As democrats differ in regard to the course to be pursued there ought to be free and full discussion among democrats, and I hope that differences of opinion as to liquor legislation will not be permitted to disturb the personal friendships which have grown up in our party during our harmonious cooperation."

KILLED HERSELF

MRS. SPALDING ENDED HER LIFE BY INHALING GAS

MALDEN, July 6.—Mrs. Jessie P. Spalding, past president of the Woman's Relief corps of Malden, and wife of Col. W. F. Spalding of 40 Eastern avenue, committed suicide at her home yesterday noon by inhaling illuminating gas. Mrs. Spalding had been dependent of late on account of ill-health. She recently went to England for the purpose of recuperating and had just returned.

She was seen in her yard about 11 o'clock, and it is thought she entered the basement of her home, where she was found, and turned on the gas. Mr. Spalding was in the habit of taking his wife out to dinner and called for her for the purpose of taking her out, but was surprised to find the door locked. He failed to elicit any response by his continued knocking on the door and finally becoming alarmed knocked the door down.

He found his wife lying on the couch and her body was still warm, but she died before medical aid could be summoned. Mrs. Spalding was married about 15 years ago and has three children. She was 43 years of age and well known in the city. She had no children.

CHINAMEN FINED

THEY WERE CAUGHT AT TARGET PRACTICE

QUINCY, July 6.—According to the metropolitan park police there was some target shooting in the Blue Island reservation Monday. The officers brought in seven Chinese Chinamen and a white man. The Chinamen were fined $15 apiece, and the white man, who gave his name as Paul Robbs, was fined $5 for having firearms in his possession. The firearms of all the defendants, together with a large quantity of revolver ammunition of 32 and 38 caliber, were forfeited by the court.

The police said the Chinamen were firing at targets when they were arrested. The officers were of the opinion that the Chinamen were preparing for a new target range. Prior to the last large number of Chinamen were found target shooting at the Point Holes in this city, and some of them were afterward recognized among the defendants who were tried for murder in Boston.

The men fined yesterday gave their names as Dan Sing, Hong Sen, Wing Hong, John Doe, Charlie Sing and Dix Sing.

COAST TO COAST

AUSTRALIAN GOLFERS TO TOUR AMERICA

NEW YORK, July 6.—International golf of a nature hitherto unknown in this country is practically a certainty for next season. This time the invading forces will represent Australia and will be headed by Dr. F. G. Braithwaite, the American vice consul, who will act in the capacity of manager. In addition to the golfers there will be at least two tennis players in the party.

There has already been considerable correspondence between the two countries and a warm welcome for the visitors is assured. The United States Golf Association was communicated with and Robert C. Watson, the secretary, has written to Dr. Braithwaite suggesting that the Australians compete against an American team the week immediately preceding the American amateur championship tournament of 1911. That this proposal will meet with favorable response is no doubt, for Dr. Braithwaite has written to know when and where next year's blue-ribbon event will be held.

The plan thus far mapped out is to visit this country early next summer and tour America from coast to coast, taking part in team matches and tournaments, but arranging the schedule so as to take in both the amateur and open championships.

The personnel of the Australian team as made up at present consists of eight golfers and two tennis players, but it is possible that this number may be increased.

CITY FARM BILL

COMMITTEE WANTS CHARITY BOARD TO PAY IT

The committee on appropriations met last night previous to the meeting of the board of aldermen. The report was prepared which was later submitted to the board, relative to the figures asked for by the aldermen on the expenditures of the charity department, and the bill of the city for $4256.92, money owed for the support of the feeble minded. It was voted to recommend that the charity department pay the bill out of this year's appropriation.

The communication from the water board, declining to call for bids for a new pump, unless an appropriation was made, was read and ordered on file.

The order for the appropriation of $1500 for a new land stand on the South common was laid on the table, and the order for $3000 to finish the ball ground on Fort Hill park was acted upon similarly. It was voted to view the South common, Fort Hill park and the Livingston park land next Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

After the meeting of the board of aldermen the committee again met. Councilmen and aldermen were appointed a special sub-committee to confer with the agent of the Merrimack Manufacturing company, relative to the use of the land on Lakeview avenue for park purposes. This sub-committee will report back to the committee at a meeting to be held next Tuesday evening.

MORE OFFICERS

WERE ADDED TO LYNN POLICE FORCE

LYNN, July 6.—Four extra police officers, whose special duty is to be in charge of the financial district, especially on days when the thousands of employees receive their weekly wages, were appointed by Mayor James E. Hich last night.

Recessed Officers Wm. A. Ruth, John T. Burnett, Frank W. Stevens and Wm. K. Wallace were named by Mayor Hich and the aldermen immediately confirmed the appointments.

The aldermen at the same meeting at which the mayor's appointments were made passed an order authorizing the purchase of an automobile patrol wagon. Both acts are the direct outcome of the bandit raid of ten days ago.

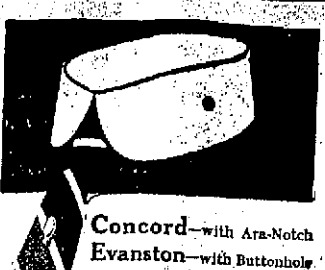

The police committee of the board of aldermen was instructed to prepare a set of resolutions commending the members of the force for their work.

ROBBING MAILS

IS THE CHARGE AGAINST BOSTON CLERK

BOSTON, July 6.—Nicholas D. Scully, a clerk in the Fourth district at Back Bay, was arrested yesterday noon charged with stealing letters containing money. Before U. S. Commissioner Hayes in the federal building he pleaded not guilty and was held for a hearing next Tuesday.

Scully was appointed to the postal service in 1909. He is 39 years old, married, and has two little children, residing at 282 Columbia road, Dorchester. He was, it is alleged, taken in the act of boiling a dozen letters containing money that had been marked by Postoffice Inspector Perkins. Upon being searched, it is claimed, marked certificates were found upon

After being arraigned, Scully was taken by Inspector Perkins and Deputy U. S. Marshal Young to his home in Dorchester, where it is declared he carried a marked piece of money taken from a letter several days ago.

Scully asked the officers not to inform his family of the arrest, and they complied with his request. When Scully left the house in company with the officer, he suggested to his wife that she take the children over to her father's home at South Boston for the evening. Scully was committed to the Charles street jail.

COMMITTEE ON LICENSES

The committee on licenses met at 7.30 o'clock last night. Considerable routine stuff was disposed of by Chairman Connors and Aldermen Byam and Qua were present.

Five petitions for the storage of gasoline, on which hearings had previously been ordered, were laid on the table.

E. A. Wilson & Co. petitioned to store gasoline in Thomas street, and the committee voted to recommend the petition.

George R. Dana petitioned to store gasoline at the corner of East Merrimack and Stackpole streets, and the petition was recommended.

Frank E. Harris petitioned to store gasoline at 81-91 Appleton street and 20 Arch street, and the petition was recommended.

The Thompson Hardware company and others petitioned for the removal of the corner of Martin Mack, at the corner of Merrimack and Shattuck streets. The matter was laid on the table until the next meeting.

TOOK BIG CHANGE

To Save the Standard Oil Plant

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 6.—While firemen poured powerful streams of water upon him W. A. Weaver, superintendent of the Atlantic Refining plant, (Standard Oil company) dashed through flames and smoke today and shut a valve which prevented fire spreading from a burning still of benzene to a great tank of oil nearby.

In the vicinity over 30,000 barrels of petroleum in various stages of refinement were stored.

Two thousands people, called from their beds by the peril, cheered the superintendent as he came scorching from the burning still.

SEVERE STORMS

In Minnesota and South Dakota

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 6.—Western Minnesota and eastern South Dakota were visited last night by severe wind and electrical storms, which may have caused loss of life and great damage to cities and farming communities. The storm seems to have followed a well defined path west from Benson and Madison, Minn.

TO STOP FIREWORKS SALE

CHICAGO, July 6.—Absolute prohibition of the sale and use of fireworks in Chicago was recommended to the city government last night by Fire Marshal Horan. He said: "I am convinced that the only sane celebration is the celebration without fireworks of any kind."

CLEVER WOMEN

Always Keep Their Hair Fascinating and Free from Dandruff

Some women are born beautiful; some grow up to be beautiful; and some are clever enough to make themselves beautiful.

But all agree that no matter how perfect the features, how rosy the cheeks, how sparkling the eyes, no woman can attain the perfection of beauty unless she has an abundance of lustrous hair—of her own.

And thanks to Parisian Sage, which can now be obtained all over America, every woman can have natural hair in abundance; hair as lustrous as the riating sun.

Parisian Sage is without the least vestige of a doubt the most remarkable hair grower, invigorator and beautifier ever compounded.

It is so far ahead of all commercial lotions that Carter & Sherburne guarantee it to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back.

Parisian Sage is delightfully refreshing in summer and is not sticky or greasy.

It cools the scalp and stops all odors of perspiration instantly. A large bottle for 50 cents at druggists everywhere and at Carter & Sherburne's. The girl with the auburn hair is on every package. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by Groux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Take Chances in Trotting Game

Neither the Trainers Nor Track Owners Are Free From Risk

Many complaints have been registered by trainers because of the high rate of entrance charged by harness racing associations. It has been stated by the men who race horses for their own money that they bear nearly the entire burden and encounter all the risk.

These men claim that if they enter in the early closing, stake races they are compelled to name their horses very early in the spring before they know their exact condition. In many instances the early payments are the largest. After taking the chance that the horse will develop into a good racing machine there are a thousand and one things that may come up to injure its chance in a race. It may be injured in one way or another so that it may not be able to start, and the man who pays the bills is out all his entrance money thus far paid in.

While these men are right to a certain extent and do take a long chance in entering horses in stakes, still they do not think about the association and what risk the race promoters take. An association gives but a meeting of five days' duration a year, as a rule. To give that meeting a large amount of ground must be purchased or leased, so that a track, grand stand and stable can be erected. To get the land requires an outlay of considerable capital, and to maintain it keeps up a continual drain upon some one's pocket-book. A grand stand cannot be built without going to much expense, while the building of stables, etc., costs money.

At meeting time the association offers considerable money in stakes and purses, and in a very few of the class events at least does it get more than 50 per cent of the money guaranteed back from the entrance fees. The balance has to be made up at the gate and, where pools are sold, in the pool selling privileges and other privileges where returns are derived from. If the attendance is large and a big entry is received an association will break even and perhaps make a little money, but suppose that rain interferes and cuts the attendance down, small fields start and the various sources of revenue are cut down. Then who is it that is taking the chances?

It is true that the trainers and men who own the horses are also losing opportunities to make money, but at the same time it does not rain every week, and they have other chances to race, but the association is down and out. Its week of racing has been ruined, and a big financial loss is encountered as a result.

While the trainers and owners of horses take big chances of losing money in racing horses, still that all goes with the sport, and one who will participate must expect to gamble with Dame Fortune. On the other hand, the fastest way for an association to act is to place the heaviest part of the stable payments last in order that a man may take a risk with an unknown horse at a little expense early in the season and then as the equine advances to increase the amount of entrance money.

Pitchers Have Sign on Teams

Major Leaguers Always Have Some Club They Invariably Win From

There is something more than superstition in the assertion that a big league pitcher always finds one or more teams that he nearly always defeats.

Just why this is a fact is unknown, but it is true that some clubs, even if the lineup is frequently changed, have a hoodoo pitcher that they beat only by accident.

Harry Krause, the phenomenal young left hander of the Athletics, has a habit of beating every team in the league, but he is particularly successful against Boston.

Last season Krause shut out Boston on five occasions, two of these performances coming in one series. This year Boston and the Athletics met for the first time in the Hub, and Mack picked the left hander to pitch. The result was another triumphant shutout for this marvelous young tyro.

Krause's complete mastery over Boston probably has no parallel in baseball, although there are other clubs which have their "goats."

For instance, Covalleski, the former Phillie, could down New York if he couldn't beat any other team in the league. He put the Giants out of the pennant running in 1908 by beating them three times in five days and has been successful against the same club ever since.

Rucker of Brooklyn is another left hander who is troublesome for the Giants and rarely fails to win his game. So is Brown of Chicago. Battling against Mathewson, the Giants' premier, Brown has won a number of notable victories.

Mathewson, however, has the Indian sign on a whole lot of teams, including the Phillies and Cincinnati. The Phillies were mighty glad that President Fogel and Manager Doolin obtained Bob Ewing, for the latter when a member of the Cincinnati team constantly defeated the Quakers.

The Athletics have some hoodoos, notably Powell of St. Louis and Jess of Cleveland. When the Muck men defeat Powell they think it worth two victories. Young of Cleveland has the singular habit of casting an extra inning hoodoo on the Athletics.

Lajoie Keen on Chickens.

Can't Rattle Larry When It Comes to Talk About Fowls.

"Gee, I'll bet that Lajoie is a rough chap when he's off the ball field!" murmured one fan to another recently after seeing Lajoie play. Poor misguided fan!

Nap Lajoie is about the quietest individual off the ball field that ever won money for playing baseball. Usually you'll find him seated in a chair, buried

SOME BASEBALL ROOTERS ARE NEVER SATISFIED

Detroit Fans Insist That the Tigers Win Fourth Banner

IT'S nice to be a pennant winner and still much nicer to be a continual winner. But only in dreams—day and night—is such a feat possible. The tin decorated knights who used to dub around with spears and shields some years back went through the experience of getting acquainted with the fact. Even previous to those hazy and strenuous times it is possible that other tribes of batters knew it. Getting down to the present, everybody in the hemisphere who knows anything knows it.

Thus prefaced, this effusion will be prolonged for a slight space. The baseball public has a complete knowledge of all heretofore set forth. It is certain that a ball club cannot go on winning forever and eye, with a few additional seasons strung in here and there, yet that is just what it demands.

Hedged in between the four distance and direction extremes of the United States there are a few thousand baseball leagues—how many thousand even J. H. Russell of Auburn, N. Y., doesn't know, and he is the man who keeps track of the books. From two to ten teams comprise each of these leagues. Every team has its backers, and the funniest part of the whole thing is that these backers look for and expect their respective squads to win games and pennants despite the absolute surety that only one team in a league can win a pennant and that team only can win the majority of the games, and, having won one flag, the followers of the lucky club expect it to continue winning them.

This same status of affairs applies to the major leagues and to them principally. It is one of the incongruities of the baseball fever or mania, and whatever else it may be. And the fallacy exists from St. Louis to New York.

Without attempting to explain or defend it, its cause or effect, which is probably founded upon ambition, a practical case of this "fan disorder" will be cited. The Detroit Tigers, assisted and urged by Hughey Jennings, have won three pennants for the City of the Straits, and these in succession. This year they are out to accomplish the same purpose for the fourth time. Detroiters who pay their good money to witness baseball contests expect them to be successful. If they are not, my, what a panning will be sifted out to the three time winners!

Detroit wants the Tigers to win the dry goods again. Detroit demands it. Jennings' tribe has been winning, but the success must be carried further. One reason is undoubtedly because Detroiters are ambitious to see their representatives establish a record. No other club has ever looked down on the procession four times running, and this is what Detroit baseball followers want.

Suppose the Tigers do deliver again. Will the supporters of the team want them to repeat for the fifth time in 1911? No, they won't. But if they don't keep on winning it is safe to say that Bennett park will be about as thickly populated in 1911 as the desert of Sahara is on a dark night.

Pittsburg "pennanted" in the National league last year and also was victor in the world's series. Do Pittsburgers expect the same thing this year? The answer is obvious.

"Supreme Court of Baseball"

Public and Players Inclined to Think Its Rulings Are Partial

Baseball players in particular and many baseball fans in general are prone, as a rule, to sneer at the national commission, the "supreme court of baseball," and to insist that its rulings are against the players and are in favor of the club owners. Chatter along this line has been renewed since the commission's recent ruling that players traded off by a club that eventually wins the pennant must have no share whatever in the world series receipts.

"This is in accord with the usual action of the commission," said one American league player petulantly the other day, "trying to deprive the poor ball player of a little money."

The truth is that the world's series last fall came near developing into a scandal for the lack of the very rule the national commission has just promulgated.

Herman Schaefer was traded in mid-season by Detroit to Washington for Jim Delahanty. Schaefer missed no possible opportunity to declare his hope that the Tigers would win the American league pennant. As Washington had no chance even for a place, Schaefer's expressions of eager anticipation of Detroit's success attracted little attention. It was true, however, that whenever the Tigers and Nationals clashed the exacting fans watched closely the work of Schaefer to see for themselves whether any action of his was in accordance with his hope that the Tigers would win the flag.

To Schaefer's credit it can be said that he was not once accused of "laying down"—that he apparently played as earnestly against his old teammates as he did against the Athletics, the Tigers' nearest rivals. But it must be admitted that the opportunity for suspicion was fully and freely presented.

Schaefer traveled with the Tigers back and forth between Pittsburg and Detroit last fall and rooted faithfully for Jennings' boys and, it is understood, was given a considerable share of the world series receipts in recognition of the work Herman had done to put Detroit in the race earlier in the season. Inasmuch as he could do nothing to help the Tigers beat the Pirates except to wish, advise, hope and root, Schaefer's activities in behalf of the team he had left attracted little attention.

Barbeau and Stork were traded—also in mid-season—to the Cardinals by the Pirates, and the assertion was made open and aboveboard that if Pittsburg won the National league pennant these two players would get a share of the world's series receipts.

Thereupon, naturally, every fan in the country began to examine with critical eyes the scores of all the games between the Pirates and Cardinals. Had either Barbeau or Stork made one palpably careless or stupid play there would have gone up a shout beside which the old outcry against Hall, Devlin and Nichols in the long ago would have sounded like a baby's lullaby.

STANAGE IS GOOD ON BASES.

But Few Catchers Who Can Run the Circuit.

Speaking of his regular backstop, Oscar Stanage, Hughey Jennings remarked recently:

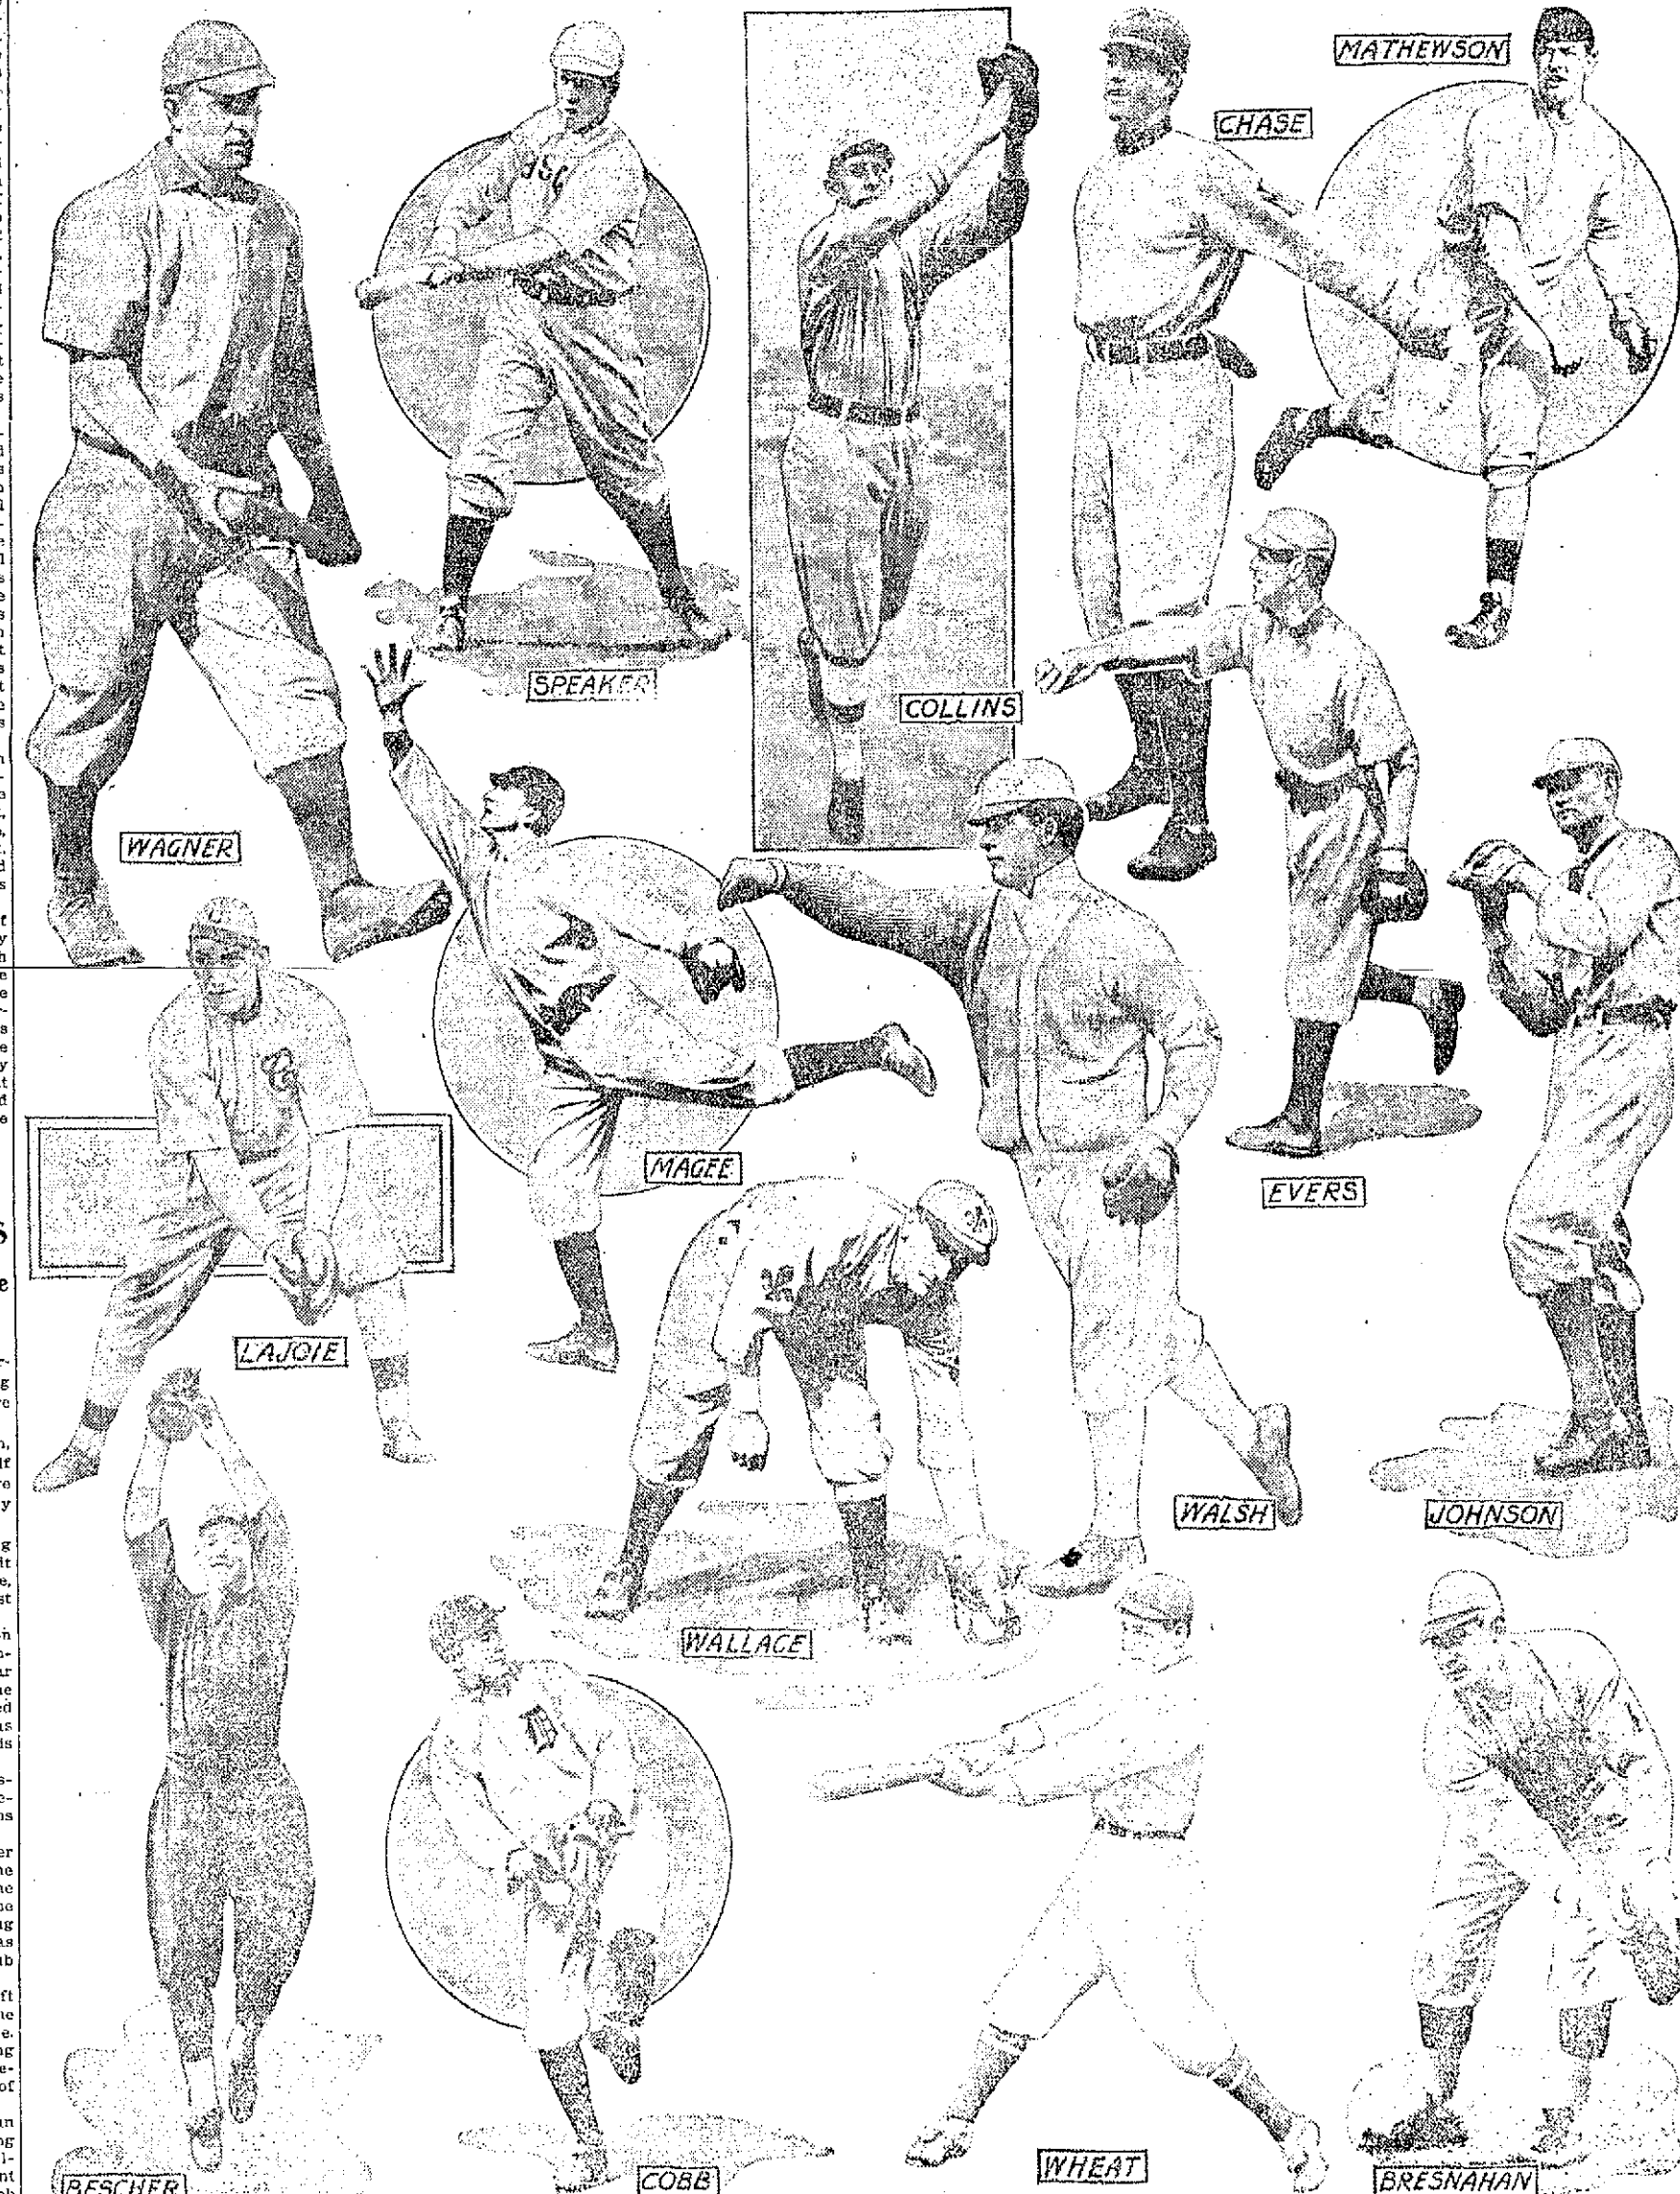

"I've got a backstop named Oscar Stanage who can run some. It's about the hardest task in baseball to get a catcher that can run the bases. Roger Bresnahan is the king of all catchers running the bases. But he learned to slip around the sacks before he became a catcher. Roger, you know, broke into baseball as a pitcher, then became an infielder and turned to catching when he went to work for John J. McGraw. I used to be a catcher myself, and I think the reason they make such poor base runners is because they do so much bending and squatting on their knees. This develops the muscles in their legs and shortens their stride when running. Just look 'em over and see if I'm not right. Few of them ever attempt to get up speed on the base lines. As a rule you have to bat 'em around the diamond, like pitchers."

UMPS HAVE STRONG FRIEND IN CANTILLON.

"Umpires," pipes Joe Cantillon, manager of the Minneapolis team of the American association, "like to give decisions as quickly as possible, and the fans like to have them just as quick, but the umpires would save themselves much trouble if they would take their time and not announce their decisions right off the reel."

"In calling balls and strikes the umpire usually makes his mistakes by calling out the instant the ball crosses the plate. He gets the course of the ball and often calls out before the ball is really lodged in the catcher's glove. Then, again, some will watch the ball as it nears the plate and call out where the ball is liable to take a break just at the plate and go good or bad, and that is where the ump puts himself in bad."

"I have made the same mistake many times and have called balls when I knew after calling them that they should have been strikes, but could not change my decision afterward, for that would never do. Of course it is all evened up in the long run, but the fans do not look at it that way, and umpires often get roused where they might have saved themselves. Umpires do not try to get even with players for alleged abuse or anything of that kind, for they are too busy following the ball to think of getting even with any one. It is the same in giving base decisions."

SOME BRILLIANT STARS IN THIS SEASON'S BASEBALL FIRMAMENT

In a newspaper or magazine. If you happen to boast of a passing acquaintance he'll nod courteously at you when you pump down in the next chair and will say yes and no with readiness to all your questions.

The big fellow is naturally reserved, and few are able to draw him out on short acquaintance. He'll talk chickens with you eagerly enough if you know what you are talking about, but if you try to spring a bluff heaven help you.

One young man tried it. He had been tipped off that he could get the big Frenchman to talk if he began to rattle on about chickens. It was something like this:

Young Visitor—Ah, Mr. Lajoie!

hear you are interested in chickens. (Lajoie lays aside his paper and turns engagingly to the youngster.)

Lajoie—Why, yes; I have a few fancy ones at home I take great pride in. Visitor—That's no talk. My old man and I have a few we keep just for the sake of having a few eggs to use in the house.

Lajoie—How many have you? Visitor—Oh, only about three or four thousand.

Lajoie—Three or four thousand? Visitor (exhibiting signs of nervousness)—Why, yes; about that. Er— you see, we have a big place.

Lajoie (suspiciously)—How large? Visitor—Why, I think there's over a quarter of an acre altogether in the place.

Lajoie—A quarter of an acre! Why, man, you couldn't keep more than 1,000 fowls on a quarter of an acre unless they stood on top of one another.

Visitor (completely flustered)—Why, they do—that is, you see, 3,000 of them live in the air all the time. They are the flying kind and never light. Why, where are you going, Mr. Lajoie?

GEORGE TEBEAU IS WEALTHY.

George Tebeau, who played right field under his brother Pat in Cleveland some fifteen years ago and who was much pleased with his $120,000 salary, is rated practically a millionaire in Kansas City, which is his home town. Tebeau made a little money out of the old Western league and is making big money out of the American association. Two years ago he ran three clubs. First of all he sold Denver. That wasn't much of a deal. Last August he disposed of Louisville for $100,000. He can get $175,000 for his Kansas City club. It is said, incidentally, he will probably make $60,000 out of the latter club this year, as he evidently has an improved team, and Kansas City, just like every other town in the land, in baseball enthusiasm, and anything like the winning article will get the fans out in force.

Some seven or eight years ago Tebeau leased a hole in the ground, a poor bit of real estate, for an annual rental of $900. He likewise got an option to purchase it for $65,000 at any time during a period of ten years.

Now Kansas City is going to have its new railroad station. Tebeau's ball park is so located that it must be grabbed up. The railway people have kept on increasing their offer for the property until they have reached $225,000. The talk around Kansas City is that Tebeau will sell for that figure. So that means a profit of practically $200,000 for him on this deal, and in addition to the baseball business "White Wings" made his for while in the automobile game.

Minister From Bolivia Weds His Family's Nurse

NEW YORK, July 6.—A romance in which a member of the diplomatic corps at Washington is revealed as the hero at the age of sixty, was disclosed yesterday when it became known that Senor Ignacio Calderon, minister to the United States from Bolivia, was married last Saturday at Mamaroneck to Miss Beatrice Monica Ainley.

The marriage of the distinguished South American is made doubly interesting on account of the fact that his bride was for some years employed in the Calderon family as a trained nurse. The diplomat's first wife died only last November. His daughter is Madame Jorge Zalles and is recognized as one of the most beautiful of the foreign legations set.

The marriage license was issued on June 20, last Friday, by Town Clerk Charles Stevens, at Port Chester. The following day the ceremony was performed by Father Isidore Meister, of Holy Trinity Catholic church, in Mamaroneck. Mary A. Ainley and Elizabeth Martin were the only witnesses. These records were examined yesterday by American reporters.

Daughter Greatly Surprised

So profound was the secrecy imposed upon all connected with the marriage details that not even Mrs. Zalles, the daughter in Washington, was willing to believe the reports when seen there last night. She said:

"The story can hardly be true, because our mother is scarcely dead six months. Miss Ainley is a quiet, unassuming woman, who has been highly regarded by us. She is not at all young."

As further evidence that she knew nothing of her father's plans, Mrs. Zalles added:

"If you get any further news about it, I shall be glad to be informed."

Senor Calderon was found at the home of his bride, No. 36 Stuart street, Mamaroneck. He declined to discuss his romance until informed that a record of the license had been examined by the reporter. Then he attempted to explain that the license had simply been obtained for future use.

He seemed greatly embarrassed and would not admit that the ceremony had been performed until informed that he would have to make use of the license before July 19 or it would become void. Then, with a Spanish shrug of the shoulders, he said:

Tells of Marriage

"Very well, then, you may say that I have been married. I do not care to go into details, as I had hoped to avoid all publicity. I have not even informed members of my immediate family. I have known the lady whom I have married for several years, having first met her in Washington. She is not wealthy, but her family is a most estimable one. My reasons for secrecy are due to the fact that I did not acquaint the members of my immediate family with my plans, nor have I yet informed them of my marriage."

The Ainley home is a pretty cottage at the Mamaroneck address given. Senor Calderon declined to permit an interview with his wife, although it was she who received the reporter at the door, then hurriedly disappeared. Her father is said to have been engaged in the cigar business in New Rochelle.

Sixty Years Old

At Port Chester, Town Clerk Stevens said:

"I was called on the phone from Mamaroneck last Friday afternoon by Father Meister, who said Senor Calderon and Miss Ainley, both of whom he knew, desired to obtain a marriage license, but wanted as little publicity as possible. It was arranged that the couple should come over by trolley after 6 o'clock, which they did, and after answering satisfactorily all the questions asked, were given the license."

"Senor Calderon gave his occupation as that of a professor, his place of birth as Peru, South America, and his present residence Washington. He certified that he was sixty years of age. Miss Ainley said she was forty, her place of birth England, and her residence Mamaroneck, New York."

A record of the marriage ceremony was found in the Holy Trinity church, as given.

GIRL CASHIER

TO BECOME BRIDE OF A MILLIONAIRE

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 6.—For the third time, Judge E. P. Hill, millionaire and former counsel of the Southern Pacific Railroad company, will enter matrimony, his bride being Miss Aloia Allen, until a few days ago one of the cashiers of the St. Anthony hotel here.

The romance had its inception in the hotel, Judge Hill being the first guest when it opened a year and half ago. Miss Allen is witty and is gifted with a striking vocabulary. She made a rapid conquest of the elderly judge, who only recently obtained a divorce from his second wife. His first wife is dead.

Not until Miss Allen left San Antonio a week or so ago was there an intimation of the coming marriage. Miss Allen, and her companion, Mrs. H. D. Matthews, had apartments at the King Edward hotel in New York, and it is understood Judge Hill will also be registered there. Their honeymoon will be at the Hotel Knickerbocker, followed by a trip through Europe.

Judge Hill possesses immense land holdings in Texas besides having a large sum of available cash.

In granting his second wife a divorce he also gave her a certified check for $200,000. Miss Allen came here from Chicago. She was employed in the Auditorium hotel there. She is a native of New York.

MARILLA M. RICKER, CANDIDATE FOR GOV. OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

MISS MARILLA M. RICKER

CONCORD, N. H., July 6.—Marilla M. Ricker of Dover is planning to be the next governor of her home state. She filed a formal application with the secretary of state, accompanied by a check for $100, which is necessary to enter her name as a candidate under the new state primary law, to be tried for the first time this fall. The check was forwarded through Mrs. Ricker's local attorney and is to be followed at once by a declaration of platform. Mrs.

Ricker has just returned from San Jose, Cal., where she spent the winter and spring. She was the first woman to seek a diplomatic post. She sent her application with strong endorsements to President McKinley for the post of minister to Colombia. She was the first woman lawyer to be admitted to the bars of the District of Columbia and of New Hampshire and was associate counsel with the late Colonel Ingersoll in the star route trials.

GOV. DICKERSON

Will Not Stop Boxing Bouts

RENO, Nev., July 6.—Governor Dickerson was given out the following statement respecting the Jeffries-Johnson fight, at which he was a spectator:

"I do not at all regret that the fight was pulled off in Nevada. It was a clean fight and Tex Rickard's assurances to me personally were made perfectly good. I am in favor of always of just as long as the game is played clean and square as this was. There is absolutely no warrant, in my judgment, for the protests that have been made against it. The fight in Reno demonstrated fully that there was nothing about it but what was proper for any state to permit."

"The spirit of fair play had a strong hold on the thousands of people who witnessed it, of whom I was one, and that fact was made evident as the crowd was overwhelmingly for Jeffries, but when the black man demonstrated his complete superiority in every way and won the battle of thinking, seeing and acting simultaneously, as the result of great mentality, speed and vitality no demonstration of reproach or insult was offered in any manner."

"The character of the men composing that crowd was not made up largely of the rowdy or thug element as many would lead one to believe is always the case at such events, but of business and prominent men. Of my own personal knowledge, the holding of this event in Nevada was beneficial rather than injurious, notwithstanding the natural advantages of this state with its undeveloped wealth, familiar to many who otherwise would not have heard of the state. I am well pleased with the intelligent manner in which the tremendous crowd was handled and treated by the people of Reno, and I have heard only expressions of good will for the city on all sides."

"I will further state that as the law licenses glove contests I will not attempt to interfere with such events in any manner in the future."

WOMAN KILLED

When an Auto Turned Turtle

GREAT BARRINGTON, July 6.—Mrs. Benjamin F. Stahl, wife of Dr. Benjamin F. Stahl, a prominent Philadelphia physician, was instantly killed when an automobile operated by her husband turned turtle at the foot of a steep hill in Hillsdale, N. H., eight miles from Great Barrington, yesterday. Dr. Stahl was badly but not fatally injured and J. Watson Dalmar of Washington, D. C., a nephew of Mrs. Stahl, who was also in the car at the time, escaped with only a few bruises.

The party was on the way to Bangley lakes, Maine, where they were to pass the summer, and were making the trip by automobile. They had just reached the top of a steep hill in Hillsdale and Dr. Stahl, who was driving, stopped to change the gears before making the descent. When he started up again the brakes refused to work and the machine started down the hill uncontrolled. It had gone about half way when it struck a rough place in the road and a moment later was upside down by the roadside. Mrs. Stahl landed on her head and was instantly killed, the others being thrown some distance away and landed in the soft dirt.

The body of the dead woman was brought here yesterday and today will be taken to Philadelphia. Later it will be buried in Washington.

Mrs. Stahl was 42 years of age, and was the daughter of the late Maj. F. Melbourne Watson of Catskill, N. Y., and a grand-daughter of the late Judge Watson of the supreme court of New York.

WANTS DIVORCE

POLITICIAN SEEKS SEPARATION FROM HIS WIFE

NEW YORK, July 6.—Norton Chase, who was state senator from Albany county and democratic candidate for attorney general in 1895, and is now a law partner of D. Cady Herrick, has brought suit for divorce from his wife, who was Mabel L. James, of Williams-town, Mass. They were married in 1887, but have been living apart for several years. Mr. Chase accused his wife of misconduct at the apartment on April 27 last and she has replied with countercharges.

Mrs. Chase asked Supreme Court Justice Page today to grant $50 a week alimony and $500 counsel fee. The court reserved decision.

BOSTON, July 6.—Unaware that there was any one in the bottom of the elevator well, Edward Matthews allowed the car he was operating, in the Exchange club on Milk street in this city today, to descend rapidly from the fifth story to the basement, which resulted in crushing his best friend, Frank O'Neil, to death. O'Neil was employed by the club as an elevator boy and had evidently left his elevator and lowered himself into the pit to oil the mechanism. He was 30 years of age and lived in Somerville. He was the only means of support of an aged widowed mother.

A RUNNING FIGHT

Between Police and Safe Crackers in New York

NEW YORK, July 6.—After a running fight between safe crackers and police in Harlem today in which about thirty shots were exchanged, the police, facing a rain of bullets, ran one fugitive up an elevated railroad stairway and captured him after a desperate hand-to-hand encounter. The second man bolted into a tenement house and disappeared.

The burglars were found by Zenario Di Angilio, proprietor of a first Avenue cafe, drilling holes in a safe in which Di Angilio for the last month has kept from $6000 to $7000 belonging to Italian societies. As they dashed out of the place they opened fire. Di Angilio though the bullets whistled close to him was not injured, and yelled for the police. Three officers responded and the chase through the streets with a running exchange of shots began and continued for several blocks, arousing the entire neighborhood.

Policeman Albinger finally cornered a man who gave his name as Frank Ricci on the "L" stairway. The man seized the officer by the throat and almost choked him into unconsciousness before his brother officers reached his side and subdued the man. He denied being a professional burglar and said he did not know the name of the man who escaped.

A hit of burglars' tools of the finest quality was found beside the store safe, the contents of which had not been disturbed.

LEADER BARNES

WILL FIGHT TAFT AND COLONEL ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, July 6.—William Barnes, Jr., republican leader of Albany county, held a conference yesterday with State Chairman Woodruff. Mr. Barnes sails for Europe today. After the conference he said:

"There's just one thing I care to say. These republicans who fought against direct nominations to preserve a stable form of popular government will continue that fight. We are against direct nominations and their off-shoots the initiative and referendum, the recall and any other schemes for destroying representative government. We are against them to the end."

"Does this mean that there will be a fight against Taft and Roosevelt for the control of the state convention on that issue?" was asked.

"There's no fight on person or personalities in this," answered Mr. Barnes.

AEROPLANE FLIGHT

NEW YORK, July 6.—Clear weather and listless breezes this morning promised excellent weather conditions for Clifford B. Hammon's twenty-six mile aeroplane flight from Garden City, L. I., across Long Island sound to Greenwich, Conn., landing on an island in front of the country place of his father-in-law, Commodore F. C. Benedict. Hammon has been fitted on his biplane and inner tubes of automobile tires will be fitted on the tail of his machine to keep him afloat in case he has to land on the water.

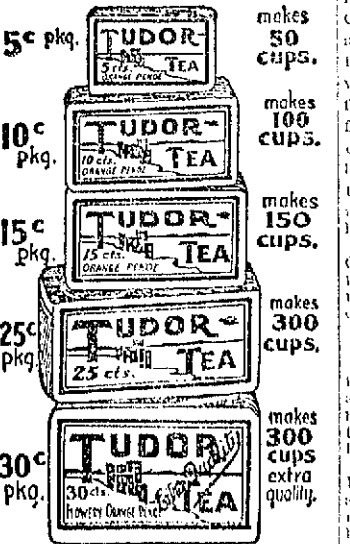

He expects to go into the air at Garden City and follow the shore line up to Roslyn, where he will strike directly across the sound towards his destination.

NO CORPORATION FUNDS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 6.—The finance committee of the republican state committee at its first campaign meeting has declined not to accept contributions to the republican campaign fund from corporations.

"We realize," said State Chairman Lee, "that the question of funds is a serious one. We do not expect to raise a large fund. In fact, we do not believe it will take a large amount of money to run the campaign. The state committee this year started even, and it hopes by economy to break even at the end."

$400,000 Reported Missing

EXTRA A BRISK FIRE

BONDS WORTH $400,000 Broke Out in Tenement Building

Alleged To Have Disappeared and Grand Jury May Investigate

NEW YORK, July 6.—Following a conference between District Attorney Whitman and former Justice Keener, counsel for the Carnegie Trust Co., it was reported today that the grand jury was investigating the alleged disappearance of $400,000 worth of bonds deposited with the company as security for a loan. While District Attorney Whitman admitted that an investigation was in progress, Moses H. Grossman, of counsel for the Carnegie company, stamped the story as untrue. Mr. Grossman said:

"Over a year ago when the late Charles Coulter Dickinson was president of the company a loan of $67,000 was made to Charles W. Chapman, who gave his note, endorsed by C. M. Sexton, and as collateral pledged $300,000 of Titusville Northern Railway company bonds, together with $50,000 in other securities.

"This loan was reduced by payments to $58,119, and later a Mr. Charles Wellborn gave his note and further bonds of the Titusville company as security for the Chapman loan.

"We couldn't get the money from Mr. Chapman and sued. The bonds are here and all the collateral and when the money is paid we'll turn it over. Mr. Wellborn is doubtless sorry for going to the aid of Mr. Chapman, but that is not our affair."

In Lincoln Street

The "breaking down" of the fire alarm box numbered 338, located at the corner of London and Autumn streets shortly before noon today when a fire broke out in a three story tenement building owned by James P. Robinson in Lincoln street, put the fire alarm telegraph system on the rampage and pieces of apparatus of the department were going here, there and everywhere, but fortunately the apparatus which responds to the alarm from box 338 waited for the telephone alarm and was able to reach the scene of fire almost as soon as though the system was in order.

Several seconds before the bell alarm was sent in a telephone alarm was sounded and the apparatus which responds to that box, with the exception of the automobile fire patrol, got the alarm straight and went to the scene of the fire. The protective company was receiving the telephone alarm when the bell sounded and as is natural the man who was answering the telephone dropped the receiver when he heard the sound of the bell.

There was but one blow of the bell signal, then an intermission of probably 17 seconds, and then the indicators showed "7" and the automobile patrol made its way to the corner of Dutton and Market streets, as did all other pieces of apparatus which respond to box seven.

Chief Hosmer was at city hall at the time and he made his way to the corner of Dutton and Market streets and finding that the box located there had not been opened he phoned and learned that the fire was in Lincoln street and after despatching the auto to the scene of the fire, followed in his wagon.

Considerable damage was done before the fire was placed under control. The blaze was caused by a spark from a chimney on an adjoining roof. Owing to the fact that a new roof had been placed on top of an old one the fire was difficult to fight. The blaze worked its way between the new and old roofs and while three lines of hose were playing on the top of the roof, the chemical line and extinguishers were at work on the inside of the top story of the house.

The fire was so hard to battle with that it was necessary to cut away a portion of the roof. The principal damage will be by water.

AN AUTO PATROL

The Police Board Wants One For The Department

The members of the board of police, Supt. Welch of the police department and Peter A. Mackenzie, chief of the supply department, met in conference today at the office of the police board for the purpose of considering the advisability of purchasing an automobile patrol for the police department, and at the conclusion of the meeting it was the unanimous opinion that for the protection of the people and in order to facilitate matters in the department it would be advisable to purchase a self-propelled machine. Before the meeting was adjourned a requisition for the purchase of an automobile police patrol was filed at the office of the purchasing agent at city hall.

It is expected that the machine will cost in the vicinity of $5500, but the members of the board are of the opinion that it will pay for itself in a very short period.

Supt. Welch has advocated the automobile patrol for several years and though his efforts to entice the board of police went for naught because of the cry that the city was too poor to invest much money, when the shooting up in Lynn occurred a week ago Saturday the superintendent decided that a thing ever occurred in Lowell the local police would not be able to cope with the criminals because it would have to depend upon horse drawn vehicles.

Daring breaks have occurred in this vicinity, some yeggmen visited here a year or more ago and when the police, under ex-Supt. Moffatt went to round them up the patrolmen and inspectors had to be carried to the scene in the covered patrol, which is a heavy wagon drawn by a pair of horses which get tired after going a mile or so.

In conversation with a representative of The Sun this afternoon one of the members of the police board had the following to say: "The board was unanimous in voting to send a requisition to the purchasing agent's office for an automobile patrol and while some people may think that it is a luxury, I don't think so; I feel it is a necessity. The horse drawn patrol wagon which the department is using at the present time is one of those ancient and heavy affairs. Even though there are two horses attached to it, the vehicle is so heavy that after making several trips the horses are 'all in'."

"On various occasions, especially on Saturdays and Sundays, when there are the most number of arrests, the wagon has got to go to different parts of the city. In many instances we have heard of patrolmen holding prisoners up against a box for fully 20 minutes waiting for the wagon to arrive, because there were one or more previous calls sent in."

"The principal reason for my advocating the automobile, however, is in a case of emergency. Supposing that we had a shooting affray in Lowell like there was in Lynn a couple of weeks ago where would we be? The news might reach the station in time but how would we send patrolmen to the scene of the shooting? They would have to go in the horse drawn wagon we have at the present time and before we got half way to the location the desperadoes would be gone. With the automobile patrol it would be different. Something, for instance, might occur in the outlying district. Word would be sent to the police station. The patrol is ready in an instant, patrolmen and officers are ready, the riot guns are awaiting and men with the guns pile into the auto and are whizzed to the scene. Undoubtedly the desperadoes may have left the scene and are making their way along the country roads in order to escape. With the auto, which never gets tired, the men could be run down; but when it comes to trying to follow desperadoes in a heavy patrol wagon, or even a light carriage, it is out of the question."

A member of the board of police, the purchasing agent and the superintendent will within the course of a few weeks visit Springfield, Hartford and New York for the purpose of inspecting the various police patrols which are manufactured.

One of the features of the proposed auto for this city is that it will be a combination ambulance, equipped with blankets, everything that is useful for the first aid to the injured, surgical instruments, etc.

He was on the track in trial practice when the car, a National, ran off the high embankment on the southeast corner of the course. He was caught beneath the wreck.

JUSTICE MOODY May Not Resign His Position After All

MAGNOLIA, July 6.—Friends of Associate Justice William H. Moody of the United States supreme court still hold to the opinion that he will not resign at present and some of them go so far as to say that he will not accept the provisions of his retirement act. No statement direct from Justice Moody can be obtained, as his illness forbids the approach of interviewers and excuses him from answering any question bearing upon his condition or his feelings in the matter. Even written communications are returned without comment or reply.

Those few friends who have seen him recently state that his health seems slightly improved and that he holds strongly to the belief in his ultimate recovery and resumption of his seat on the supreme bench. Ever since he was taken ill with rheumatism many months ago he has held this belief, and so long as he continues to show improvement however slight, his friends do not expect that he will take advantage of the act whose provisions expire in a trifle over four months.

SUIT ENTERED FOR RECOVERY OF MONEY FOR CARE OF BABY

The question, "Who is going to pay for the care of the baby?" was discussed at considerable length in the civil session of the police court this afternoon when the case of Ellen B. Tsafaras vs. Anastasios Kratemonos, alias and trustee, an action of contract, was called for trial. A. O. Hamel appeared for the plaintiff and the defendant was represented by D. J. Donahue.

The plaintiff in her declaration alleges that she cared for the defendant's child for 50 weeks and per contract she was to receive $2 per week. The bill amounted to $100, but the defendant, so says the declaration, paid the board for one week, leaving the liability $93.

CHARITY BOARD

Is In Favor of Discouraging Cash Allowances

At a meeting that did not adjourn until well after midnight, last night, the board of charities decided to take no action relative to the payment of $4,500.92 due the commonwealth for the care of the feeble minded, as the bill had not been contracted by the present board.

The board went on record as being desirous of discouraging cash allowances and payment of rents.

The board received a small sized check when it was announced that bills amounting to several hundred dollars were before the meeting which should have been presented by the former superintendent, Solomon Mayberry, during the first three months of the year.

The board voted to invite the proprietors of the local papers to visit the Chelmsford Street hospital and see for themselves what is being done up there.

The board approved a big grist of bills and discussed improvements for the departments.

The board attended the band concert and entertainment at the city farm on the afternoon of July 4 and the board last night tendered a vote of thanks to Supt. Martin J. Conley, Mrs. Conley, attendants and nurses for making so grand a success of the entertainment.

A communication was received from the state board of charities recommending again the urgent sanitary necessity of a change in the women's dining room and also improved conditions in the men's dormitory. The state board strongly recommended that the 23 double beds used on the upper floor of the men's hospital be dispensed with and that single beds be installed in their stead.

The secretary was instructed to acknowledge the communication and to state that the delay in the change in the dining room has been due to the failure of the city government to make the necessary appropriation and now that the necessary appropriation has been granted the improvements are being made.

It was also voted to inform the state board that the changes recommended in the dormitory of the men's hospital will be made at once. The secretary was instructed to inform the state board that the local board would be pleased to welcome any further suggestions for the improvement of conditions at the Chelmsford street hospital, as the local board is desirous of increasing the efficiency of the hospital in order that the best care and service may be rendered those who are being cared for at that institution.

There was some surprise over the reception of these bills as the chairman had asked Supt. Mayberry at each meeting if all bills of the department were in and Mr. Mayberry invariably replied affirmatively.

One case of cash allowance was granted and another refused. The board is desirous of discouraging cash allowances and payment of rents.

Among the large bills before the board was one of over $1100 for payment of a carload of flour recently purchased. Several bills were received from the superintendent of cemeteries for the burial of Lowell's poor. The board flatly ignored these bills as it had never been the custom of the board of charities to pay a cemetery department for the opening of graves in "Potter's field," at the Edison cemetery.

Another duplicate bill of $4,288.92 due the commonwealth for the care of feeble minded was received and the board decided to take no action as the bill had not been contracted by the present board. The board maintains that it cannot be clear to pay the bill out of its regular appropriation.

Adjourned.

would like to find him and hear his story.

Here is a boy of 12 years who dropped out of sight without leaving the slightest indication of what has happened him.

If he were going away anywhere he would manage to put on his best clothing but he didn't. The fate of little John Sullivan promises to be as mysterious as that of Arthur Dent, who left his mother's knee in all the mirth of playful boyhood and was never seen or heard of again.

Did the sullen waters of the canal take him in and carry him to the river whence his body might be taken downstream to the ocean or lodged in sand or mud on the bottom? Or did some Gypsy queen meet the little Dent boy and take him off to be reared in the ever shifting camps? Who knows? As difficult is it to tell what happened little John Sullivan, but his friends have not yet given up hope of finding him. The picture herewith is from a photo taken two years ago.

NICARAGUAN TROUBLE

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Manifesting an earnest desire that the Nicaraguan troubles be terminated as speedily as possible, there has been an important exchange of views between the United States and Mexico. This information was given out at the state department today and the communications were described as most cordial and inspired by the best of friendly relations.

The department is said to possess no knowledge of the reported growth of an anti-American feeling in Central American countries and of the appeal by them to Mexico and Argentina to intervene.

RACED AN AUTO RATTLESNAKE SEEMED ABOUT TO PUNCTURE A TIRE

DOVER, N. J., July 6.—The first rattlesnake of the season to make a public appearance in Sussex county was seen by the roadside near Dover's Lake yesterday, according to Henry Dehler and Abram D. Cooper of this place, while they were whizzing by in an automobile.

Dehler says the snake acted just as if it were jealous of the automobile's whirr and slipped out into the roadway to show how much better it could do it. It was six feet long and had nineteen rattles and a button. Cooper, who was at the tiller, thought at first that he would just keep on and let somebody else kill the reptile, but it seemed so anxious to let the auto at noise, speed or light, that Cooper decided to accommodate it after it had glided along the roadside keeping pace for about twenty feet. He happened to have a long switch in the car and he armed himself with it, taking the precaution after stopping the car to dismount on the far side.

As he stole around the back the huge snake was coiling and preparing to strike the front tire as if to puncture it. Just as it drew back its head Cooper swung the switch and caught it back of the neck. It went down for the count.

The two negroes plunged in with their clothing on and towed the drowning man to a boat.

ARGENTINE BOY

LEFT SCHOOL TO SEEK A SHIP FOR HOME

NEW YORK, July 6.—A dark-skinned boy of about 15 stopped a policeman in Catherine street last night and asked where he could find a ship for the Argentine Republic. Then he became reticent about himself and the policeman suggested a walk to the Madison street station. The boy went under protest.

On the desk lay a copy of a telegram sent on Monday from Randolph, N. Y., describing an Argentine student who had disappeared from Chamberlain's Military Institute last Friday. Major Campbell, the principal, had wired the police to keep the boy if he turned up.

"Aren't you Roberto Justo from Buenos Ayres?" asked the lieutenant.

"That's my name," answered the boy.

"How did you know the telegram and he told them that he had grown homesick at the school and wanted to see his family. He changed his uniform for ordinary clothes and shipped away. The first train that came along took him to some town in Massachusetts. He couldn't recall the name. By that time his money was running low, so he struck up an acquaintance with a freight conductor, who let him ride in the caboose. He liked the sensation of travel and didn't take account of distances or places until he came into Jersey City on Monday morning.

That day he spent looking for a ship to the Argentine Republic, but he could not seem to find one and he was afraid to ask questions. He had money enough to stay at a hotel Monday night and he still had $1. He was sent to the Gerry society for safe keeping and the principal was notified. The young man did not like the idea of going to an institution when he had money in his pockets.

SON THOUGHT DEAD

GAVE HIS PARENTS A GREAT SURPRISE

OMAHA, July 6.—While the parents of James Shea of Omaha, who was reported killed at Cornell, N. Y., on Saturday, were awaiting the arrival of his body Shea himself walked into the house, alive and well.

On the same train which brought Shea home came the body of the man who had been identified at Cornell as Shea. The body of the unknown unless identified promptly will be given burial by the Shea family.

Shea was in Cornell on a vacation. Saturday an undertaker in that city telegraphed Shea's parents that the young man had been killed. The Sheas telegraphed funds for the transportation of his body. The family are at a loss to account for the mistake.

High Cost of Living Contest

Madam—you try to serve palatable, satisfying meals and probably you often think marketing is very expensive. We've thought about the high cost of living also. We are interested to know just how good a dinner—costing fifty cents—can be served to five people.

To the housewife who submits in writing the best menu for a 50c. dinner sufficient for a family of five persons, we will present the choice of a

BARSTOW RANGE ABSOLUTELY FREE

This contest closes June 15, 1910. There are no coupons to save or cut out. Just write one menu or several—on one side of any kind of paper, hand to any BARSTOW STOVE dealer or mail to "Range Contest Department," BARSTOW STOVE COMPANY, Providence, R. I.

This contest will be decided strictly on its merits by the following committee which has consented to judge for us: Mr. M. H. Reidy, Business Manager of The Lowell "Sun"; Mr. John P. Carley, of the John Street Public Market; and Mr. D. L. Page of the D. L. Page Co.

Don't forget to put your name and address on each menu you send and remember that each dish you name must be figured at the actual market cost of food.

Learn what a splendid range you can compete for, by stepping into a BARSTOW STOVE Dealer's and asking to see it.

BARSTOW RANGES possess every improvement worthy of use in a range and many special time and labor-saving features found in no other ranges.

We will award a combination range with gas oven and gas shelf for use with or without coal fire.

It has two heat indicators, sectional covers, towel dryer, oven food rack, simmering cover; nickel parts detach quickly when polishing.

Like all BARSTOW RANGES, it will cook a 50c. or $50 dinner with two-thirds the fuel required by other makes.

6 O'CLOCK MAN FINED $14

He Was Charged With Carrying a Dangerous Weapon

Tony Pasqua, a middle aged man who came from the southern part of Italy, appeared in the dock in police court this morning in negligee attire. He was charged with drunkenness and being armed with a dangerous weapon, a knife. He admitted that he had the knife in his possession but denied that he was drunk.

According to the story told in court, Tony made a tour of inspection of several saloons last night and after taking samples from several places went to his home in Hudson street, but the heat in the house was so intense that he retired to the middle of the street where he became very noisy and disturbed the slumbers of the residents of that vicinity who retired before 11 o'clock.

Patrolman Garrity was attracted to the scene by the sound of Tony's voice and though he tried to have the obnoxious person go into the house and retire for the night, Tony informed the officer that he was in a free country and privileged to do as he pleased. The patrolman, however, did not agree with Pasqua and placed the latter under arrest.

When booked at the police station it was found that Tony was armed with a very dangerous sharp edged dirk, and when this weapon was brought to light the complaint of carrying a dangerous weapon was added to that of drunkenness.

In court this morning the prisoner said that he did not intend to use the knife on any person, that he carried it in order to cut bread. He denied that he was drunk.

The court, however, found him guilty on both complaints and ordered him to pay a fine of $14 for carrying the knife and $1 for getting drunk.

Viola Cronin, who was arrested for drunkenness last week and sent to the city farm in order that she might be examined as to her sanity and who subsequently escaped from the farm and paraded through the South common Saturday night in male attire, was in court this morning.

When placed under arrest last week her condition was such that the court decided that a little vacation would do her a great deal of good. She was sent to the farm and Saturday night she managed to confiscate a pair of overalls and a cap, and taking French leave started cityward. The noise on the midway on the South common attracted her attention and she hid herself in that direction. She had been at large but a short time when one of the patrolmen on duty recognized her and sent her to the police station. She was then returned to the farm and yesterday examined by Dr. Benner and Dr. Schenck. The alienists decided that she could not be committed to an asylum for the insane. She belongs in New Hampshire and when she promised that she would return to her home the case of Jan Ferri, charged with assault and battery on Jan Brach on July 2, was continued till Friday morning by agreement of counsel, Messrs. Hennessy and O'Connor.

Drunken Offenders
Frank McLaughlin, charged with being drunk, was fined $8 and given one month in which to pay the fine.

John Boyle and Michael Sullivan were fined $6 each and two first offenders were taxed $2 each.

Used a Washboard
Tony Furson and John Nowack got into a mixup in their boarding house a week ago yesterday and just for that Tony had John arrested and the latter appeared in court this morning and entered a plea of not guilty to a complaint charging him with assault and battery.

While the two men were eating dinner on the day of the assault, it is alleged that John called Tony some vile names and Tony pushed his words around, whereupon John picked up a washboard and struck Furson over the face with it. The court found Nowack guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $5.

J. Joseph Hennessy appeared for the government, and D. J. Donahue for the defense.

FOUR MEN RESCUED

Had Taken Boat From Sinking Schooner

NEW YORK, July 6.—Four men in a boat, survivors of the wreck of the two-masted schooner Garfield White, which sank seven miles east of the Ambrose channel lightship, were rescued today by the men of the Rockaway beach life saving station. The four men, who had drifted about all night in their small craft, were exhausted that they had been put in shape by physicians.

Captain E. G. Morrison of the schooner said that his vessel sprung a leak amidships shortly after sailing yesterday from Perth Amboy for Nova Scotia with 178 tons of coal. The pumps failed to keep up with the inflow and the vessel began to settle. The two sailors and the cabin boy, comprising the entire crew, put off in the ship's boat and stood by Capt. Morrison who stood on the mainmast. When the schooner's stern plunged downward the captain jumped overboard and the boat picked him up. The little craft had a hard time of it in the heavy sea trying to maintain a course for Rockaway beach off which the life savers finally picked up the quartet this morning.

WILD WEST SHOW

JOSEPH C. MILLER, PRESIDENT OF THE 101 RANCH.

"101 Ranch" Gives a Fine Street Parade

Miller Bros.' great Wild West and Indian Show, 101 Ranch, a mammoth aggregation of frontiersmen, women and animals, direct from the real 101 Ranch of the three Miller Bros., in Oklahoma, arrived in town early this morning for two big performances and a street parade.

The 101 Ranch show is distinctively a Wild West show with the exception of a few Cossacks everybody and everything connected with it has been taken from Oklahoma and it has an added value along with its spectacular feature in that it depicts life on the plains that is historically correct.

The big show landed in about three o'clock this morning. It was the original intention of the promoters to show on the Lakewood avenue grounds on account of some difficulty in securing the Fair grounds. It was discovered that the Lakewood avenue grounds were too small for a show of this magnitude and hence at the last moment it was decided to set up the arena on the Fair grounds.

Along about three o'clock this morning two long trains of 20 high, bright red cars, each with the 101 Ranch, Real Wild West Show on their sides, rolled into town, and hundreds of beautiful horses and crowds of Cossacks, cowboys, Mexicans, Indians, Cossacks, lariats throwers, squaws, passers and a hundred and one other types of humanity emerged.

Once on the grounds, it took this wonderful organization less than ten minutes to saddle the 600 riding horses and hitch up the draught stock to the big wagons, and consequently the entire show was on its way to the arena by 4 o'clock. As early as eight o'clock the balloons and souvenir men, those inevitable features of the circus and Wild West show, were down town catching the early arrivals.

The crowds began to assemble early and shortly before ten o'clock all the downtown streets were packed with people.

Shortly after ten o'clock with the blast of trumpets and the playing of a rapid march band announced the coming of the great street parade. The parade was led by Mr. Joseph C. Miller, president of the 101 Ranch, riding his famous coal black stallion, the $10,000 beauty, Chester, universally admitted to be the handsomest horse in the world.

The parade was about a mile in length and every performer of the spectacular feats of daring and skill which make up the performance was in line, while four bands and a steam callopie furnished music.

The company advertised that it carried 1000 people and of that number nearly all appeared in the parade which was unusually long though it moved along without delay. Yes, there was the old Deadwood coach and who was in it but an old friend, Pete McCall, America's champion swimmer and prize agent, Pete has put on some flesh since his last appearance here with the Barnum show but is as genial and as lively as ever. A feature of the parade was the large number of women in line, all in the picturesque costume of the borderland and all riding bronchos "just like a man."

The parade was a fine one and the public of comfort while in attendance. Upon arrival at the grounds after the parade a fine out door show was given for an hour. The big shows are given at 2 and 4 o'clock in an arena with only the "blue canopy of heaven" for a roof, thus assuring the public of comfort while in attendance.

James Holland, a middle aged man who had accumulated a good supply of wet goods, walked into the police station last night in order to make a complaint against an unknown man who he alleged assaulted him. That Holland had either been assaulted or had fallen heavily was evident, for his nose was fractured in two places and the blood was flowing freely from the nasal organ.

He was booked for drunkenness and later City Physician Smith was called to attend him. This morning the man was released on condition that he go to the state infirmary at Tewksbury for further treatment.

PERSONALS
Dr. John C. Gatsopoulos sailed yesterday on the Ivernia for London, Paris and Berlin.

RESCUED A WOMAN

Officer Sheridan Found Woman on Point of Suffocation

The presence of mind, the quick and effective work of Patrolman Gilbert Sheridan last night resulted in his saving the life of Julia Regan, an elderly woman, who but for him would have been suffocated at the fire which broke out in a house in South street. The fire was in a building at 130 South street, occupied by F. E. Donnelly and family. The blaze had its origin in a sleeping room on the second floor and, owing to the fact that there was no one in the room, the blaze was not discovered until the smoke started to make its way through the house to the rooms on the lower floor. One of the members of the household rushed upstairs and found that the bed in the room was ablaze. Several of the occupants of the house ran into the street and Patrolman Sheridan, who was close by, realizing that something was wrong, rushed to the house and seeing the smoke pouring from the windows sent a man to pull in an alarm from box 24 at the corner of Middlesex and South streets. Patrolman Sheridan then entered the house for the purpose of assisting the other occupants to escape. Someone informed the officer that a woman who occupied the room directly above the one in which the fire started had not been accounted for and he immediately made for the top floor and there found Julia Regan apparently unable to find her way out because of the smoke. The officer picked her up and carried her to a house nearby.

HURT WHEN HORSE HE RODE BOLTED

NEW YORK, July 6.—Clarence Grant, a colored jockey employed by Joseph Pollard of 155 East 35th street, was riding Sunshine, one of Pollard's race horses up to 35th street from the East 23rd street ferry yesterday when at 2d avenue and 26th street a gang of white boys commenced to throw bottles at Grant. One of the missiles hit Sunshine and the horse reared, partly unseating his rider. Grant's foot was caught in the stirrup and the frightened horse bolted up the street to 2d avenue with the jockey bumping alongside. At 3rd avenue an ice wagon got in the way and stopped Sunshine. Grant was badly bruised and cut, but he rode to Pollard's home, where he was attended by a doctor. None of the gang was arrested.

THE GYPSY MOTH
ALBANY, N. Y., July 6.—Commis-sioner R. A. Pearson of the state department of agriculture announced today that he has just completed arrangements with Secretary of Agriculture Wilson at Washington for two "scouts" trained in searching for gypsy and brown-tail moths to assist in efforts being made by the state department to prevent the entrance of these pests into New York state from New England.

Already these pests have been found in several points in New York state but in each instance agents of the state department of agriculture have carried out such strict measures as to practically eradicate them.

NO PICTURE SHOW
PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 6.—No exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures will be allowed in Providence. Chairman William H. Luther of the board of police commissioners stated today that the rules made about three years ago against moving pictures of this character will be rigidly enforced.

FINE IS $500
PORTLAND, Me., July 6.—The exhibition of prize fight pictures in Maine is prohibited by a law passed by the legislature in 1897. Section 17 of Chapter 125 of the revised statutes reads: "Whoever publicly exhibits any photographic or other reproduction of a prize fight shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500."

MONUMENT DEDICATED
PARIS, July 6.—A colossal monument to Waldeck-Rousseau, former premier of France, erected in the Tuilleries Gardens by public subscription, was dedicated with imposing ceremonies today. President Fallieres, Prime Minister Briand and Minister of Public Works and Posts Millerand made speeches.

PEACE IN PANAMA
WASHINGTON, July 6.—The president of Panama, in an autograph letter addressed to President Taft, announces that the conditions now existing in the Panama republic are satisfactory. Some excitement had been feared as an outgrowth of the recent elections.

THE PARK BOARD

Receives Letter From Mayor About Trees on Common

Mayor Meehan has sent the following communication to the park commissioners:

Gentlemen: In view of the deplorable accident on the North common on Saturday, caused as you are aware, by the sudden fall of a limb from an elm tree; and in view of the fact that during the ball game on the North common Monday, another large elm bough fell to the ground, but happily without injuring anybody, I would therefore respectfully call your attention to the urgent necessity of prompt precautionary measures to prevent the possibility of any such accidents in the future. I admit that it is difficult to explain the cause of the sudden snapping of any large limb of a tree in calm weather, but healthy and unscarred trees do not fall apart and, hence, the presumption is that these limbs, have been damaged either by lightning or in some other way so that they were unable to bear their own weight. Let it be remembered that when the outer surface of an overhanging bough is cut through, especially on the upper side, that bough is not in condition to stand the stress of high wind or storm.

Hence I would request that you cause to be made a general inspection of all the trees on public parks and streets in order to see that every branch damaged or in the slightest degree likely to break off shall be taken down. I earnestly request that you will give this matter your immediate attention. Yours very respectfully,
John P. Meehan, Mayor.

Two of Them Dismissed From the Force

BOSTON, July 6.—Patrolman Thomas McTigue and Reserveman Patrick Capstick of division 4 were yesterday dismissed from the police force as a result of charges arising out of an alleged assault committed in the cellar of station 4 on a Somerset street star who was arrested for intoxication, some time ago.

Two charges were heard against each policeman by a trial board consisting of Captains Hanley, Peabody and Harriman. The men pleaded not guilty and their cases were heard on the trial board both officers are dismissed from the force on the charges alleging untruthfulness.

Chances for Local Concerns to Bid

See, Murphy of the board of trade yesterday received his occasional list of requisitions from the bureau of supplies calling for bids for supplies for the different navy yards and containing in this particular instance notices of prospective purchases near home. Under requisition 2884 the Boston navy yard requires 2800 pounds of miscellaneous solder and 30,000 pounds of sheet boiler steel. Under requisition 2885, 450 dozen memorandum pads are called for, and under requisition 2888, 880 reams of typewriter paper and miscellaneous stationery are called for. The bids must be in by July 15th. Any information relative to them will be furnished upon application to Secretary Murphy.

FATALLY BURNED

MISS PEARSON OF BROCKTON IS DEAD

BROCKTON, July 6.—Miss Lottie Pearson, who was fearfully burned by the explosion of an alcohol flatiron at the residence of Deputy Sheriff Earl P. Blake yesterday, died last evening at the Brockton hospital, never regaining consciousness after she rushed from the house with her clothing in flames.

Miss Pearson was alone in the house at the time, and it is believed she attempted to fill the flatiron with alcohol while it was lighted. Her burns were so severe that hope for her recovery was abandoned from the first.

Miss Pearson was 25 years old and had been employed as a domestic at the Blake home for six years. She has a sister, Miss Anna Pearson, of this city, and a sister and brother in California.

LAWN PARTY

IN AID OF ST. MARY'S CHURCH BEING PLANNED

A big lawn fete in aid of St. Mary's church is being planned for Aug. 25th at Collingsville, which promises to be one of the biggest events of its kind in the history of the diocese.

It is the intention of the promoters to invite Congressman Ames, Mayor Meehan and several other noted men to address the gathering after the fashion of the good old southern barbecues and there will be a big program of sports into the bargain.

Instant Relief for Sore Feet

Sore Feet, Tender Feet and Swollen Feet Cured Every Time. TIZ Makes Sore Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them

Policemen all over the world use TIZ. Policemen stand on their feet all day and know what sore, tender, swollen feet really mean. They use TIZ because TIZ cures them in five minutes. It keeps feet in perfect condition. Read what this policeman has to say: "I was surprised and delighted with TIZ for tender feet. I hardly know how to thank you enough for it. It is superior to powders or plasters. I can keep my feet in perfect condition. Believe, in my earnest gratitude for TIZ. I am a policeman and keep on my feet all day."—Eugene Harrell, Austin, Texas.

You never tried anything like TIZ before for your feet. It is different from anything ever before sold.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous excretions which bring on corns and blisters, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

HENRY C. CLARK DEAD

LEE, July 6.—Henry C. Clark of the firm of H. C. Clark & Son, paper machinery manufacturers, and for 30 years a resident of Pittsfield, is dead at his home here.

Mr. Clark was born 72 years ago in Housatonic. During his residence in Pittsfield he was a senior member in the firm of Clark & Son, paper machinery makers. In 1894 he came to Lee, and in 1900 he was succeeded by his son, Mr. H. C. Clark, Jr. Mr. Clark, being admitted as a partner.

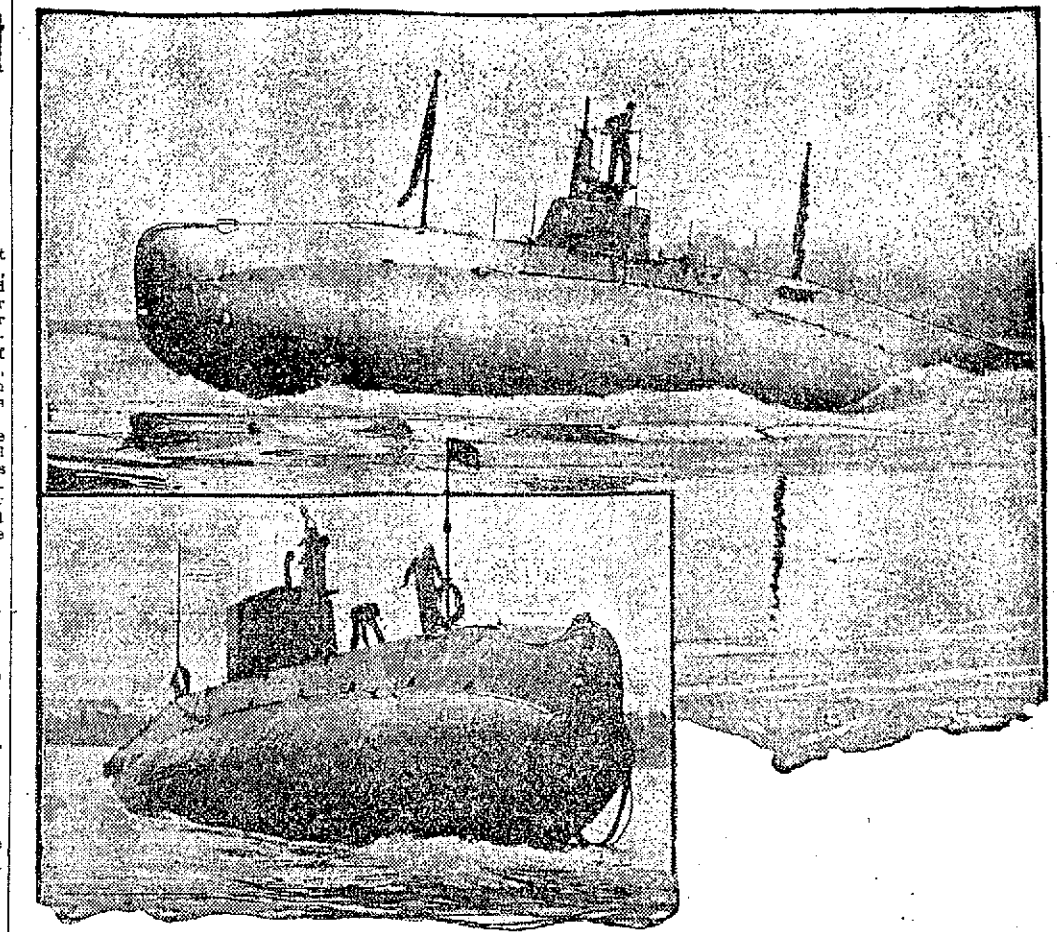

Mr. Clark was a member of Evening Star Lodge of Masons and of the Congregational church in Lee, and a prominent citizen.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. H. C. Clark, and two daughters, Miss May A. Clark and Miss Carrie P. Clark.

A SUPER-DREADNOUGHT

LONDON, July 6.—Brazil has definitely ordered of the Armstrong company a super-dreadnought of 32,000 tons. The armament will consist of twelve 14-inch guns and twenty-eight 6 and 4 inch guns.

SUBMARINE BOAT SALMON OFF ON LONGEST TRIP EVER ATTEMPTED

QUINCY, Mass., July 6.—Naval authorities are waiting with keen interest the result of the trip of the submarine boat Salmon from this city to the Bermuda Islands and return. The Salmon will attempt the longest trip ever made by this class of fighting craft, and in some circles it has been suggested that the trip is a dangerous one. During the past year submarines have met with a number of fatal accidents, with the result that some critics are inclined to say the naval officials are wrong in ordering the Salmon off on such a long trip. The navy officials plan to hasten the Salmon to the Bermuda, leaving Quincy by Saturday, July 9, and back in the shortest possible time, declaring that such a test will be of great value in building other submarines. A number, it is said here, are to be built by the government during the next two years.

FIGHT PICTURES

Endeavorers Want to Stop Them

BOSTON, July 6.—If the plans and hopes of William Shaw, the general secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, do not go awry, the great American public who have been awaiting for the opportunity to see the Jeffries-Johnson fight through the mediumship of the moving picture shows will lose. Secretary Shaw has instituted a campaign that is destined to reach to every corner of the globe, and its watchword is "Bar the Moving Pictures of the Fight."

This is the telegram he has sent out to a great many of the prominent people of this country, as well as to the influential people of other countries: "Race riots and murder already follow the announcement of Johnson's victory. Moving pictures of prize fight will create more violence. Will you join in appeal to authorities, cities and provinces? Help save our young people from these demoralizing shows. Wire answer."

"The time has come," says Secretary Shaw, "for the Christian and moral forces of the country to rise up and demand the suppression of these moving pictures. The city and town authorities have the power to forbid the exhibition of immoral and degrading pictures under penalty of revoking the license. No additional laws are needed. All that is required is an aroused public sentiment that will demand immediate action on the part of the authorities before the floodgates are opened."

Secretary Shaw believes that as the prize fight itself is barred by practically every state in the union, the fight pictures should be outlawed as well, and the campaign he is making and which he is pushing as rapidly as possible has this object in view.

In the communication he is sending out he tells about the work along these lines that is being done in Michigan and Wisconsin, and the sentiment that has already been aroused in other states. He urges that the picture of the prize fight be called immediately to the attention of the authorities before the floodgates are opened.

Baltimore reports last night every effort will be made to prevent the display of films. Cincinnati will refuse permits, Washington police heads favor barring them, while Mayor Gaynor of New York, on the other hand, says they may be shown.

In Johannesburg, South Africa, the bioscope halls have refused offers to exhibit, in the fear of race feeling.

TO STOP FIGHT PICTURES

It will be mailed in plain envelope absolutely free to any woman who will write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass., asking for it.

WILL BAR PICTURES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 6.—There is an ordinance in Los Angeles prohibiting the exhibition of moving pictures which in the opinion of the authorities are subversive of morals or harmful to the young. City Prosecutor Eddy last night said he would invoke the law, if necessary, to prevent the reproduction of the Reno battle on the screens of the moving picture houses in Los Angeles.

Mayor Alexander declined to answer a direct question as to whether he would take action, but added that since the actual fight had been barred from the state, the pictures would certainly meet the same fate.

PROTEST AGAINST PICTURES

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 6.—President M. G. Reynolds of the St. Louis police board announced last night that he would take action today to prevent the exhibition of the Johnson and Jeffries moving pictures in St. Louis. The officers of the Patriotic Independence Day association of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children have entered a formal protest against the display of the picture with the board.

LEADERS ARE PLEASED

BOSTON, July 6.—The officials of the Christian Endeavor society were much pleased today over the result of their movement started here yesterday against the exhibition of the moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight. Urgent telegrams have been sent to all the branch societies throughout the world to continue the agitation against the pictures.

Mayor Fitzgerald of this city, who has the granting of all licenses for exhibitions of this nature, said today that Boston ought to take the lead in banishing the pictures of such contests, and that he did not think that the picture of the fight would be exhibited in this city.

NO FIGHT PICTURES

ATLANTA, Ga., July 6.—The Jeffries-Johnson prize fight pictures will be barred from Atlanta. This announcement was made last night by Mayor Maddox. An ordinance prohibiting the presentation of moving pictures of prize fights will be introduced in city council and is expected to have little opposition.

WILL TAKE NO CHANCES

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 6.—Mayor E. S. Meals today issued an order prohibiting the showing of the prize fight pictures in this city. The mayor said that Harrisburg has many colored people and he did not intend to take any chances of disturbances.

WILL NOT SHOW PICTURES

FORT WORTH, Tex., July 6.—In response to the request of Mayor Davis the city commission has passed an ordinance prohibiting the exhibition of pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries fight in this city.

WILL TAKE NO CHANCES

NORFOLK, Va., July 6.—Mayor Reed of Portsmouth, Va., announced today that he would forbid the exhibition of pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries fight.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Reverend Mass circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., held its regular meeting last night. Plans were perfected for the summer which will be given at a future date. President Sister Washburn extended an invitation to all the members to attend a social to be held at her home on July 13. During July and August the circle will hold but one meeting monthly.

MAYOR MEEHAN

Replies to Committee on Appropriations

Asked if he had anything to say relative to the report of the appropriations committee read at the meeting of the board of aldermen last night, Mayor Meehan said: "The committee talks about me disputing the accuracy of the original figures submitted by the committee. It is little wonder that I would dispute the accuracy of them when I know they were wrong and the city auditor's figures prepared for the board of aldermen and submitted at last night's meeting proves that the original figures were wrong. The committee's figures were wrong all around."

"What was asked for in the first place was a comparison of the expenses of the charity department for January, February, March and April of 1908, '09 and '10 and instead of the committee on appropriations getting the figures of the entire department for its comparison it took only the figures showing the total hospital expense. The committee didn't use the out-door-relief figures because the figures didn't suit the committee's purpose. Figures showing the total expense of the department for the months and years in question were asked for but the committee took it upon itself to give only the total hospital expense."

So far as the saving this year is concerned the credit is due my administration and the present board of charities, and I want to say that at a meeting of the board of charities held last night, bills of last year amounting to about $700 came up for approval. Why were these bills held back until this time?

The following are the original figures submitted by the committee on appropriations and they are the figures that I said were not correct and they are not correct. The figures show the expense of the hospital for the first four months of the years in question: 1908, $30,583.26; 1909, $17,493.72; 1910, $12,80.35. The figures submitted by the city auditor are as follows:

Total hospital expense, 1908, $20,895.50; 1909, $17,494.72; 1910, $13,895.25.

The grand total of hospital and out-door relief expenses and the figures that should have been submitted in the first place are as follows:

Grand total, 1908, $30,521.18; 1909, $26,348.01; 1910, $22,565.61.

MUSICIAN SHOT

HE WAS HIT BY BULLET FIRED BY BRIDE

CATSKILL, N. Y., July 6.—Mrs. R. E. Ford, a bride of two days, nearly killed David Davis, a musician at the Antlers, on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ford came to Laurel House on last Friday to spend their honeymoon in the mountains. The bride was anxious to learn how to shoot a revolver. She and her husband were practising in the woods near the hotel on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Ford had a mark on a small tree at which she shot. She missed and the shot was followed by a groan and fall that frightened them both. Mr. Ford made a search and a short distance from the tree on which the target was placed he found Davis unconscious bleeding from a wound in his hip.

LADY POLICEMAN WILL LOOK AFTER THEM

BALTIMORE, Md., July 6.—The Woman Suffrage club of Baltimore intends to put an end to all street flirtations, to keep many of the young people who swarm the streets at night at home, and to prevent any behavior that is not decorous and mannerly by older men and women.

A committee from the club will call upon the state's attorney today and ask his advice and cooperation. The state's attorney will be appealed to particularly to discover if it is possible to appoint women assistants to the police officers at the suburban resorts and on the downtown streets, whose duty will be to look after street morals.

When the suffragists appealed to the police board, especially to secure the appointment of women policemen at the resorts that board declared such action not within its power, as the resorts were outside of the city limits. Now State's Attorney Owens will be asked for aid, and if he declares that the appointments are impossible the women will wait until the next legislative session, when a bill will be framed providing for the appointment of the women assistants to the police.

Meanwhile many of the suffragists will appoint themselves unofficial policemen and will look out for the conduct of the people on the streets. Mrs. Emma Maddox Funk, the president of the club, says:

"We are not planning this campaign because we feel that the policeman are lax in their duty, but we think that there is much to be done for morality that the police have no time to bother about. If we succeed in getting women assistants to the police to do duty on the downtown streets and at the resorts then we will feel that we have accomplished something worth while."

SHOT AT THIEF

BUT JANITOR'S BULLET FAILED TO REACH HIM

NEW YORK, July 6.—A burglar got into the apartment occupied by the family of Julius Elias, on the ground floor of 488 St. Nicholas avenue, and took $2000 worth of diamonds yesterday morning. That is the value put on them by Mrs. Elias, who also lost a mink fur set, valued by her at $175.

It was just before 2 o'clock that Enrico Luzenel, Mrs. Elias' brother-in-law, a teacher of singing and instrumental music, heard a noise out in the dining room, which opens on the yard in back of the house. He went out there and when he found the window open he and the Elias searched until they learned what the thieves had taken.

The janitor was notified and he went out in the back yard and fired five shots at a man he said he saw getting over the fence. He didn't hit him and the police who took up the search found no trace of the thief or the jewels last night.

PER CAPITA

MONEY CIRCULATION OF YEAR DECREASED

WASHINGTON, July 6.—A decrease in circulation per capita of 49 cents on July 1 as compared with a year ago is shown by the latest treasury statement on that subject. On July 1, 1909, the amount which each man, woman and child in the United States would have had was $18.91; last Friday it was $18.52. The population increased in greater proportion than did the money in circulation during the year.

POLICE BOARD

GRANTED TRANSFER OF LICENSE FOR WILD WEST

The regular meeting of the board of police was not held last night. It is postponed until this morning at 10 o'clock. There was little routine business to transact, however, though the executive session was a rather lengthy one.

The principal business done in the open meeting was the granting of a transfer of license to the Miller Brothers 101 Ranch Wild West show from the Lakeview avenue grounds to the Fair grounds.

Several minor licenses were granted.

By virtue of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed, given by Martin E. Sullivan, of Lowell, in the County of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts to The Central Savings Bank, a corporation established under the laws of said Commonwealth, and located at said Lowell, dated September 30th, A. D. 1906, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for said County, Book 352, Page 497, will be sold at public auction, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage deed, on Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of July, A. D. 1910, at three o'clock in the afternoon, all the premises described in said mortgage deed, and therein described substantially as follows:

A certain parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated on the westerly side of Fletcher street and the northerly side of Varney street in said Lowell, containing sixty-one hundred and sixty square feet of land, more or less, and bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner of the premises at said Fletcher street and the westerly side of said Fletcher street and the northerly side of said Varney street, thence southwesterly on said Fletcher street fifty-five feet to land now or formerly of Frederick C. Church; thence southwesterly on said Fletcher street to a stone boundary line supposed to belong now or formerly to Perry J. Stiles; thence southeasterly at a right angle on said Stiles land fifty-five feet to said Varney street; thence northeasterly on said Varney street one hundred and one feet to said Fletcher street at the point of beginning.

Being the same premises to said Martin E. Sullivan conveyed by Martin E. Sullivan by deed dated May 8, 1904, and recorded in said Registry, Book 356, Page 423.

The above described premises will be sold and conveyed subject to any and all unpaid taxes municipal or other assessments the tax rates which may be due or to become due thereon. The purchaser will be required to pay $200 in cash at the time and place of sale, and the balance in ten days from the day of sale, at 12 o'clock noon, at said bank.

THE FOURTH FATALITIES

The number of fatalities from the Fourth this year was only about half the number last year. That is a good showing for one year's effort. Another year the number can be halved again and so on until the accidents become normal. The chief difficulty in the future will be to induce the parents to see that their children avoid dangerous experiments with fire-crackers. Some young men let their exuberance carry them too far and as a result they meet with serious accidents. It will require a few years to stop all this foolishness.

FOR PUBLIC BATHS

Public baths! We have talked public baths so long that we got tired and have given up the idea as almost hopeless, at least for the present. Let us, however, return again to the subject, to refresh the public mind with the necessity as a health measure and as an inducement to right living.

How many people in Lowell enjoy a bath tub at their homes? Not more than one-half. How, then, about the people who have no facilities for bathing at their homes and who cannot afford to go to the beach even in the summer? How many baths do they get during the course of the year? Let it be remembered also that the people who have no facilities for public baths are those who have to work hardest in factory and workshop and who, judging from their occupations, would need baths most.

It would be a very easy matter to construct a swimming pool along one of the canals or on the river bank. All that would be needed would be the excavation to a proper depth and facing the sides with concrete and covering the bottom with sand or gravel. Then a stream of water could be turned on from river or canal or better still from the city supply. The advantage of such a swimming pool for a single summer would be worth all it would cost, in the fact that it would give the young people an opportunity to learn to swim and would prevent them risking their lives by bathing in canals without being able to swim.

There will come a time, we presume, when our city will have public baths like other cities. The park department has made the experiment of putting shower baths in the basement of one of the schools. That system, if tried, might accommodate a considerable number of people, assuming that the school basements were thrown open in the warm weather to the general public.

THE UNITED SHOE MACHINERY MONOPOLY

The Boot and Shoe Industry is dull at the present time and some people ask why. It is not unusual to have dull spells in the shoe business. In this respect it is not different from other lines of business with which we are acquainted. But already it is mooted that the tariff on shoes is too low. When the tariff was removed from hides the duty on shoes was reduced from 25 to 15 per cent.

The New England shoe men are to hold a convention in Salem next week when matters of general interest to the industry will be discussed.

There is another cause assigned for the depression of the industry and that is the monopoly held by the United Shoe Machinery company. There is something in the nature of a revolt likely to break out against this monopoly which has the business by the throat. It refuses to sell its machines outright, simply leasing them and thus exacting tribute. Furthermore, in order to maintain its patents in foreign nations, the machines must be operated or in some cases manufactured in the country granting the patent. The United Shoe Machinery company is now teaching foreign nations how to use its machines in competition with the United States. For this reason it should be compelled to sell its machines to the shoe manufacturers. Congress should pass a law making this leasing privilege illegal and compelling the company to sell its machines as low to this as to foreign nations.

Speaking of these matters, a Washington correspondent, writing in the Boston Transcript, says:—

"The boot and shoe industry never in its history has needed protection until recently. It is in danger to the United States, and except in articles like French fancy wear, which is protected by its own price, the American manufacturer has led the world in quality, volume and cheapness. But within the past decade the industry has had to bear such burdens as have been laid upon it by the United Shoe Machinery company. This great concern, a consolidation of machinery manufacturers who were for years engaged in expensive litigation with each other, doubtless has conferred many benefits upon the industry, but it also has bound it hand and foot with a system of leases which have compelled manufacturers to use its machines and no other, on penalty of being deprived of all machines owned by the company. How grievous a burden this has been Massachusetts manufacturers know, for they went to their legislature to be relieved of it. The legislature responded, but so far the company has succeeded in evading the prohibition intended by the general court.

"As all shoe manufacturers were treated alike, the conditions might not have been so bad, except for the consumer, until the company attempted to extend its business abroad. It first ran up against Germany, which required that the machines must be operated in Germany in order to give validity to the patents. France and Great Britain followed, and soon the trust's shoe machinery was being operated all over Europe in competition with American. It is true that the American shoe worker is unexcelled as an individual craftsman, but scientific shoe machinery has minimized the personal element in shoe making, and Germans, Frenchmen and British workmen are excellent mechanics. In other words, the magnificent battery of American shoe machines is now being turned against the United States, and competition has thus sprung up where it never existed before. It was to these conditions that Mr. Cannon referred in his suggestion that the duty on boots and shoes is too low."

But for being bound under contract the shoe men would undoubtedly rise in revolt against this monopoly.

SEN. CUMMINS OF IOWA
SUFFERING FROM HEART TROUBLE

SENATOR CUMMINS

DES MOINES, Ia., July 5.—Because of heart trouble, augmented by labors of the recent session of the senate, Senator A. B. Cummins has canceled his Chautauqua dates. He also has been ordered to give up golf and cigars. Senator Cummins denies that his heart is seriously affected. "I was advised by physicians at Baltimore to take a rest and have canceled some of my dates," he said.

THRILLING FEAT

Saved the Lives of Two Persons

BOSTON, July 6.—Mrs. Sarah Posner of 41 Billerica street won an enduring place in the memory of her neighbors in the West End yesterday by saving the lives of Mrs. Sarah Rosenberg and her infant daughter from fire. The children in the Rosenberg family, whose home is at 41 Billerica street, got some matches and set paper alight. The blaze spread to clothing in a closet and the frightened youngsters huddled in the corner of the room and cried loudly, but none of them tried to extinguish the flames.

The fire crackled and the smoke drifted into the room occupied by Mrs. Rosenberg, who gave birth to a child last Saturday. She tried to get out of the room but her strength was unequal to the task.

Mrs. Posner happened to look out and saw the smoke. A plank stretched from the window in her kitchen to a window in the Rosenberg home, and the heroic woman, without a thought of the danger, crawled across the narrow board, which bent under her weight, to the assistance of Mrs. Rosenberg and her child.

She took the sick woman in her arms and recrossed the plank, which creaked and swayed under the burden, and the neighbors who watched were literally afraid to speak. But the feat was accomplished and she returned and rescued the infant.

"The children escaped by the front stairway, but Mrs. Posner was afraid to carry Mrs. Rosenberg and the infant down those stairs as she did not know how far the fire had spread.

Mrs. Rosenberg suffered from the shock and was attended by a physician, but her rescuer was unaffected by the thrilling act. An alarm was given from box 702 and the fire was extinguished with slight loss.

KILLS DAUGHTER

Father Shot Girl by Accident

MORRISTOWN, N. J., July 6.—Joseph Tabibjian, caretaker and general superintendent at Persian Court, the summer home here of H. H. Topokynn, the Turkish consul general, accidentally shot and killed his six year old daughter, Mabel, yesterday afternoon. He took a loaded shotgun to drive intruders from a field on the estate, and the child followed, unnoticed, behind. When the trigger of the weapon caught a twig the little girl's head was almost blown off.

The Low Prices

DEAR MADAM:

It is our privilege to advise you that we are engaged today in marking down prices on Women's and Misses' Suits, Coats, Separate Skirts, Dresses and Children's Junior Suits and Coats for the purpose of inaugurating an Annual Clearance Sale—forcing out laggards and surplus merchandise, effectively reducing stock—cheerfully suffer our losses and count cash instead of garments at our Summer Inventory Sale, soon to occur.

We purpose to start our Summer Mark-down Sale in the Women's Suit Department, Friday Morning, July 8th, and on that day descriptions and prices will be printed in the newspapers. As you already know, the store for Quality and Style enjoys a well-earned reputation of handling only garments of correct and exclusive style—finely tailored and perfect fitting. Sold in the beginning of the season at fair prices, with satisfaction guaranteed, now to be reduced in price from 30 to 50 per cent., offers you an opportunity worthy of investigation.

We expect to complete the marking down of garments at closing time Thursday noon, and will show samples in our window ready for sale Friday morning.

Read our advertisement in Friday papers—Come into the store and see the values. This is positively the Final Mark-down Sale of the Season.

Store closes Thursday at 12.30. Don't forget it. Do your shopping in the morning.

SILVER WEDDING

Observed by Mr. and Mrs. Prescott

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen M. Prescott, of 20 Campos avenue, off Wilder street, observed the silver anniversary of their wedding yesterday by entertaining scores of friends, many of whom were from out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Prescott were assisted in receiving in the drawing room by Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Smith.

The reception was held during the early part of the evening after which an entertainment program, consisting of musical and literary numbers, was carried out. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott were the recipients of many beautiful and appropriate gifts. Mr. Prescott was born in China, Maine, and came to Lowell in 1882. For 21 years he has been a trusted employee of the Daniel Cabot Ice Co. Before her marriage Mrs. Prescott was Miss Addie White of Bucksport, Maine, where she taught school before coming to Lowell. The couple were united in marriage in 1885 by Rev. Mr. W. S. Ayers, then pastor of the Worthen Street Baptist church.

MAYOR GAYNOR

SAYS THAT POLITICIANS ARE GRAFTING

NEW YORK, July 6.—Mayor Gaynor sent to the board of aldermen late yesterday afternoon a message charging that politicians were extorting money from persons seeking aldermanic permits for licensing news stands, fruit stands and bootblacking stands. The message was fortified by two reports made by investigators.

"I want to be understood as even not intimating that the members of your honorable body are implicated in this general extortion," wrote the mayor. "but the fact is that the members of your board and the mayor's bureau of licenses, which really means the mayor himself, are being delivered, as the phrase is, in the granting of these licenses for sums ranging from $5 to $500 in each case.

"Persons applying for these licenses cannot get them until they join a political club and pay that club a specific amount of money, or until they pay some politician captain a prescribed sum of money. It is too infamous a thing to be permitted to continue, and I ask the privilege of uniting with the honorable members of your board in putting an end to it."

COURT OF APPEAL

SAYS THAT THE HEINZE SENTENCE STANDS

NEW YORK, July 6.—The United States circuit court of appeals, in a decision handed down yesterday afternoon, affirmed the sentence of 10 days imprisonment passed by Judge Ray on Arthur P. Heinze after his conviction in June, 1909, on an indictment charging him with obstructing the administration of justice by intimidating the removal and mutilation of the books of the United Copper company.

The indictment also charged Heinze with inducing Tracy Buckingham, a witness wanted by the federal grand jury in a proceeding against Fritz August Heinze to evade the service of a subpoena.

Because of the mutilation of the books of the United Copper company U. S. Dist. Atty. Wise said he was unable to complete the government's case

MINSTREL'S WIDOW

PASSED AWAY AFTER AN OPERATION

NEW YORK, July 6.—Eliza, the widow of Col. Jack Haverly, in his day the chief of all the minstrel men, died in a private sanatorium at 229 West One Hundred and Twenty-third street. Eight weeks ago Mrs. Haverly underwent an operation from which she never recovered. She is survived by Ida Haverly, a stepdaughter. She was 60 years old.

On Forty-second street off Broadway there is a store with a little sign displayed in the window which reads "Jack Haverly—Cold Cream"—and cheer for the six years since her husband's death Mrs. Haverly has fought for an existence with a smiling persistence that made her welcome in any dressing room in the city. The actor folk revered her, her husband of course, and they had two benefits for the widow, one in this city and one in Chicago, but neither of them was successful financially.

At one time Col. Jack owned 14 theatres and 23 road companies, but when the colonel died, his daughter found that they had to make their own living.

KILLED BY TRAIN

Boy Was Counting Freight Cars Bound for Lowell

WOBURN, July 6.—Patrick Connolly, 10-year-old son of Coleman Connolly of 30 Walnut street, was struck by an express train about 500 feet north of the Methuen station on the B. & M. railroad at 4 yesterday afternoon and instantly killed.

The boy with his brothers, Martin 16, and John 13, and a cousin, Joseph Connolly of Broad street, aged 15, had been herring in the woods north of the station and were returning home. They emerged from the woods bordering the tracks, and in order to reach Methuen road, which bridges the tracks near the station, were walking in single file in the gutter beside the railroad.

On the farther line of rails a freight train met and passed them, bound toward Lowell. Martin says they were counting the freight cars as they passed along with their burden of berries. While they were so engaged an express passenger train for Boston came up behind them. The engine of the passenger train was of the new

Lawrence Cases May Occupy the Entire Week

SALISBURY, July 6.—The trial of Mayor William P. White and others on a charge of conspiracy to bribe certain aldermen of the city of Lawrence last year on matters of confirmation and of a subsequent attempt on the part of the mayor to remove James A. Hamilton as chief of the fire department, was resumed yesterday and at the adjournment the government was still putting in its case.

The trial bids fair to occupy at least all of this week. The principal witnesses of the day were Ernest Dube, one of the defendants, who was called by the government, the district attorney announcing that having called him as a witness he should not ask for a sentence against him in the event of his conviction. Dube repeated his testi-

KEITH B. MORRIS GIRL WAS SHOT

Says He Wanted to Live Because She Failed to Keep Engagement

HAVERHILL, July 6.—Keith B. Morris, self confessed forger and pentitent, was committed to jail at Lawrence yesterday afternoon. Unless he is able to raise bail of $1000 he will be obliged to remain a prisoner at the jail until he is taken into the superior court for trial in September.

Morris was arraigned before Judge Fuller in the district court yesterday morning, charged with four counts of forging and uttering. He pleaded guilty to each one and as the evidence was at hand in the form of checks and police information, most of which was based on Morris' own statements, the court ordered him recognized for the grand jury.

Morris says he doesn't know a relative or friend in the world to whom he can turn for assistance. He attributes his downfall entirely to his desires to keep pace with young men in Boston.

KANSAS CITY, July 6.—Miss Ruby Hirsch, aged 22, was shot and fatally injured by Edward Baker, a contractor, 47 years old at her home last night because she failed to keep a luncheon engagement with him.

Baker fled but was arrested today six miles south of this city.

RECEPTION TO JOHNSON
CHICAGO, July 6.—"Little Africa" is preparing to receive the black champion, Jack Johnson, when he arrives here Thursday.

Thousands of negroes are expected to join in the reception party. The eighth infantry band and a squad of the negro national guardsmen and the negro Elks band will give an official tone to the reception.

A special touring car will be on hand for Jack and his party, and 26 automobiles will carry personal friends in a parade from the station to Johnson's home, where his mother will have ready a chicken feast.

SUPREME COURT

Rules Against City of Boston

BOSTON, July 6.—The full bench of the supreme court yesterday overruled the defendant's exceptions and a verdict of $500 for the plaintiff stands in the suit of Maria Keating vs. city of Boston. She was hurt by falling into a coal hole in Melrose street. The cover tipped up when she stepped on it. Her arm was broken.

The city excepted to a refusal of the superior court to direct a verdict in its favor. The court says: "The city had notice that the coal hole was in the sidewalk. That made it its duty to use due diligence to protect the travelling public from that hole, and the question is whether it has used due diligence. If the only protection against the hole is a cover which will tip up if stepped upon unless fastened on, to state it in this case, the question is whether, in the exercise of due diligence, the city can allow such a cover to remain, relying on the occupant of the abutting house to fasten it."

"We can have no doubt that in the case of covers of manholes in the street, which cannot be fastened from within a finding would be warranted that a cover which tipped up when trodden upon was a danger which a city would not allow if it used reasonable diligence."

"The question is not what view we take upon the question which arose in this case, but what view a jury could take upon it. We are of opinion that a jury is warranted in finding that a coal hole cover which when trodden upon will tip up unless fastened is so likely to be unfastened that a city which uses reasonable diligence after it had, or in the exercise of proper care, might have had notice of this condition, would not allow it to be there at all."

SEN. WILSON DISCUSSES THE STATEMENT OF COL. ROOSEVELT

CENTRALIA, Wash., July 6.—Former United States Senator John L. Wilson, who is a candidate for the United States senatorship from Washington, referring to the announcement by Col. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay last night, that he would support Miles Poindexter, the insurgent congressman from Washington, for United States senator, said:

"There is so much error of fact contained in the despatch from Oyster Bay concerning the Roosevelt-Poindexter interview, that it is hard for me to form a statement."

"Col. Roosevelt appears either to have been misled or is not familiar with political conditions in this state."

"In the first place, Senator Piles is not a candidate to succeed himself."

"In the second place, Judge Ballinger is not taking any part in the senatorial contest whatever. Ballinger is not the head of the republican party in this state nor the head of any wing of any party."

"Of the six candidates for United States senator, Judge Thomas Burke, Judge John H. Humphreys, J. M. Ashton and myself are personal friends of Judge Ballinger, but Mr. Ballinger is not politically friendly to any one of us over any other one of us."

SPEAKER CANNON

WASHINGTON, July 6.—"Who gave out that news about Poindexter?" That is what Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, asked a newspaper interviewer last night upon his return to Washington. "Informed that the intimation that Representative Poindexter of Washington would have the sympathy of the former president in his candidacy for senator from that state had come from both Mr. Poindexter and Col. Roosevelt, Mr. Cannon declined to comment further upon the situation until he knew more about it."

INJURED ARE RECOVERING

LACONIA, N. H., July 6.—Every one of the persons injured yesterday by the boiler explosion which demolished Jenkins' laundry was reported today to be well on the road to recovery and it was considered certain that the fatality list would be limited to the single death so far reported.

The opinion generally expressed today was that the boiler which exploded must have been defective. To determine this point and also to assist in finding the responsibility for the disaster, expert boiler inspectors will come here within a day or two to examine the fragments of the demolished boiler.

It is not known whether the laundry will be continued by Mr. Jenkins. It is said today that at least one month must elapse before the ground can be cleared and a new laundry building erected.

ONE OF PITTSBURG'S CHAMPIONS WHO IS BATTING THE BALL HARD

HAMILTON HYATT

PITTSBURG, July 6.—Hamilton Hyatt, first baseman of the Pittsburgh world's champions, has been playing good baseball despite the team's slump in the National league race. The initial sack has long been the weak spot of the Pirate infield, but Hyatt has done more to fill the gap than any of the numerous candidates tried out in the last five years. His batting has served to win games when the veteran hitters like Wagner, Leach and Clarke have failed to produce the wallops that mean victories.

COLUMBUS DAY

DECISION THAT THE SALOONS MUST CLOSE

BOSTON, July 6.—The licensing board yesterday declared that they regard Columbus day the same as any other holiday, and that their interpretation of the law is that it means that the saloons are not to open on Columbus day.

The saloons, therefore, will not be allowed to open on the new holiday, which comes on Oct. 12.

TUFF'S PROPERTY ATTACHED

ROCKPORT, July 6.—The examination of the securities of the Rockport National bank was resumed yesterday. The two expert accountants from the Shawmut National bank being in charge of the work. President Loring Grimes and a majority of the directors with acting Cashier Albert W. Tarr assisted verifying collateral, etc.

Nothing was developed to indicate any further serious deficiency, although progress was necessarily slow. It will be several days at least before the examination, which will be thorough and searching, will be finished.

Ex-Cashier George W. Tuff's property was attached by the bank yesterday in an action of contract for $20,000, the document being sworn to before Carleton H. Parsons, clerk of the eastern district court at Gloucester. Mrs. Tuff, wife of the ex-cashier, is heartbroken over the affair and her condition is serious.

To Be Bought by Gaekwar

NEW YORK, July 6.—Maharajah Gaekwa Sir Sayaj Rao III. is due to spend a busy two weeks in New York city. The Gaekwar of Baroda is anxious to take back to India a number of American built automobiles and harvesting machinery, to say nothing of a van load of toys. Rao III. is one of the richest of India's rulers and one of the most progressive. He has been making a tour of portions of the United States and will wind up his visit by July 20 with a flourish of royal splendor. He has engaged the most expensive suite of rooms in one of New York's most exclusive hotels, where he will house his escort. Rao III. wants good automobiles and after inspecting a score or more has decided to purchase one of each make. He is quoted by a Yankee automobile salesman as saying he could not make up his mind "which was the best," and as his attendant insisted their respective cars "are the best" he will buy one of each, test them out in India and do the future ordering after he has tried to climb a hill on the high gear.

New Pitcher Shut Out Worcester

WORCESTER, July 6.—Lowell defeated Worcester here yesterday, 3 to 0, the visitors getting both their runs on errors. Manager Burckett of the home team was put out of the game in the sixth inning for disputing a decision. Huston, Lowell's catcher, was hit by a fast ball sent in by Yount, in the fourth inning, and went out of the game being replaced by Sullivan. The score:

DIAMOND NOTES

At Worcester today.
Yount looks good.
Al Whitridge is due to arrive here today. With Tyler, Wolfgang, Yount and Whitridge we ought to go along some.
Lowell and New Bedford will play a double-header here tomorrow. First game at 2. Tyler and Wolfgang.
They're having all kinds of trouble in Haverhill, and the fans are deserting the game. There is talk of transferring the team to Manchester. Perhaps a change of management in Haverhill might make a difference.
Harry Huston is having hard luck, surely. In the fourth inning yesterday he was struck on the collarbone by a pitched ball and was painfully injured.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

What will probably be one of the greatest baseball battles of the season will be played on the North common this coming Saturday when the strong Wanderers and O. M. I. Cadets of the Lowell Suburban league clash for their first league game. The first game which was scheduled between these two teams was postponed on account of rain, and at that time they were both tied for first place in the league standing. These two teams are still the leaders of the league, the Wanderers being first and the Cadets one game behind. A victory means a great deal for each team, for by winning, the Cadets will be tied for first place, while if the Wanderers take the game it will give them a good hold on first place. The largest crowd that has been seen at an amateur game will probably be on hand, and there is sure to be some excitement, as well as some fast baseball.

The U. S. Hunting baseball team would like to arrange a game for Saturday, July 9, also for July 16. G. M. Roberts, 81 Potter street.

BASEBALL CHALLENGE

July 6, 1910.
Sporting Editor, Lowell Sun.
Dear Sir: In your paper of the 2nd inst. it was with surprise mingled with sorrow that I read the pitiful petition under the guise of a protest of the so-called "by themselves" only two leading teams in the "Die Game League".
The Sanctuary Choir team in one and has always been one of the leading ball clubs in the city, and to show that it was not gotten together for the sole purpose of getting what looks to be the "great game managers" of the L. & S. like a fortune ($50 the city purse), I hereby challenge any team in the L. & S. for $100 a side, the game to be played wherever any of the teams which care to accept this challenge care to play. One more point: I'll also see that both teams will get a score deal. By that I mean Mr. John Condon, the man with the eye of an eagle, will be the decision maker. In regard to the Fourth of July committee, my brother-manager, Mr. Shea, has voiced my sentiments to the letter, so I will therefore let that pass unnoticed.

The first team I would like to hear from is the soldiers (O. M. I. Cadets), because from all reports they did the games after the best of the club of trying to win the fortune on the glorious Fourth.
Thanking you for the space in your valuable paper, I remain,
Yours most respectfully,
John J. Queenan,
Mgr. Sanctuary Choir.

About to be Put In Good Shape

Contractor Heland of Dracut is about to start on a job of road work backed by the town of Dracut and the county commissioners that will making countless thousands happy, for his job consists of macadamizing Lakeview avenue from Collinsville to the city line, near the residence of the Fels family. Anyone who has taken the car for Lakeview within the past two years will realize and immediately appreciate what it means to have that stretch of road completed. It has been a "right" for some time and Contractor Heland promises to improve it to such an extent that the public will not know it.

Work has started upon the improvement of Memorial road from Collinsville to the city line and from all accounts we may get good roads to our neighboring town.
Quite a boom has been started for School Committeeman Bernard Maguire of Collinsville for selectman next year, but Mr. Maguire is still withholding his consent to the proposition.

NEW RAILROAD RATES

ALBANY, N. Y., July 6.—The increased commutation rates on the New York Central and the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroads will be withdrawn by the companies. The public service commission was so informed yesterday by representatives of the companies in reply to the commission's request for the suspension of the new rates.
The commission was told that the request for the suspension of rates had been brought to the attention of the executive officers, and while they would have been willing to comply if it had been made at a reasonable time, they believed that, inasmuch as the new rates are now in effect, no advantage would accrue by granting the request.
The commission decided that the contention of the companies as to the proper publication and filing of the new tariffs was not sustained and that the railroads had substantially complied with the law in this respect. Thus, the other considerations. Chairman Stevens said, relating to other tickets which would receive further consideration.

Minister From Bolivia Weds His Family's Nurse

NEW YORK, July 6.—A romance in which a member of the diplomatic corps at Washington is revealed as the hero at the age of sixty, was disclosed yesterday when it became known that Senor Ygnacio Calderon, minister to the United States from Bolivia, was married last Saturday at Mamaroneck to Miss Beatrice Monica Ahlby.

The marriage of the distinguished South American is made doubly interesting on account of the fact that his bride was for some years employed in the Calderon family as a trained nurse. The diplomat's first wife died only last November. His daughter is Madame Jorge Zalles and is recognized as one of the most beautiful of the foreign legations set.

The marriage license was issued on June 29, last Friday, by Town Clerk Charles Stevens, at Port Chester. The following day the ceremony was performed by Father Isidore Meister, of Holy Trinity Catholic church, in Mamaroneck. Mary A. Ahlby and Elizabeth Martin were the only witnesses. These records were examined yesterday by American reporters.

Daughter Greatly Surprised

So profound was the secrecy imposed upon all connected with the marriage details that not even Mrs. Zalles, the daughter in Washington, was willing to believe the reports when seen there last night. She said:

"The story can hardly be true, because our mother is scarcely dead six months. Miss Ahlby is a quiet, unassuming woman, who has been highly regarded by us. She is not at all young."

As further evidence that she knew nothing of her father's plans, Miss Zalles added:

"If you get any further news about it, I shall be glad to be informed."

home of his bride, No. 36 Stuart street, Mamaroneck. He declined to discuss his romance until informed that a record of the license had been examined by the reporter. Then he attempted to explain that the license had simply been obtained for future use.

He seemed greatly embarrassed and would not admit that the ceremony had been performed until informed that he would have to make use of the license before July 10 or it would become void. Then, with a Spanish shrug of the shoulders, he said:

Tells of Marriage

"Very well, then, you may say that I have been married. I do not care to go into details, as I had hoped to avoid all publicity. I have not even informed my family. I have known the lady whom I have married for several years, having first met her in Washington. She is not wealthy, but her family is a most estimable one. My reasons for secrecy are due to the fact that I did not acquaint the members of my immediate family with my plans, nor have I yet informed them of my marriage."

The Ahlby home is a pretty cottage at the Mamaroneck address given. Senor Calderon declined to permit an interview with his wife, although it was she who received the reporter at the door, then hurriedly disappeared. Her father is said to have been engaged in the cigar business in New Rochelle.

Sixty Years Old

At Port Chester, Town Clerk Stevens said:

"I was called on the phone from Mamaroneck last Friday afternoon by Father Meister, who said Senor Calderon and Miss Ahlby, both of whom he knew, desired to obtain a marriage license, but wanted as little publicity as possible. It was arranged that the couple should come over by trolley after 6 o'clock, which they did, and after answering satisfactorily all the questions asked, were given the license."

"Senor Calderon gave his occupation as that of a professor, his place of birth as Peru, South America, and his present residence Washington. He certified that he was sixty years of age. Miss Ahlby said she was forty-two, her place of birth England, and her residence Mamaroneck, New York."

A record of the marriage ceremony was found in the Holy Trinity church, as given.

GIRL CASHIER

TO BECOME BRIDE OF A MILLIONAIRE

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 6.—For the third time, Judge E. P. Hill, millionaire and former counsel of the Southern Pacific Railroad company, will enter matrimony, his bride being Miss Aloia Allen, until a few days ago one of the cashiers of the St. Anthony hotel here.

The romance had its inception in the hotel, Judge Hill being the first guest when it opened a year and half ago. Miss Allen is witty and is gifted with a striking vocabulary. She made a rapid conquest of the elderly judge, who only recently obtained a divorce from his second wife. His first wife is dead.

Not until Miss Allen left San Antonio a week or so ago was there an intimation of the coming marriage. Miss Allen, and her chaperone, Mrs. H. D. Matthews, have apartments at the King Edward hotel in New York, and it is understood Judge Hill will also be registered there. Their honeymoon will be at the Hotel Knickerbocker, followed by a trip through Europe.

Judge Hill possesses immense land holdings in Texas besides having a large store of available cash.

In granting his second wife a divorce he also gave her a certificate check for $200,000. Miss Allen came here from Chicago. She was employed in the Auditorium hotel there. She is a native of New York.

MARILLA M. RICKER, CANDIDATE FOR GOV. OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

MISS MARILLA M. RICKER

CONCORD, N. H., July 6.—Marilla M. Ricker of Dover is planning to be the next governor of her home state. She filed a formal application with the secretary of state, accompanied by a check for $100, which is necessary to enter her name as a candidate under the new state primary law, to be tried for the first time this fall. The check was forwarded through Mrs. Ricker's local attorney and is to be followed at once by a declaration of platform. Mrs.

Ricker has just returned from San Jose, Cal., where she spent the winter and spring. She was the first woman to seek a diplomatic post. She sent her application with strong endorsements to President McKinley for the post of minister to Colombia. She was the first woman lawyer to be admitted to the bars of the District of Columbia and of New Hampshire and was associated counsel with the late Colonel Ingersoll in the star route trials.

GOV. DICKERSON Will Not Stop Boxing Bouts

RENO, Nev., July 6.—Governor Dickerson has given out the following statement respecting the Jeffries-Johnson fight, at which he was a spectator:

"I do not at all regret that the fight was pulled off in Nevada. It was a clean fight and Tex Rickard's assurances to me personally were made perfectly good."

"I am in favor always of any sport just as long as the game is played clean and square as this was. There is absolutely no warrant, in my judgment, for the protests that have been made against it. The fight in Reno demonstrated fully that there was nothing about it but what was proper for any state to permit."

"The spirit of fair play had a strong hold on the thousands of people who witnessed it, of whom I was one, and that fact was made evident as the crowd was overwhelmingly for Jeffries, but when the black man demonstrated his complete superiority in every way and won the battle of thinking, seeing and acting simultaneously, as the result of great mentality, speed and vitality no demonstration of reproach or insult was offered in any manner."

"The character of the men composing that crowd was not made up largely of the rowdy or vulgar element as many would lead one to believe is always the case at such events, but of business and prominent men. Of my own personal knowledge, the holding of this event in Nevada was beneficial rather than injurious, notwithstanding the natural advantages of this state, with its undeveloped wealth, familiar to many who otherwise would not have heard of the state. I am well pleased with the intelligent manner in which the tremendous crowd was handled and treated by the people of Reno, and I have heard only expressions of good will for the city on all sides."

"I will further state that as the law licenses glove contests I will not attempt to interfere with such events in any manner in the future."

WOMAN KILLED When an Auto Turned Turtle

GREAT BARRINGTON, July 6.—Mrs. Benjamin F. Stahl, wife of Dr. Benjamin F. Stahl, a prominent Philadelphia physician, was instantly killed when an automobile operated by her husband turned turtle at the foot of a steep hill in Hillsdale, N. H., eight miles from Great Barrington, yesterday. Dr. Stahl was badly but not fatally injured and J. Watson Dalmor of Washington, D. C., a nephew of Mrs. Stahl, who was also in the car at the time, escaped with only a few bruises.

The party was on the way to Rangeley lakes, Maine, where they were to pass the summer, and were making the trip by automobile. They had just reached the top of a steep hill in Hillsdale and Dr. Stahl, who was driving, stopped to change the gears before making the descent. When he started up again the brakes refused to work and the machine started down the hill uncontrolled. It had gone about half way when it struck a rough place in the road, and a moment later was upside down by the roadside. Mrs. Stahl landed on her head and was instantly killed, the others being thrown some distance away and landed in the soft dirt.

The body of the dead woman was brought here yesterday and today will be taken to Philadelphia. Later it will be buried in Washington.

Mrs. Stahl was 42 years of age, and was the daughter of the late Maj. F. Melbourne Watson of Catskill, N. Y., and a grand-daughter of the late Judge Watson of the supreme court of New York.

WANTS DIVORCE

POLITICIAN SEEKS SEPARATION FROM HIS WIFE

NEW YORK, July 6.—Norton Chase, who was state senator from Albany county and democratic candidate for attorney general in 1895, and is now a law partner of D. Cady Herrick, has brought suit for divorce from his wife, who was Mabel L. James, of Williams-town, Mass. They were married in 1887, but have been living apart for several years. Mr. Chase accused his wife of misconduct at the apartment on April 27 last and she has replied with countercharges.

Mrs. Chase asked Supreme Court Justice Page today to grant $50 a week alimony and $500 counsel fee. The court reserved decision.

A RUNNING FIGHT Between Police and Safe Crackers in New York

NEW YORK, July 6.—After a running fight between safe crackers and police in Harlem today in which about thirty shots were exchanged, the police, facing a rain of bullets, ran one fugitive up an elevated railroad stairway and captured him after a desperate hand-to-hand encounter. The second man bolted into a tenement house and disappeared.

The burglars were found by Zerando Di Angles, proprietor of a first Avenue cafe, drilling holes in a safe in which Di Angles for the last month has kept from $6000 to $7000 belonging to Italian societies. As they dashed out of the place they opened fire. Di Angles thought the bullets whistled close to him was not injured, and yelled for the police. Three officers responded and the chase through the streets with a running exchange of shots began and continued for several blocks, arousing the entire neighborhood.

Policeman Albinger finally cornered a man who gave his name as Frank Piel on the "L" stairway. The man seized the officer by the throat and almost choked him into unconsciousness before his brother officers reached his side and subdued the man. He denied being a professional burglar and said he did not know the name of the man who escaped.

A lot of burglary tools of the finest quality was found beside the store safe, the contents of which had not been disturbed.

LEADER BARNES WILL FIGHT TAFT AND COLONEL ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, July 6.—William Barnes, Jr., republican leader of Albany county, held a conference yesterday with State Chairman Woodruff. Mr. Barnes sails for Europe today. After the conference he said:

"There's just one thing I care to say. These republicans who are against direct nominations to preserve a stable form of popular government will continue that fight. We are against direct nominations and their offspring the initiative and referendum, the recall and any other schemes for destroying representative government. We are against them to the end."

"Does this mean that there will be a fight against Taft and Roosevelt for the control of the state convention on that issue?" was asked.

"There's no fight on person or personalities in this," answered Mr. Barnes.

AEROPLANE FLIGHT

NEW YORK, July 6.—Clear weather and headless breezes this morning promised excellent weather conditions for Clifford B. Harmon's twenty-six mile aeroplane flight from Garden City, L. I., across Long Island sound to Greenwich, Conn., landing on an island in front of the country place of his father-in-law, Commander P. C. Benedict. Buntions have been fitted on his biplane and inner tubes of automobile tires will be fitted on the tail of his machine to keep him afloat in case he has to land on the water.

He expects to go into the air at Garden City and follow the shore line up to Tuxedo, where he will strike directly across the sound towards his destination.

NO CORPORATION FUNDS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 6.—The finance committee of the republican state convention at its first campaign meeting has decided not to accept contributions to the republican campaign fund from corporations.

"We realize," said State Chairman Lee, "that the question of funds is a serious one. We do not expect to raise a large fund. In fact, we do not believe it will take a large amount of money to run the campaign. The state committee this year started even, and it hopes by economy to break even at the end."

Man Killed by An Elevator in Boston This Morning

BOSTON, July 6.—Unaware that there was any one in the bottom of the elevator well, Edward Matthews allowed the car he was operating, in the Exchange club on Milk street in this city today, to descend rapidly from the fifth story to the basement, which resulted in crushing his best friend, Frank O'Neil, to death. O'Neil was employed by the club as an elevator boy and had evidently left his elevator and lowered himself into the pit to oil the mechanism. He was 30 years of age and lived in Somerville. He was the only means of support of an aged widowed mother.
